Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them.
 - Mk 9:2-3

Jesús tomó aparte a Pedro, a Santiago y a Juan, subió con ellos a un monte alto y se transfiguró en su presencia. Sus vestiduras se pusieron esplendorosamente blancas, con una blancura que nadie puede lograr sobre la tierra.
 - Mc 9, 2-3

GOSPEL MEDITATION

August 4, 2024

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Since my college days I've loved a song called "Dance with You" by the rock band Live. It touches on the deep mystical hunger of our heart: "I've tasted all the wines/ a half a billion times/ came sickened to your shore/ you showed me what this life is for." These lines resonate with anyone who has feasted on the good things of this world only to be left spiritually hungover and unsatisfied.

We see a similar dynamic evoked by Jesus' words after he feeds the crowd with bread and fish. To teach them to hunger for God, he recalls God's gift of manna-bread for the hungry ancient Israelites. Those folks had grown spiritually sick from the idolatrous food of Egypt yet still longed for more worthless pagan food. So, God sent heavenly bread to nourish their bodies, but also to heal their distrustful hearts. His people — like us — must learn to hunger and thirst for God alone. Before we can receive that which will not disappoint, we first must cease expecting that earthly goods will satisfy us.

We will get to the Lord's teaching on the Eucharist in the next two weeks. But first, he asks us: do you trust me to take care of you? Do you trust me to give you what you need for each day, and to not worry about the next day? Do you see that when you hungrily stuff yourself with the things of this world you become sick and lose your taste for the bread of life? So, our hungry hearts cry out: Lord, help us to trust that you'll provide for our every need. Help us to use only what we truly need. Help us hunger for the goodness of your Son, who is the true bread from heaven. That is what this life is for.

— Father John Muir

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

4 de agosto de 2024

18º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

"A tu pueblo, sin embargo, le distribuías el alimento de los ángeles; le enviabas desde el cielo incansablemente un pan ya listo, que tenía en sí todos los sabores y se adaptaba al gusto de cada cual" (Sabiduría 16:20). Algo mucho mejor que ahora, ir a la mejor panadería y escoger los diferentes panes que nos gusten y saborearlos. Tal parece que los israelitas entonces, y nosotros ahora, seguimos muchas veces sin distinguir lo que es el pan del cielo. Lo que debemos de saber es buscar el pan que dura eternamente. Los compatriotas de Jesús lo buscaban porque les dio de comer pan hasta saciarse. Y nosotros, ¿qué pan buscamos al asistir a la Eucaristía? Jesús, les da un consejo entonces y lo repite en su Palabra este domingo: "Trabajen no por el alimento de un día, sino por el alimento que permanece y da vida eterna" (Juan 6:27).

Jesús dijo: "Yo soy el pan de vida. El que viene a mí nunca tendrá hambre y el que cree en mí nunca tendrá sed" (Juan 6:35). Qué bendición tan grande tener como alimento para el camino el Sacramento de la Eucaristía. Es nuestro auxilio permanente en la vida. "Si al salir de misa estás igual que como entraste, algo no funciona. De hecho, la Eucaristía es la respuesta de Dios al hambre más profunda del corazón humano, al hambre de la vida auténtica, porque en la Eucaristía, Cristo mismo está realmente en medio de nosotros para alimentarnos, consolarnos y sostenernos en nuestro camino" Papa Francisco.
