GOSPEL MEDITATION

Once a man came to the Vatican and asked to see Pope John Paul II, claiming that they had been friends in Poland. When told of the man, the Pope said, "He is mistaken about our friendship. I don't recall ever having suffered with him." As it turned out, the man had never known the Pope. Now, I'm not sure if the story is totally factual. But doesn't the juxtaposition of suffering with friendship sound exactly like JP II? He understood that the deepest and most lasting friendships are forged in the fires of shared suffering. No suffering, no friendship. Amazing.

This week we hear Jesus say to the apostles and to us, "You are my friends if you do what I command you" (John 15:14). In Jesus' life, death, and resurrection, God entered the world of human suffering and transformed it into an avenue of friendship with Himself. Following His command — to love, to lay down our lives for others — will always entail suffering. But this suffering only deepens our friendship with Him. His suffering is ours; ours is His. We have become friends of God.

This week, how might you share your suffering with the Risen Jesus? How might he be sharing his suffering with you, in the lives of those around you? Be attentive to that, and you'll find that you are indeed a friend of God, because you've suffered together a great deal. — Father John Muir ©LPi

MONTH OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Remember your beloved mother or any special woman, living or deceased, with a Mother's Day "Spiritual Bouquet" Mass Intention. Cards and offertory envelopes can be found in the Vestibule and at the side of the West entrance to the Church.

CHURCH RENOVATION UPDATE

Renovations to the Church continues to come along. This past week we finished the installation of the acoustics for the new sound system! We now look forward to the next phase, which is the installation of the new Church pews, which will begin this week. The tabernacle (pictured below) is almost finished and will soon be positioned on the Retablo. We want to thank you, our wonderful Parishioners, for your patience as we continue the beautification of our Church. All of this cannot be done without your continued support. To donate to our Church Building Fund, please scan the QR code, or go to this link.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Have you ever gotten home from the grocery store with just one too many overstuffed bags of groceries to carry on your own- and tried to take them all in to the house at once anyway? So you get the bags situated and get halfway to the door, only to hear that riiiiip! Panic sets in, you try to contort yourself to keep from losing the bags, hoping to make it to the kitchen before everything falls to the ground.

That can happen all too easily in life. We assume we can handle everything all by ourselves. Often, the truth is that life is like carrying that one overloaded bag of groceries too many. It's just too much for one person to carry alone. Sometimes we really need to slow down or reach out for help.

If you find yourself in that situation and could use help walking through an overloaded time in your life such as job loss, loss of a loved one, struggles in marriage, health or fertility, the St. Anastasia Stephen Ministers can be of help. A Stephen Minister is someone who will help

You carry that overloaded bag, offering confidential, one on one, spiritual support. To find out more or to see if this is a fit for your needs, contact the parish office or email stascare@gmail.com

PRAYERS FOR OUR YOUTH

DID YOU KNOW?

MAY 4TH -5TH

May 4-5 || Bullying and disabilities

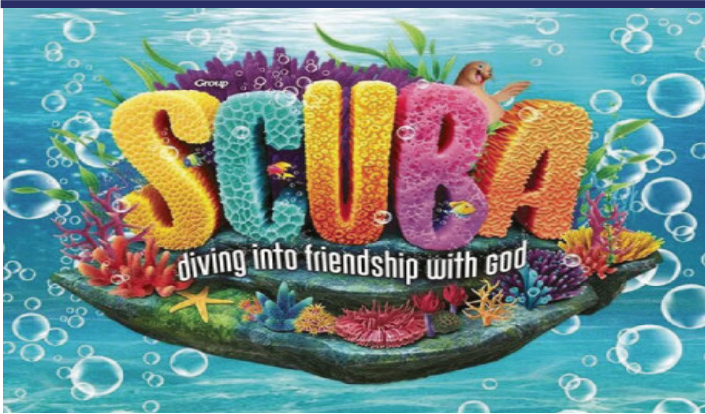

A child with a disability, such as hearing loss, language impairment, learning disabilities, or physical disabilities, is often at increased risk for bullying.

Children who struggle to understand social cues or control impulsive physical behaviors are also at increased risk, as bullies may see this behavior as aggressive, prompting an aggressive response. Children with learning disabilities are also sometimes easy targets for theft and vandalism. In schools, teachers and volunteers should be aware of these extra risks and watch for red flags. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Children Living with Disabilities and Risk for Child Maltreatment and Victimization" at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>
