Prayer for the Truth

Dear Lord, Your prophets were those who spoke Your Truth. Help me to be a speaker of truth as well, one who reminds of Your love, encourages the lowly, and points ever more deeply to You. Amen.

Oración por la Verdad

Querido Señor, Tus profetas fueron los que hablaron Tu Verdad. Ayúdame a ser también un hablante de la verdad, alguien que recuerde de Tu amor, anime a los humildes y señale cada vez más profundamente a ti. Amén.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When Jesus taught in the synagogue of his native place, he didn't fit the image of the Messiah the people expected. They dismissed him. Let's learn from their example and remember that God often comes to us in forms that are surprising — even challenging.

INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Cuando Jesús enseñó en la sinagoga de su lugar natal, no encajaba con la imagen del Mesías que el pueblo esperaba. Lo desearon. Aprendamos de su ejemplo y recordemos que Dios a menudo viene a nosotros en formas sorprendentes e incluso desafiantes.

The Eucharist Makes Us Pro-Life

The Eucharist Bears Witness to the Gift of Human Life

In its document, The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops recently recalled, "The personal and moral transformation that is sustained by the Eucharist reaches out to every sphere of human life." In this, my brother bishops and I echo the reminder of Pope Francis that we participate in Mass not simply to fulfill a precept but, more importantly, "because only with Jesus' grace, with his living presence within us and among us, can we put his commandment into practice, and thus be his credible witnesses" (Audience, Dec. 13, 2017). In other words, our specifically Catholic witness to the gift of human life flows from the Eucharist.

Sent Forth, Fulfilled in the Eucharist

All of this is to say that the power and effectiveness of events such as the upcoming March for Life, as well as our hope for their success in bringing widespread protection to the child in the womb, emanate from Christ and the transformation he brings in the Eucharist. Joining us to himself, Our Lord Jesus Christ transforms us so that, day by day )

July 7, 2024 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Recently I watched a bunch of YouTube videos on how to optimize willpower in the face of weakness. The message was: do not accept your weakness. Crush it. Dominate it. In one video, however, at the end of a rant by a willpower coach, the muscular stoic admitted, “You’ll never actually get what you want, no matter how hard you try.” Amazingly, he admitted that willpower alone is not sufficient for us weak-willed humans.

What does God want us to do with our weaknesses, if crushing them with willpower won’t work? For example, what should I do with my tendency to arrogance and self-isolation? Or my procrastination? Or my intellectual and physical limitations? Or my selfishness?

The counter-intuitive answer is clear in this week’s words from St Paul, “I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me (2 Cor. 12:9).” Boast of our weaknesses? Paul isn’t promoting weak-mindedness or laziness. Rather, he perceives that Jesus loves us not despite our weaknesses but because of them. Boasting of our weakness means claiming human will is not all we have. It means turning to God whenever we feel weak, which—let’s face it—is almost all the time. When we do, we learn to love our weaknesses, because it’s there that we meet the strength of Christ. This week, I challenge us to find ways to boast not in willpower but in weakness. — Father John Muir
