The New Pope

Our Bishop Cantú told us a story about how he was recently filling out a form, and one of the requirements was a place where your supervisor would sign. So, he told the providers that his supervisor died, and a new one had not been appointed. It was at that moment that I realized that the death of a person may hit many people differently.

The sadness that a pope died a week before the canonization of a teenage software developer, Blessed Carlo Acutis, is enough disappointment for the pilgrims who spent a lot to travel to Rome for his canonization. Many people were asking if they should continue to wait in Rome. I advised that they come home and wait for the new Pope to announce his plan for canonization. The mercy of God flew towards our direction and the Pope came from America. For the three weeks of no Pope, I was struggling to name the Pope in the canon of the Mass. Sometimes I would say "Francis, our Pope" and then auto-correct myself. Within the Mass, I have proclaimed four Popes since I was ordained in 2003: John Paul II, Benedict XVI, Francis I, and Leo XIV. Now we are going to help our pope with prayer and supplication.

I wish to visit Chicago, his birthplace, and Peru, the place where he did the apostolic work that elevated him, and finally visit him at Rome to receive my papal blessing (papabilia). The assignment I will give you now is to look for Mr. Mark Lancaster who was Pope's elementary school classmate for six good years, and receive a handshake from him, because the people who saw Christ were regarded as apostles and witnesses. In the same way, someone who knew the Pope from childhood carries with him the original papal blessing and heritage. So, look for Mr. Lancaster, the husband of Maria, and the father of Lauren. He always attends 5 p.m. Mass here in St. Justin parish. That having been said, we hope a date will be announced soon for the canonization of Blessed Carlo Acutis.

Finally, as we wait for the visit of the new Pope, may we always treat everyone with profound respect and love because the next pope may be your son's friend, or who knows, one of your priests here from the Diocese of San José. May we be kind to all and may God continue to enrich his church always through Christ our Lord. Amen

Fr. Gerald

Food Pantry Update

Thank you for your support during the most recent second Collection for Community Ministry.

Every single donation helps!

The state of the Food Pantry is that our shelves are nearly bare and our once-full dry goods bags are skimpy.

We continue to provide lunches to 50-55 individuals and grocery bags to ~ 25 families per day.

The Food Pantry's strength is in the 50 – 60 volunteers who regularly serve at the Food Pantry. It is in our clients' patience, trust, and generosity of spirit. It is in you, as God's workers, who fund the Food Pantry, donate clean grocery bags, backyard fruit and vegetables, and shelf-stable cans and dry goods.

Each week / month, year-round, we purchase the following items to assemble Lunch bags, so we are always in need of:

Assorted variety of chips
Vienna Sausage
Granola bars
Sliced deli meat
4 oz Fruit Cups
Sliced Cheese
16 oz bottles of water
Plastic Forks & Spoons (new)

Ziploc Sandwich Bags
Box of 200 Mayo Pkts
Box of 500 Mustard Pkts

Second Harvest Food Bank provides a generous amount of needed produce (fruit & vegetables) each week, but it is rare that we receive more than one canned good, dry beans, and maybe dry pasta to put in each Grocery bag. We regularly buy the following when needed, but are thankful for your donations of:

Kirkland toilet paper
Grocery Bags (Clean, lightly used, and either Brown paper bags or Plastic bags with handles)

We occasionally see donations of the following, but these days, they go fast and then our shelves are again empty.

Peanut Butter
Anything canned
Dry Pasta
Dry Rice

Please know that most Food Pantry clients appreciate the food given them, and though we give away less when we have less, they are understanding and thankful for what they receive. Thank you for continuing to provide this tangible symbol of God's hope to our neighbors in need.

God Bless You –
Joe Bauer & Nancy Uyeda

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

What do you call brothers who are born on the same day? Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter. Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival? Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?

— Father John Muir

Dear St. Justin Parish Family,

It is with deep joy and heartfelt gratitude that we share this wonderful news: we have not only reached but exceeded our 2025 Annual Diocesan Appeal (ADA) goal! Through your overwhelming generosity, we have raised $208,000, surpassing our parish milestone of $200,000.

This remarkable achievement is more than a financial accomplishment—it is a profound testament to our parish family's unwavering faith, unity, and commitment to the mission of Christ in the Diocese of San Jose and our Parish. Each prayer lifted, each offering made, and each act of support is a beautiful expression of your love for the Church and your desire to see St. Justin thrive.

Because we have exceeded the diocesan goal, every dollar above it will return directly to St. Justin Parish in the form of a rebate. These funds will greatly assist us in strengthening our ministries, enhancing our parish facilities, and further enriching the spiritual life of our community.

We extend special thanks to our Parish Stewardship Team, whose dedication, leadership, and joyful encouragement inspired us all. Their tireless efforts have reminded us that stewardship is not merely a duty, but a grace-filled opportunity to participate in God's work among us.

Once again, together with the Stewardship Team, we thank each and every one of you. Thank you for your trust. Thank you for your vision. Thank you for walking together in faith, hope, and generosity.

May we continue to build together a Church that welcomes, heals, teaches, and serves. May the Lord abundantly bless you and your families for your continued love and support.

With sincere appreciation,
Fr. Gener and Fr. Gerald
