MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

On this Eighteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time, we are reminded to remain focused on our quest for heaven. It is a call to live a Christ centered life. We are urged to focus our attention on the heavenly realities more than on the earthly ones. Today we are also reminded that we live in a transitory world, so we are called to make use of the things of this world prudently without losing sight of life with God as our goal.

The first reading of this Sunday begins with a warning: "Vanity, vanity, all things are vanity...!" It strikes a reality that most of us have neglected. However, one day each one of us will come to terms with it. Qoheleth calls us to remember God in all we do. He reminds us that there will be an end to all created things. He also reminds us that the purpose of our life on this earth is to journey to heaven.

In the second reading, St. Paul clearly differentiates true life, which is life lived in Christ, from life lived outside Christ. Without mincing words, he reminds us that we must be heaven bound where Christ is everything. He tells us to transform our lives by calling us to be steadfast in our search for all that is good, honorable, and true. Sometimes we can be so attached to the things of this world that we hardly reflect about heaven anymore. St. Paul reminds us to live a Christ-centered life. A life that will prepare us for the heavenly banquet.

In today's gospel, Jesus speaks to us as he did to the man from the crowd: "Watch out and be on your guard, for a person's life is not measured by possessions." The pursuit of wealth and the pleasures of this world have blinded so many people to the reality that we are pilgrims here on earth. St. Thomas Aquinas said: "Temporal goods are subject to man, that he may use them according to his needs, not that he should make them his main purpose, or be overly anxious about them." The more we place our hopes on things of this world, the more we lose sight of heaven. This is because: "Where a man's wealth is, there is his soul."

So, let us fix our eyes and minds on heavenly things, and not only on the vain things of this earth. There is a saying that: "Real men and women love Jesus, and not riches!" Indeed, real men and women are those who despite their fame, wealth, and achievements, love Jesus above all things.

In Christ's Love,

Fr. Bob

QUARTERLY MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

Please plan to join prayer at our quarterly Mass of remembrance which will be celebrated on Wednesday, August 3 at 12:00 pm.

Isaiah: The Fifth Gospel---By any measure the Book of Isaiah is among the world's greatest works of religious literature. It probes the mystery of a people's life with God. The early church used the poetic songs of Isaiah's Suffering Servant to interpret the passion and death of Jesus. Readings from the prophet Isaiah are proclaimed during Advent, Christmas, and Holy Week because of the book's striking messages of both challenge and hope. Even the Book of Revelation echoes the prophet Isaiah with images of a new heaven and a new earth, and the beauty of the heavenly Jerusalem.

Come join us as we study this beautiful book from the Old Testament! One class will start on Wednesdays from 10:00 -11:45 am beginning Aug. 17 thru Nov. 9, and another on Thursdays from 6:00-7:45 pm beginning Aug.18 thru Nov. 10 in the St. Mark's Room. You will need a $10 commentary for either class that will be ordered for you at registration. Please register by emailing Sr. Madeline at SrMadeline@stmarkrc.org or calling at 205-980-1810, ext. 3. Deadline for registration is August 1.

Fall 2022 Women's Bible Study: Conversing with God Using the Psalms

Want to learn more about the Church's Prayerbook, the Psalms? Please join us as we use Sister Irene Nowell's popular book, Pleading, Cursing, Praising: Conversing with God Through the Psalms. Sister Irene maintains that the psalms teach us to tell our story, to cry out our pain, and to give praise to God. They also teach us to listen - to the voice of God, the voice of Christ, the voices of the people around us, and the voice of all creation. This book includes questions and exercises for personal reflection, brief prayers for praying along the way, and suggestions for composing one's own psalm-prayers. It promises to enrich the spiritual life of everyone who reads it.

The women's group will meet on Tuesdays at 10:00 -11:30 am in the Conference Room, from Sept 6 thru Nov 1. The group is limited to 20 participants. Please register by emailing Sr Madeline at SrMadeline@stmarkrc.org or calling her at 205-980-1810, ext. 3. Books will be ordered with registration. Registration deadline is August 8.

Parish School of Religion Catechists, Aides, and Substitutes

We are looking at expanding our PSR offering for certain grades to Wednesday afternoon. Duplicate classes mean an increase in number of catechists.

Sunday morning needs include First Communion Lead Catechist, 3rd Grade Lead Catechist, 4th Grade Lead Catechist and 7th Grade Lead and Assistant. Wednesday afternoon needs are still being evaluated. Please prayerfully consider this special vocation to serve the youth of our Parish.

Youth Ministry Volunteers and Core Team Members

You are invited to join in the important mission of Youth Ministry! We need volunteers who value the Faith to be a part of a team dedicated to helping our youth thrive! Would you consider learning more about this important Gospel work? To learn more about both individual and “core group” opportunities to serve, contact our Youth Minister, Charlotte Sederstrand, at youthminister@stmarkrc.org. She is looking forward to hearing from you!

NEWS AND UPDATES

Have you, or someone you know, ever thought of joining the Catholic Church? Have you been baptized in the Catholic Church but have not received First Eucharist or Confirmation?

Well, R.C.I.A. may be the answer to your questions. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process of spiritual and educational formation for adults who seek to reflect on becoming full members of the Roman Catholic Church through their conversion of mind and heart.

The program this year will begin on Monday, Sept.12 and conclude in May 2023, meeting weekly (with few exceptions). The high point is of course the Great Easter Vigil when those who, after discernment and prayer, are received into the Church.

We will host an information session on Monday, August 8 at 6:00 PM in the Parish Hall. Meeting will be about 1 hour. If you have a sponsor, please invite them as well. If you have any questions, contact Deacon Phil Boettcher at 205 541 5625, pfbottcher@outlook.com. Looking forward to meeting you.
