3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

And it happened that, while [Jesus] was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. - Lk 24:30-31

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

"I Am Not Afraid — I Was Born to Do This."

Have you ever felt like you weren't doing the work you should be doing?

We have all had jobs that leave us feeling unfulfilled. Bored. Dreading the next day. We may even experience a sensation of unfamiliarity, of being unable to recognize ourselves.

Most of us have also been lucky enough to have a job that we love — a vocation, a calling that makes us look in the mirror and think, This. This is who I'm supposed to be. I recognize this person.

For me, that work is the work of marriage and motherhood. The hours are terrible, the pay is even worse, and my coworkers are frequently disappointed in me — but it doesn't matter. When I look in the mirror every morning and see my tired, wrinkled face gazing back, choruses of "I said I don't want the BLUE SHIRT, MOMMY, ugh!" and "Honey, I've got an early meeting, I'm so sorry but I have to run," ringing in the background, I think to myself: I recognize this girl. She was born to do this.

Christ's own disciples did not recognize him on the road to Emmaus. It wasn't until he took the bread and broke it that their eyes were opened, and they realized they had known it all along — "Were not our hearts burning within us?" In that moment, Christ was doing the very work he was born to do, making the sacrifice.

I don't know what kind of vocation you are called to. I don't know what kind of work reveals your true self. But I hope that whatever work you are doing, you can look in the mirror and feel your heart burning within you.

"He was made known to them in the breaking of bread." — Luke 24:35

GOSPEL MEDITATIONS

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE— Father John Muir, April 23, 2023
3rd Sunday of Easter

I always feel a little sad when someone begins to speak to me with the words, "Father, I know you're so busy, but ..." It happens a lot. And I get it. He or she is trying to be respectful of my time. But it saddens me because a priest makes Jesus present to people in a special way, and Jesus always has time for us. Don't we all feel at times that God just doesn't have time for us?

Nonsense. Just look at the stunning "Road to Emmaus" story we hear this week. It's the day Jesus rose from the dead. And the Risen One appears in disguise to two disciples. He walks with them, chats with them, and eventually eats with them. It could have been hours he spends with them — two unnamed persons — in the middle of nowhere. On the day he rose from the dead!

My friends, please take this to heart: The Risen Jesus is not too busy to spend time with you! He doesn't have "better things to do." You and I are members of this crucified and risen Body. He therefore has all the time in the world to be with us. So, I challenge you this week to approach him confidently in prayer and conversation. After all, being with you and me is the reason he rose from the dead.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration of the week

It wasn't until Christ spoke the words of blessing over the bread that the eyes of the disciples were opened, and they saw him for who he was — God in flesh and blood before them. The Eucharist makes real what we otherwise would fail to see.

THE FEAST OF SAINT MARK APRIL 25TH

St. Mark the Evangelist, is the author of the second Gospel and the patron saint of notaries. He was the son of Mary of Jerusalem (Acts 12:12) whose home became a meeting place for the apostles.

St. Mark is said to have traveled with St. Paul and St. Barnabas, who was Mark's cousin, on their missionary journey through Cyprus.

He wrote the Gospel in Greek for the Gentile converts to Christianity. Tradition says the Romans asked St. Mark to record the teachings of St. Peter about Jesus.

On April 25, we celebrate the Feast of Saint Mark the Evangelist. Although he was not a direct disciple of Jesus, he played a vital role in spreading the Gospel as a missionary in the early Church. Mark fulfilled in his life what every Christian is called to do: proclaim to all people the Good News, that is the source of salvation. In particular, Mark's way was by writing. There are many other ways to share, such as music, drama, poetry, or by teaching children around a family table.

Let us all celebrate St. Mark by finding a way of our own to share the message of Jesus!

Together we prevent abuse and protect children & young people

National Child Abuse Prevention Month (April) is a good time to review the ways in which we work together as a community of faith to prevent abuse and protect children and young people. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles stands resolute in its commitment to report allegations of sexual misconduct to law enforcement, support victim-survivors and protect minors and the vulnerable. An updated flyer which summarizes the efforts of the Archdiocese to ensure that our parishes, schools and ministries are safe places for children and young people is available at <https://lacatholics.org/protect/protect-resources/>.

ST. ANASTASIA SANCTUARY REMODEL

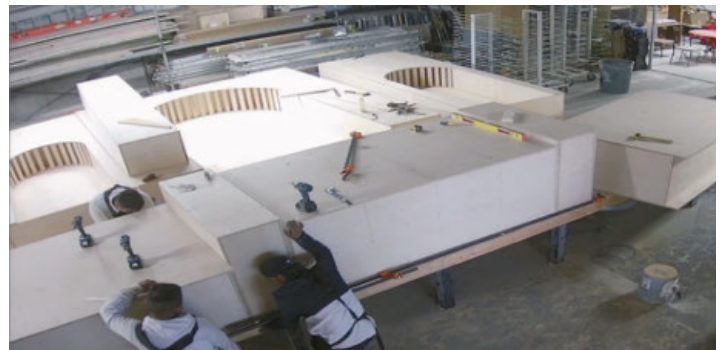

Our Sanctuary remodel is going very well. Over the past few months, our staff has worked closely with the Los Angeles Archdiocese Construction Department and the assigned project manager. Our contracts have all been signed and approved by ADLA.

The flooring material for the Sanctuary has been purchased and is currently being fabricated with a target installation date of May 8th. Our Retablo is being built offsite in the artisans's workshop and will be installed, painted, and finished once completed.

We have also contracted a lighting designer. She is well known in the Los Angeles Archdiocese and will begin with lighting niches and then work outward over time into the Church's nave.

We are currently reviewing bids on this work with the construction department. Our next step is to finalize material selections for the flooring in the rest of the Church. We thank you for your continued patience during this time. In addition, we are incredibly grateful for your continued financial generosity to our Building Fund and parishioners' fulfillment of Called to Renew pledges. Both sources of funding will help see this project to fruition.
