GOSPEL MEDITATION

Traditionally, the four writers of the Gospels are symbolized by four creatures that make their way into Church art and architecture: Matthew, an angel; Mark, a lion; Luke, an ox; and John, an eagle. These images can be found in churches across the world, a nod to those who recorded the stories of Jesus for us, thousands of years ago.

Today's Gospel was written by John. There are a few reasons why John is symbolized by an eagle, but my favorite explanation is that his writings soar like an eagle into the sky with their beautiful, poetic language. The prayer we hear today is no different — Jesus invokes God in a long discourse that might seem mystifying at times, the same way that a poem can be perplexing to understand when we are unfamiliar with the pacing or format.

Consider holding onto the shortest sentence in this prayer: "I pray for them."

Jesus prays for us. For me. For you.

Let that sink deep into your being.

Jesus is on your side. He is aware of what you are holding at this moment. He is aware of your pain, your faith, your mission. And He's rooting for you. This prayer was recorded thousands of years ago, far before you were born. Since before you were born, you were held in prayer. With that certainty, we live.

— Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration of the week

When the world sees us, do they see to whom we belong? In what ways are we most manifestly Christian? In prayer, in service, in sacrifice? Whatever it is, let us devote ourselves to it with one accord, so that Jesus Christ may be glorified in all that we do.

GERRY THE CHISLER FOR CHRIST

You may have noticed the Crucifix on the Eastside of our Church. This Crucifix has a beautiful history here at St. Anastasia. As part of our sanctuary remodel project, Fr. Leszek Semik has prayerfully and intentionally ensured that our Parish's history remains a prominent part of our future.

As we relocate the Crucifix within the sanctuary, we express gratitude to Gerard Francis Tholen, a local parishioner who 1954 meticulously carved this majestic six-foot crucifix for St. Anastasia Catholic Church, where his family attended. Gerry only had some experience from woodwork class but discovered his natural talent as a 'chiseler' while serving as a GI in the Combat Engineer Corps. After the war, he settled in Playa del Rey with his wife, Marguerite Lucille, and their four children. This busy father of four found woodworking a pastime that brought him peace and joy. This labor of love took him 300 hours to complete. We can only imagine the quiet conversation and prayer time that went along as he chiseled and tapped away.

This Crucifix will continue to hang in our sanctuary, and we hope it becomes a peaceful spot for many of us to pray, venerate and contemplate the ultimate sacrifice of Jesus Christ in the Crucifixion. We invite all the faithful to bring their worries, despair, sickness, and weakness to Him on the Cross so that He can bring comfort, peace, healing, and strength to carry on.

Understanding the VIRTUS® Protecting God's Children program

Residence restriction laws

Residence restriction laws are state and local laws that prevent convicted sexual offenders from living within a specific range of a school, park, daycare, bus stop, or other known area for children. Many states have adopted some form of residence restriction to prevent sexual offenders from committing repeat crimes. These laws exist and have an impact, but they are only one layer of protection and are not a guarantee that a park, bus stop or other space is safe. For more information on restriction laws, read the VIRTUS® article "Residence Restriction Laws: Do they prevent sexual abuse?" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/. <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>

REFLECTIONS ~ Q&A

Why Are There Liturgical Cycles?

©LPi

Question: Why Does the Church Have Different Liturgical Cycles?

Answer:

While most Catholics know that the Church Year is divided into various seasons (e.g. Advent, Christmas, Ordinary Time, etc.), many are unaware that the one Church Year is not like the one that follows. While the main seasons and feasts are the same from year to year, the 3-year cycle for Sundays and the 2-year cycle for weekdays means that, as a general rule, the readings in the Lectionary that we hear at Mass will change from year to year, helping us to have a richer encounter with Sacred Scripture. Each new cycle begins with the beginning of the liturgical year, the First Sunday of Advent.

The reasoning behind this innovation is outlined in Sacrosanctum Concilium, the "Dogmatic Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy" of the Second Vatican Council: "The treasures of the Bible are to be opened up more lavishly, so that richer fare may be provided for the faithful at the table of God's word. In this way a more representative portion of the holy scriptures will be read to the people in the course of a prescribed number of years" (no. 51). This was fully achieved in 1969 when the new cycles of readings were approved by Pope Saint Paul VI. Fred Luskin, PhD

Bill Wilson (cofounder of AA) discusses forgiveness - he calls it "letting go of resentment". It's not done to please others, but in the interest of FREEDOM - theirs and ours. A life which includes deep resentment leads only to fertility and unhappiness. Learn about the process of forgiveness, what it is and what it is not, how to forgive them and ourselves - the practical approach to the process. Workshop will focus on positive intention, unenforceable rules, and decision & action as tools for self-forgiveness process. This will be a practical WORK-shop. Bring your questions, prepare to confront your unwillingness and to respond to your willingness. Together we'll share our experience and dialogue about being delivered to FREEDOM by bringing HEALING to others.
