MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

This weekend our Bishop has asked that as part of our two-and-a-half-year celebration of the Eucharist that we celebrate the Solemnity of Saint John Vianney, the patron saint of Parish Priests. For we are reminded that "without priests, we do not have the Eucharist." So, on this weekend we remember Saint John Vianney and ask for his intercession for an increase in vocations to the priesthood in our Diocese.

A vocation is something we are, not something we do. In the course of a lifetime, people hold many jobs. A young girl may begin as an aide in a day care. Then she may become an Early Childhood teacher. After a while, she may change professions and become a manager of a store. She may even go into investing and become a financial consultant. People have many jobs and many careers. But this is not who they are, it is just something they are currently doing.

A vocation is something that we are. That same girl may become a consecrated religious, or a wife and then a mother. Consecrated Religious, wife and mother are not jobs, they are who she is. They are vocations. The same holds true for men. Husband, father, and priest are not careers that can be changed as some might change jobs.

When Jesus called Simon and Andrew, James, and John, you, and me, He did not call us to do something. He called us to be something. He called us to be disciples. He also called some of us to serve Him and the Church by being priests, religious and deacons. Let us actively support these vocations in our homes.

I would like to offer a prayer that comes from a pamphlet published by the Diocese of Birmingham about 20 years ago called "Daily Prayers for Vocations."

"O God who wills not the death of a sinner, but rather that he or she be converted and live, grant we beseech you through the intercession of the Blessed Mary, ever Virgin, St. Joseph her spouse, and all the saints, an increase in laborers for your Church: fellow laborers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls, through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit world without end. Amen."

In Christ's Love,

Fr. Bob

Nazareth House Program — Catholic Youth Volunteers Needed

Catholic high-school students interested in working with children and youth having intellectual and developmental disabilities, in a Saturday Morning Greater Birmingham Area city-wide program of religious education, are invited to a training workshop on Saturday, August 20th. The training workshop will be held from 9:00 AM until 12:00 Noon at St. Francis Xavier School, 2 Xavier Circle, Birmingham, AL 35213. The training workshop will take place in the School Annex Building. Please note that those who participate in the Nazareth House Saturday Program are eligible for service hours that meet the requirements for high school graduation and college scholarship applications. For further information or directions, please email, text or telephone Sarah Houser LICSW (sawisely@gmail.com) 205-612-6111 or Father Patrick Cullen (Rathmines.cullen@gmail.com) 205-907-0287.

Isaiah: The Fifth Gospel---By any measure the Book of Isaiah is among the world's greatest works of religious literature. It probes the mystery of a people's life with God. The early church used the poetic songs of Isaiah's Suffering Servant to interpret the passion and death of Jesus. Readings from the prophet Isaiah are proclaimed during Advent, Christmas, and Holy Week because of the book's striking messages of both challenge and hope. Even the Book of Revelation echoes the prophet Isaiah with images of a new heaven and a new earth, and the beauty of the heavenly Jerusalem.

Come join us as we study this beautiful book from the Old Testament! One class will start on Wednesdays from 10:00 -11:45 am beginning Aug. 17 thru Nov. 9, and another on Thursdays from 6:00-7:45 pm beginning Aug.18 thru Nov. 10 in the St. Mark's Room. You will need a $10 commentary for either class that will be ordered for you at registration. Please register by emailing Sr. Madeline at SrMadeline@stmarkrc.org or calling at 205-980-1810, ext. 3. Deadline for registration is August 1.

Fall 2022 Women's Bible Study: Conversing with God Using the Psalms

Want to learn more about the Church's Prayerbook, the Psalms? Please join us as we use Sister Irene Nowell's popular book, Pleading, Cursing, Praising: Conversing with God Through the Psalms. Sister Irene maintains that the psalms teach us to tell our story, to cry out our pain, and to give praise to God. They also teach us to listen - to the voice of God, the voice of Christ, the voices of the people around us, and the voice of all creation. This book includes questions and exercises for personal reflection, brief prayers for praying along the way, and suggestions for composing one's own psalm-prayers. It promises to enrich the spiritual life of everyone who reads it.

The women's group will meet on Tuesdays at 10:00 -11:30 am in the Conference Room, from Sept 6 thru Nov 1. The group is limited to 20 participants. Please register by emailing Sr Madeline at SrMadeline@stmarkrc.org or calling her at 205-980-1810, ext. 3. Books will be ordered with registration. Registration deadline is August 8.

Parish School of Religion News

We are looking at expanding our PSR offering for certain grades to Wednesday afternoon. Duplicate classes mean an increase in need for catechists.

Sunday morning needs include 2nd Grade First Communion Lead Catechist, 3rd Grade Lead Catechist, 4th Grade Lead Catechist. Wednesday afternoon needs are still being evaluated. Please prayerfully consider this special vocation to serve the youth of our Parish.

We have received approximately 50% of potential registrations. Your registration helps us accurately plan for the needs of additional classes and catechists. If you have not yet done so, please register for PSR today. PSR begins on August 21st at 9:00 am in the Youth Center classrooms. To learn more, go to stmarkrc.org.

Important Reminder

Children are to be enrolled in religious education classes the year prior to the year of sacramental reception. This means if a child is to receive First Communion in Grade 2, they are to be enrolled in Grade 1 PSR. The same holds true for Confirmation. If your child is to be confirmed in the 9th grade, they are to be enrolled in 8th Grade.

Important Dates:
