MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Today we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. St. Luke concludes his gospel with the Ascension of the Lord and the directive to the disciples to be witnesses to the world of the wonders of the Kingdom of God. Then St. Luke writes another book, this one about the Early Church and the ministries of Peter and Paul from Jerusalem to Rome. This book is the Acts of the Apostles. Now at the very beginning of Acts, today's first reading, we hear again about the Lord's Ascension and the directive to the disciples to be witnesses to the world of the wonders of God's Kingdom.

Of all the wonders and preaching of the Lord, St. Luke prepares us for the story of the Early Church by recalling the Ascension and the Lord's mandate that his disciples be witnesses to the world. Jesus is still mystically present in the Holy Spirit. The main focus of the disciples is to be witnesses. The whole Acts of the Apostles is about their witnessing. It is also a call for us to be witnesses.

When we hear the term witness our natural inclination is to consider a witness in a court room. But being a witness is much more than reporting on an incident. In calling the disciples to be witnesses, Luke is telling them, and us, to report on the entire story of salvation history. We are to proclaim to the world that the spiritual is real, that mankind sacrificed the spiritual for the pleasures of the world, and that God loves us so much that he restored the spiritual through the sacrifice of His Son. We are to proclaim that there is more to life than what meets the eye. Jesus Christ is still with us. His Holy Spirit empowers us. Our sins will be forgiven. Everlasting life is offered to us.

We probably will not be called upon to make the choice of choosing Christ or denying Him, although many in Iraq, in Asia and in Africa, are making that very choice as we speak. However, we need to give witness to the fundamental truth of love in the world. We need to stand against hatred; prejudice; and the destruction of life. We must stand for the poor, the immigrant and the stranger among us.

That is on the negative, but there are wonderful positives. Being a witness to Jesus Christ means letting others know that life can be so much more than a series of failures and successes. Being a witness to Jesus Christ means proclaiming to the world that meaning and purpose and fulfillment can have the infinitely wonderful dimension of eternal union with God. Being a witness to Jesus Christ means proclaiming with our lives that happiness is offered to all who dare to embrace God.

In Christ's Love,
Fr. Bob

God of love, Our world is wrought with war and violence, as brother turns on brother, and the innocent awake to gunfire and bombs. May Your compassion and healing move hearts and bring a new day to Ukraine. Fortify your children to resist aggression and instead become instruments of peace. We ask this in the name of the One who is the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ. Amen.
