GOSPEL MEDITATION- ENCOURAGE A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The world is filled with people whose basic needs aren't met, whether for clean water, nutrition, safety, education, meaningful work, stable family life, basic medical resources, religious freedom, and the right to life. So how can we possibly believe what Psalm 145 says to us this week, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, he answers all our needs"? Does he? What about the countless poor? Can't we identify at least a few unmet needs in our own lives right now? Is the Bible promoting wishful thinking and laziness in helping others?

No. The psalm flows from Israel's experience of God's relentless fidelity again and again—especially in the Passover from Egypt. This divine providence is recalled when Jesus feeds the needy multitudes in the Gospel of John. Passover arrives once again, and the people are hungry like the ancient Israelites on the wilderness journey. What is new is that in Jesus God not only provides for their needs, but He learns what it's like to have those human needs. He shares them too. He feeds them bread and fish; and even more, He hungers to provide them, and us, much more than just that kind of perishable food.

Our deepest need is for God. Like the multiplied bread, all earthly provisions ultimately fail, for we all finally die. Of course, our obligation to meet the needs of the poor is basic. But Christ promises to feed us with the one bread that never fails: God Himself. He is humanity's eternal food. If we eat this bread, we taste the faithfulness of God who answers all our needs, even when every earthly thing fails.

— Father John Muir

JULY 27TH-28TH

July 27-28 || Summer camp volunteers

If your child is participating in a summer camp through your diocesan school or church, likely some — or all — of the staff will be volunteers or young people. In the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, all volunteers who have contact with children are required to go through VIRTUS® training to ensure that they are aware of child safety standards and protection from abuse procedures. Child abuse prevention training programs are critical to ensuring the safety of our children, and volunteer training is one part of this mission. STEPHEN MINISTRY

There are times when every one of us experiences difficulties – loss of a loved one, illness, spiritual crisis, loneliness, job loss, divorce, separation, miscarriage, adoption, or discouragement. God never intended for us to go through these experiences alone.

That is why we are brought together as a parish. Caring for one another is a vital part of who we are at St. Anastasia. There is a service at our parish called Stephen Ministry.

Stephen Ministry provides one-to-one care to people who need someone to talk to, someone to walk with them during a difficult time in their life. Stephen Ministry is one child of God, walking beside another child of God who is hurting, in a confidential setting for one hour a week. A parishioner who has been trained and has gifts for caregiving and listening provides emotional and spiritual care confidentially and without judgement. Stephen Ministry pairs a person in need to a person who listens, cares, prays, supports, and encourages.

If you could use this service and would like to learn more, contact the Parish Office in regard to Stephen Ministry or email stascare@gmail.com

WELCOME TO OUR PARISH
