GOSPEL MEDITATION

July 16, 2023

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

It's not uncommon to hear people complain that we Catholics often fail in communicating our faith. Fair enough. We can and should improve there. But it's interesting to notice that Jesus himself was implicitly accused by his disciples of a similar failure. This week in Matthew's gospel they are perplexed that he speaks to the crowds in ambiguous parables. The Lord's riddles leave many people more confused than before. He responds by pointing out that his parables have an intentional dual purpose: to hide (for some) and to reveal (for others) his Gospel: "Because knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been granted to you, but to them it has not been granted" (Matthew 13:11). Is Jesus being unnecessarily difficult, obscurantist, or, worse, elitist?

No. We have to remember that all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge lie hidden in him (c.f., Col. 2:3). He is the word of God from heaven to be planted in the earth of our humanity to bear great fruit. However, like a lover delicately pursuing his beloved, we're dealing with a relationship, not new data. When we aren't willing to personally accept Jesus into our lives, the "info" of the Gospel will simply not make sense to us. It'll seem bizarre, esoteric, or like incoherent religious-speak. But when we are willing to accept Jesus into our lives, everything else starts to make sense. When others don't understand the Church or the Lord, let's be patient. Love is patient. Sometimes it has to hide before it is revealed.

— Father John Muir

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

The origins of this feast reach all the way back to the Old Testament. In the book of Kings, we read the story of the prophet Elijah. Much of his prayer, fasting, and public ministry occurred from Carmel, a mountain in Israel. Christian hermits -- seeking solitude -- made their homes on the mountain during the first millennium. Over time, the hermits assembled into a community and were given a Rule of Life. They named their church after Mary -- Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

Political upheaval forced the Carmelite order out of the Holy Land and into Europe, where they established monasteries for both men and women across the continent. Many great saints and doctors of the Church have come from the Carmelite order, including St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Therese of Lisieux, and St. Edith Stein. Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Pray for us!

FAITH FORMATION

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Focus on the Good — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

When I was a child, my mother had a set of sculptures resembling three human heads. One head had hands over the ears, one had hands over the eyes, and one had hands over the mouth. Of course, they depicted the phrase, “Hear no evil; see no evil; speak no evil.” I have seen these images repeated many times since then, usually as the monkey heads from a Japanese proverb, which would have probably seemed a little less creepy to me when I was a small child. Apparently, there is no consensus about the full meaning or certain origin of these three images nor the phrase. At the very least, it causes us to reflect on the need to avoid evil and look for the good in things.

As I have lived my life, I have come to believe there are more people who lives their lives in a contrary manner to these images. It is not that they seek evil, but it is as if they “see no good, hear no good, and speak no good.” Gossiping is the way they pass the time, and they always seem to find the negative in people and situations. Being a good steward certainly means that we do not seek evil, but more than that, it means that we see the abundance of good things all around us. These gifts of God are big and little, profound and ordinary. By seeing the world in this way, we begin to change our personalities and our overall disposition. We always need to follow a new proverb: see all the good, hear all the good, and speak about the good. Amen.

DID YOU KNOW? JULY 15TH-16TH

Understanding the VIRTUS® Protecting God's Children program

Protect children with disabilities

Children living with disabilities are nearly three times more at risk for abuse and maltreatment, compared to children who do not have special needs. This mistreatment can range from physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or neglect. Safe adults can help prevent this abuse, by recognizing the higher risk for these children and being alert to any signs of abuse. Because parents and caregivers of these children are at increased risk of stress and isolation, abuse may be harder to spot. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article “Children Living with Disabilities and Risk for Child Maltreatment and Victimization” at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>

Spiritual
Hydration

Rev. Terry Hershey

Join Terry Hershey as you explore ways to rehydrate when you are worn thin, tired or sad. Learn to celebrate the sacrament of the present moment and rehydrate when you are dispirited by the business or messiness of everyday life. Find a place for a sanctuary in your life, making room for passion, grace, play, laughter and wholeheartedness that positively can spill into our relationships and work or ministry. Practice self-care with attention and mindfulness. Terry shows us how to refuel the heart and spirit and stay hydrated emotionally and spiritually.

Terry is a renowned author, humorist, inspirational speaker, dad, ordained Episcopal minister, golf addict, and smitten by French wine. He divides his time between designing sanctuary gardens and sharing his practice of pausing and sanctuary, to help others rest, renew, and live wholehearted. He returns here for what has become a welcome and well-attended annual visit. Terry's book, This is the Life, offers the invitation and permission to savor this life, to taste the present moment. The title of his latest book, Stand Still – Finding Balance When the World Turns Upside Down, is self-explanatory. Most days, you can find Terry out in his garden in Port Ludlow on the Puget Sound, because he believes there is something fundamentally spiritual about dirt under your fingernails.

Art Theme: The Garden of God

This is a meditational event through the expressive form of painting. The participants follow a pattern and start with the same subject, but have artistic freedom & flexibility. This session will allow time for contemplative prayer using silence, music, scripture, and sharing as each artist creates their masterpiece. During this unique form of gathering, individuals will be able to connect with others on a spiritual level while creating art.

All skill levels are invited and no artistic experience is required. Melissa Calderon has been a private tutor in the South Bay area for over twenty years, and her areas of expertise are math and science. She has also been part of the hospitality team at the Mary & Joseph Retreat Center for over seven years. While in elementary school, she studied different branches of art at Barnsdall Art Park in Los Angeles where she was captivated with calligraphy, painting, and photography. Later she continued studying art while in high school. Marita Bueza is a database analyst for a hospital in the Chicago area, and she shares that she spends most of her time using her left side of the brain during work and visual arts helps to open her creative mind, aids in being in God's presence, and aids in her balance. Her father, a retired skyscraper architect and painter, taught her painting techniques using acrylics. Marita continued mastering her artistic ability when she studied art during high school and college.

Cost: $45 per person (all materials included); optional $16 lunch
