MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Jesus today is in the home of Martha and Mary. These two sisters—as often is the case with siblings—are very different.

First, let us look at Martha. Martha is physically in the same house as Jesus. But when He speaks, instead of listening to Jesus, Martha is doing her own thing. Martha is in the presence of Jesus, but she is not present to Him. Then we have to ask: what exactly is Martha doing instead of listening to Jesus? She would certainly be the first to explain that she's working for Jesus. Her work is all about Jesus. But here's the kicker: she's not doing what Jesus wants her to do.

This sets before us one of the key distinctions of the Catholic spiritual life. This is the distinction between sincerity and fidelity. Some persons believe that as long as they're sincere in what they do in life, then they are being faithful to what God wants them to do. This is a misconception, and this misconception can lead to many dead-ends in the spiritual life. Sincerity may be a virtue, but it is not a measure of fidelity.

Next we turn to Martha's sister Mary. In today's Gospel passage, Mary is in the presence of Jesus, and is also present to Jesus. Mary shows us that the yardstick that measures our fidelity is the spiritual virtue of listening. Mary listens to Jesus. But what did Jesus say to her? It's telling that St. Luke the Evangelist does not reveal to us what Jesus said to her. What Jesus said was for Mary alone. But that Mary listened is for all of us to imitate: to listen, so that we might faithfully follow God.

What the evangelist does reveal is that Mary "seated herself at the Lord's feet and listened to his words." There are at least two points that the evangelist makes in this sentence. First, Mary was seated, not standing for service, like a waiter who takes your order, and what Martha was doing. Whatever Jesus said to her, it was not marching orders, but something so deep that Mary had to take it "sitting down", to ponder it thoroughly.

Second, there was no dialogue between the two - it was not a two-way communication. The words flowed in only one direction: from Jesus, to Mary, and Mary listened. This listening is what Jesus calls "the better part." Today's Gospel Reading not only makes a distinction between prayer and action, but also makes a distinction about two different types of prayer: a distinction between speaking to God and listening to Him. Listening is the "better part" and the foundational part of prayer.

From this, we see the reason why Martha is anxious and worried: not because she's doing something bad. Martha is anxious and worried because she did not put prayer first. Her works do not flow from her prayer. In our own daily life, when we put prayer first and base decisions upon prayer, then this becomes the foundation of our fidelity to God.

In Christ's Love,

Fr. Bob

Isaiah: The Fifth Gospel---By any measure the book of Isaiah is among the world's greatest works of religious literature. It probes the mystery of a people's life with God. The early church used the poetic songs of Isaiah's Suffering Servant to interpret the passion and death of Jesus. Readings from the prophet Isaiah are proclaimed during Advent, Christmas, and Holy Week because of the book's striking messages of both challenge and hope. Even the book of Revelation echoes the prophet Isaiah with images of a new heaven and a new earth, and the beauty of the heavenly Jerusalem.

Come join us as we study this beautiful book from the Old Testament! One class will start on Wednesdays from 10:00 -11:45 am beginning Aug. 17 thru Nov. 9, and another on Thursdays from 6:00-7:45 pm beginning Aug.18 thru Nov. 10 in the St. Mark's Room. You will need a $10 commentary for either class that will be ordered for you at registration. Please register by emailing Sr. Madeline at SrMadeline@stmarkrc.org or calling at 205-980-1810, ext. 3. Deadline for registration is August 1.

Fall 2022 Women's Bible Study: Conversing with God Using the Psalms

Want to learn more about the Church's Prayerbook, the Psalms? Please join us as we use Sister Irene Nowell's popular book, Pleading, Cursing, Praising: Conversing with God Through the Psalms. Sister Irene maintains that the psalms teach us to tell our story, to cry out our pain, and to give praise to God. They also teach us to listen - to the voice of God, the voice of Christ, the voices of the people around us, and the voice of all creation. This book includes questions and exercises for personal reflection, brief prayers for praying along the way, and suggestions for composing one's own psalm-prayers. It promises to enrich the spiritual life of everyone who reads it.

The women's group will meet on Tuesdays at 10:00 -11:30 am in the Conference Room, from Sept 6 thru Nov 1. The group is limited to 20 participants. Please register by emailing Sr Madeline at SrMadeline@stmarkrc.org or calling her at 205-980-1810, ext. 3. Books will be ordered with registration. Registration deadline is August 8.

NEWS AND UPDATES

Have you, or someone you know, ever thought of joining the Catholic Church? Have you been baptized in the Catholic Church but have not received First Eucharist or Confirmation?

Well, R.C.I.A. may be the answer to your questions. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process of spiritual and educational formation for adults who seek to reflect on becoming full members of the Roman Catholic Church through their conversion of mind and heart.

The program this year will begin on Monday, Sept.12 and conclude in May 2023, meeting weekly (with few exceptions). The high point is of course the Great Easter Vigil when those who, after discernment and prayer, are received into the Church.

We will host three information sessions this summer: Sunday, July 17 at 1:00 PM, Saturday, July 30 at 5:30 PM and Monday, August 8 at 6:00 PM, all in the Parish Hall. Meetings will be about 1 hour. If you have a sponsor, please invite them as well. If you have any questions, contact Deacon Phil Boettcher at 205 541 5625, pfboettcher@outlook.com. Looking forward to meeting you.
