GOSPEL MEDITATION

February 4, 2024, 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Maybe I'm weird, but I like spending time in doctor's offices, confession lines in churches, auto repair shops, prison cells, and support groups of various kinds. It's refreshing to be with people who humbly admit something is wrong and forthrightly set out on a path toward a solution. When we ignore what is off kilter, we become alone and fragile. In places where people are honest and hopeful about brokenness, sturdy if subtle fellowship usually ensues.

Consider the image we see of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark. "...they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by a demon. The whole town was gathered at the door." The entire human community is afflicted in various ways, and so it gradually forms a strange new community around Jesus. The healer from Nazareth is like a sun of health around which orbits a throng of humanity absorbing his healing rays. These blessed souls can't fix themselves and become healthy, and they know it. But they have found in him the living source of all imaginable healing.

It's the Church, isn't it? A sin-sick community gathered and healed is what happens at the beginning of every Mass. We shuffle in through the door from everywhere and announce that we are not okay, and we can't fix it. In doing so, we are drawn into the orbit of the healing power of Christ — and into a renewed community with the whole human family. It's nothing to fear or rush. Maybe we can even learn to enjoy more how good it is to be in such a happy place. — Father John Muir

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Attention Men of our Community:

At this time our Stephen Ministers are especially seeking to serve the men of our community; men who may need a male confidante to help them through a life challenge such as career transition, death or illness of a loved one, or frustrations in marriage or parenting.

Research shows men may be reluctant to talk about their problems - or have some embarrassment or shame about seeking help - but we know men who recognize the need for help when life gets tough actually build on positive masculine traits such as responsibility and strength.

A relationship with a Stephen Minister provides Christ-centered care through active listening once a week, for one hour, in a one-to-one setting. This lay service is 100% confidential.

If you are tired from carrying the weight of your burdens, this service can bring you relief. To inquire, please call the Parish office or email stascares@gmail.com
