A LETTER FROM THE DESK OF FR. LESZEK

Dear St. Anastasia's Parishioners,

Fall is such a lovely season! I love to see the changing of the leaf colors, feel the chill in the air, make apple pies, and smell the wonderful fragrances in the air.

The fall season normally makes us think of the upcoming holiday season. As we draw nearer to Thanksgiving Day, let us be reminded that this holiday serves as a reminder to us that we are to have thankful hearts all the time, not just during Thanksgiving. Having a spirit of thankfulness is such a wonderful blessing.

Gratitude is so important to God. 1 Thessalonians 5:18 states: "In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus." God wants us to be thankful to Him for everything. Sometimes we can get into a spot where our perspectives are negative and we tend to murmur and complain, but God wants us to have a heart that is swelled with gratitude.

We have so much to be grateful for. We ought to be thankful for the air that we breathe, food to eat, a place to call home, plenty of water, family, friends, and so much more. God has definitely bestowed blessings all around us and if we will simply open our hearts and eyes to see we will be eternally grateful.

God freely gives His love and salvation to us. In turn, we ought to be grateful and bestow that kind of love upon others. As this season of Thanksgiving approaches, let us be reminded to be thankful for everything and look for ways that we can be servants. Look at those around you and see how you can be a blessing to them.

This Thanksgiving and all throughout the holiday season, count your blessings and be a blessing unto others. Invite friends and family over for dinner, take the kids to the soup kitchen, make a visit to a nursing home, or buy some groceries and bless a family in need.

You can also make a gratitude list to serve as a reminder of all the things that you are grateful for. Post it in a place that you can see every day so you can be reminded of what a great life you have! Being grateful can bring you peace and joy and God's will is that we be full of love, peace, and joy.

This Thanksgiving, no matter what you are going through, give thanks to God. Even if you are going through a tough time, thank God for the times that He has helped you through other difficult times, and for all of the good things in your life. Keeping your eyes on Him and off of your own circumstances will allow your heart to open and be enlarged. Happy Thanksgiving!

Blessings in Christ,
Fr. Leszek

FAITH FORMATION

MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION

The Ministry of Consolation has been providing a supportive space for individuals who have experienced the loss of a loved one.

We meet twice a month on the second and fourth Tuesdays at 7 pm in the Parish Office Conference Room. This November, our sessions will be held on the 14th and 28th.

After these sessions, we will take some time to prepare a new program for the start of 2024, likely beginning in late January or early February.

To stay updated on this information, please check the weekly bulletin and St. Anastasia's website.

Our study of the book "It is OK that we are not OK" by Megan Divine has revealed the shortcomings of our current support system and the need for better counseling and assistance to help individuals rebuild their lives after loss.

Here are some excerpts from the book:

"Having lost a loved one, she (the author) knows that life is forever changed. There is not getting over it, but only getting under it. Loss and grief change our landscape. The terrain is forever different and there is no normal return to. There is only the inner task of making a new and accurate map. As she (the author) so wisely says,

- We're not here to fix our pain, but to tend to it."

If someone is interested in this book, we still have a couple of them to purchase. Please contact Aleida Rodriguez, Ministry Coordinator, Ministryofconsolation@St-Anastasia.org for questions or information.

KIDS CORNER

"Hello, Jesus! Help me remember that you're always with me."

Jesus spent a lot of time in prayer. There's a lesson for us: We can pray before, during and after every important event in our lives. And everything in your life is important to God! Try saying, "Hi Jesus!" or "Help me, God!" or "Thanks for that, Lord!" throughout the day today. Those little prayers can help you in a big way. -Living Faith Kids
