MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

We welcome Mr. Adam Sellers, a seminarian for our Diocese, to the Parish this Summer. He will be here for 6-8 weeks. He will be writing an article for the Bulletin each week while he is here. Those articles will take the place of my letter.

In the Gospels of Mark and Matthew, Jesus is asked the same question that he was asked today in the Gospel of Luke and that is, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" We see in the other two Gospels that Jesus answers the question by quoting Deuteronomy 6:5, on Loving God with all your heart and Leviticus 19:18, on loving your neighbor. But in today's Gospel, Jesus answers that question with a question. He asks, "what is written in the law?" The man immediately answers by quoting Deuteronomy 6:5 and after the man finishes quoting it Jesus' simple answer is, "do this and you will live."

The man then poses another question for Jesus, "who is my neighbor?" Even though this might have been an insincere question, Jesus responds beautifully with the parable of the Good Samaritan which is only found in the Gospel of Luke. In this parable, we see a man left for dead on the side of the road to Jericho and two religious people pass him before the third comes along who is a Samaritan. The Samaritan, who is considered an Israelite's most hated enemy, not only goes over to the man, but cleans his wounds and then takes him to a nearby Inn and promises to pay for his expenses. The hated enemy is the compassionate neighbor in the parable.

Jesus demolishes all boundaries whether it be class, religion, ethnicity, or gender that determines our neighbor. A neighbor is someone who loves like the Christ loves. We are called to love and show compassion to all regardless if they are worthy of our love or not. We know what to do, but the key is to do it.

We have enjoyed having Mr. Adam Sellers, a seminarian for our Diocese, in the Parish the past seven weeks. This is his last weekend in the Parish. He will be taking a few weeks to be with his family before he returns to the seminary. If you would like to stay in touch with him, his address is 7625 North High Street, Columbus, OH 43235

Isaiah: The Fifth Gospel---By any measure the book of Isaiah is among the world's greatest works of religious literature. It probes the mystery of a people's life with God. The early church used the poetic songs of Isaiah's Suffering Servant to interpret the passion and death of Jesus. Readings from the prophet Isaiah are proclaimed during Advent, Christmas, and Holy Week because of the book's striking messages of both challenge and hope. Even the book of Revelation echoes the prophet Isaiah with images of a new heaven and a new earth, and the beauty of the heavenly Jerusalem.

Come join us as we study this beautiful book from the Old Testament! One class will start on Wednesdays from 10:00 -11:45 am beginning Aug. 17 thru Nov. 9, and another on Thursdays from 6:00-7:45 pm beginning Aug.18 thru Nov. 10 in the St. Mark's Room. You will need a $10 commentary for either class that will be ordered for you at registration. Please register by emailing Sr. Madeline at SrMadeline@stmarkrc.org or calling at 205-980-1810, ext. 3. Deadline for registration is August 1.

Fall 2022 Women's Bible Study: Conversing with God Using the Psalms

Want to learn more about the Church's Prayerbook, the Psalms? Please join us as we use Sister Irene Nowell's popular book, Pleading, Cursing, Praising: Conversing with God Through the Psalms. Sister Irene maintains that the psalms teach us to tell our story, to cry out our pain, and to give praise to God. They also teach us to listen - to the voice of God, the voice of Christ, the voices of the people around us, and the voice of all creation. This book includes questions and exercises for personal reflection, brief prayers for praying along the way, and suggestions for composing one's own psalm-prayers. It promises to enrich the spiritual life of everyone who reads it.

The Women's Group will meet on Tuesdays at 10:00 -11:30 am in the Conference Room, from Sept 6 thru Nov 1. The group is limited to 20 participants. Please register by emailing Sr Madeline at SrMadeline@stmarkrc.org or calling her at 205-980-1810, ext. 3. Books will be ordered with registration. Registration deadline is August 8.

NEWS AND UPDATES

Have you, or someone you know, ever thought of joining the Catholic Church? Have you been baptized in the Catholic Church but have not received First Eucharist or Confirmation?

Well, R.C.I.A. may be the answer to your questions. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process of spiritual and educational formation for adults who seek to reflect on becoming full members of the Roman Catholic Church through their conversion of mind and heart.

The program this year will begin on Monday, Sept.12 and conclude in May 2023, meeting weekly (with few exceptions). The high point is of course the Great Easter Vigil when those who, after discernment and prayer, are received into the Church.

We will host three information sessions this summer: Sunday, July 17 at 1:00 PM, Saturday, July 30 at 5:30 PM and Monday, August 8 at 6:00 PM, all in the Parish Hall. Meetings will be about 1 hour. If you have a sponsor, please invite them as well. If you have any questions, contact Deacon Phil Boettcher at 205 541 5625, pfboettcher@outlook.com. Looking forward to meeting you.
