GOSPEL MEDITATION

Pentecost Sunday

When I was twenty-two years of age in August of 2000, I experienced World Youth Day in Rome. As for many of my generation, the event was life-changing for me. Surrounded by joyful, hope-filled young people from seemingly every nation and tongue, we were gathered around the Pope, sharing a common Faith and love. The Pope spoke to us of our shared family bond in the Church and invited us to give our lives in service to others. Now twenty-four years later, my life as a priest, like that of so many others from those special days, continues on that same path of love and unity — despite my many weaknesses. What makes that continuation possible?

This week's feast gives the answer: the Holy Spirit. The gift of God — His very life — the third person of the Trinity, is the Spirit who animates the entire Church and each member of it. He makes us one-in-love in a way that utterly exceeds human capacity. For example, he makes the apostles speak with tongues of fire, and everyone hears them in his own native tongue. The Holy Spirit is the means by which Jesus establishes a new family, one that crosses all possible boundaries of time, space, and culture. The Holy Spirit never tires in enthusing us for mission.

Aren't we longing to experience the Holy Spirit in a fresh way? Today we celebrate this untiring flame, once ignited on earth and burning still. So, we humbly cry out: Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in us the fire of your love! — Father John Muir

DID YOU KNOW

MAY 18TH-19TH

May 18-19 || "Myth-busting" abduction statistics

News sources hyperfocus on abductions by strangers, generating fear and anxiety that these abductions happen often and everywhere. According to data from the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children (NCMEC), however, about 100 children per year are abducted by strangers nationwide. It is far, far more likely that a missing child ran away from home or was enticed to leave home by someone he knows or trusts. More than 80% of missing children reported to NCMEC have left home under their own power, even if their decision to leave was coerced. For more information about missing children, read the VIRTUS® article "Know the Facts: Abductions and Human Trafficking" at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Like a stool that cannot stand on two legs alone, we need the Holy Spirit. The third Person of the Trinity is the puzzle piece whose testimony completes the beautiful picture of salvation. Let us never fail to say: come, Holy Spirit!

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Have you ever gotten home from the grocery store with just one too many overstuffed bags of groceries to carry on your own- and tried to take them all in to the house at once anyway?

So you get the bags situated and get halfway to the door, only to hear that riiiiip! Panic sets in, you try to contort yourself to keep from losing the bags, hoping to make it to the kitchen before everything falls to the ground.

That can happen all too easily in life. We assume we can handle everything all by ourselves. Often, the truth is that life is like carrying that one overloaded bag of groceries too many. It's just too much for one person to carry alone. Sometimes we really need to slow down or reach out for help.

If you find yourself in that situation and could use help walking through an overloaded time in your life such as job loss, loss of a loved one, struggles in marriage, health or fertility, the St. Anastasia Stephen Ministers can be of help. A Stephen Minister is someone who will help you carry that overloaded bag, offering confidential, one on one, spiritual support. To find out more or to see if this is a fit for your needs, contact the parish office or email stascare@gmail.com
