OUR MISSION is to be a welcoming concerned community, expressed by our active loving involvement with each other, and our outreach to the world beyond, energized by a deepening liturgical and spiritual life.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I saw this reflection in Lenten Light by Fr. Thomas Connery published by Creative Communication for the Parish and wanted to share it with you.

A CHANGE OF ADDRESS

He has been raised: he is not here. Mark 16:6

A resident in South Carolina received the following letter from the Health and Human Services Department: "Your food stamps will be stopped effective March 1, because we received your notice that you passed away. May God bless you. You may reapply if your circumstances changes."

Is there a greater day in the calendar than Easter Sunday? Jesus died but rose from the dead. Therefore I too will rise. I am going to live with him forever. Death is not the final answer. Instead, we shall have a change of address. Our new address will be with the Lord. Is there any better news than that? Live without fear and anxiety, for the Lord lives and so shall you. Alleluia!

Father, on this glorious day, I give you praise and honor for raising your Son Jesus from the dead. As he lives, so I shall live.

Thank you for the gift of eternal life.

I pray in the name of the Risen One.

Amen.

Peace, Fr. Kevin

Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA)

“ All of you are one, united in Christ Jesus.”

We are very blessed by God with all our newly initiated who have joined us in loving and serving the Lord.

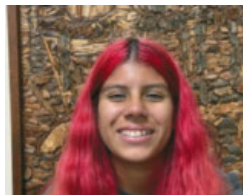

May they always be true witnesses of their Catholic Christian faith, as they are for us here at Holy Trinity.

Jessica Black: I joined OCIA because I wanted to marry the love of my life, but after coming to class every week, I have learned much more than I ever thought I could about Jesus and what he did for my sins. I have been brought closer to God and learned how to live with God in my life and my family's life. After I get baptized and receive all my sacraments, I still plan on marrying, but I also plan to continue spreading God's word, starting with my children. Because I am choosing to become a catholic, my eldest son wants to follow in my footsteps. My two little ones will be baptized in the church and will go to Catholic school when they come of age. I am forever grateful for OCIA and what they have given me.

Eirka Heath, I began attending Holy Trinity about 4 years ago. The evening Mass simply worked with my schedule. As I attended, I found that the Mass and teachings resonated with me. Shortly after, my life changed drastically. I felt alone and in complete surrender to God/will. I began to study the bible and journal on my own. As I grew closer to God, I realized I needed to fully rededicate my life to Him. That's when I joined OCIA. This has strengthened not just my faith in God but also my faith in His plan and in myself. "I truly can do all things through Christ who strengthens me".

Angelina Pamanes: I came to Adult Confirmation to strengthen my faith in God. I wanted to prove to myself that I could further my knowledge about God and strengthen my belief in Him. I discovered a deeper understanding of God's love and teachings. It provides spiritual tools and support for challenges in life.

Joshua Garcia: The reason I came to Adult Confirmation was to improve my relationship with Jesus Christ. Receiving Confirmation has been on my mind for a long time, and I'm glad that I did it during my adulthood. I learned that a good relationship with Jesus Christ is important to living a fulfilling life. I plan to use what I learned with my future God-given family and keep applying the lessons of Jesus Christ to my life.

Jesse Franco: I decided to join Adult Confirmation because I came to realize the importance of the gifts of the sacraments from listening to Patrick Madrid on Relevant Radio and after seeing the banner outside the church parking lot. My goal after receiving my Confirmation is to get my marriage convalidated. In class, I learned through my peers that I am not the only one struggling in this seemingly more secular world, and I have the resources and ability to find the true meaning of life by reading and understanding scripture from the rich Catholic tradition passed down by Jesus through the Apostles. I want to be a person God would be pleased with, along with my wife in raising good Catholic daughters.

Gabriel Zambrano: I came to OCIA to receive my Confirmation and Holy Communion for my wedding. By attending these classes and going to Mass, I've gotten closer to God and the church itself. I discovered that I have more patience than I thought I ever had. I also have a desire to learn more about the Gospels and the entire scripture.

Dalbreeon Dominguez: I came to OCIA to build up a stronger relationship with God and complete my sacraments so I can be married in Holy Matrimony. I discovered how important it is to have God in your relationship and try and get loved ones back to the church. It helped me in my journey of faith by making God the biggest priority in my life.

Apolline Figueroa: Joy, Bruce, and Kathy have given me so much hope for a life full of love and God. With God, I know that everything will be okay. This OCIA class has proven to me that there is no other way to navigate life other than under Christ's guidance. I have learned to trust God in everything and am practicing spreading his eternal love to those around me. I am forever thankful for this Holy Trinity Family.

Vanessa Morales: I came to OCIA seeking a deeper connection with Jesus Christ, hoping to build a stronger relationship with Him. As I reflect on my journey, I feel closer to our Lord and Savior than I ever thought possible. OCIA has had a profound impact on my life, completely transforming my perspective and deepening my faith. Through the teachings, prayers, and reflections I've experienced, I have learned to embrace patience, kindness, and the importance of living more like Jesus in my everyday actions. I am grateful for the community and support within OCIA, and I know that my spiritual growth here will have a lasting effect as I continue to follow Christ..

Theresa De Leon: I came to OCIA to learn more about my faith and deepen my relationship with God. In OCIA, I discovered that God is always available in my time of need and will carry me through anxious times. This will help me in my journey of faith because I know God will always show up.

Beverly Doughty: My decision to receive Confirmation at Holy Trinity is deeply personal, stemming from my family's history here and my current role as a Catholic school teacher. Being confirmed at Holy Trinity feels like a meaningful way to honor my father's legacy and deepen my dedication to this community, bringing me closer to God in a place that holds such significance for my family. Furthermore, my faith has enriched my life immeasurably, and as a teacher, I want to embody the principles of faith and commitment that Confirmation represents, hoping to be a positive influence on my students and my own two children.

Stephanie Rentena: What brought me to OCIA was to carry out my sacraments. I have received baptism and communion, but I would love to continue my journey of faith so that I may develop a stronger and deeper bond or connection to God. I discovered that being more involved in church and in prayer it has enriched my life and given me more purpose. Not only has God provided me with such great comfort, especially through difficult times, but he has also added so much more love and peace in my life. I also see how God has helped so many other people daily, and I wish to continue to spread his joy and love to others in my life.

Brittany Aquino: I came to the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) because I felt compelled to become more spiritually connected to God and the Catholic Church. I was baptized a Catholic, but I only went to church for baptisms and weddings. It was not until recently that my sister would talk about her teaching her catechism class more, as well as my Nina wanting to join, did I start pondering if I should go or not. Once I decided to, I never regretted it. I always left class with much more knowledge and feeling refreshed. When I started attending mass, I would find myself getting emotional during it as well as leaving feeling lighter because of the holy spirit and positivity. I discovered during my time in the OCIA that I can learn to forgive myself and others for when they had harmed me. I have also learned to let go and carry less worry, fear, and anxiety, as anything can be solved in God's hands. My time in the OCIA will help me in my journey of faith because I will continue to carry on God's teachings by sharing it with others I come in contact with. It will help me when I need reassurance in my own faith and myself. I will continue to go to mass, connect with the community, and choose a ministry moving forward. It is a bittersweet feeling leaving the OCIA, but I will always cherish the time I had in class and meeting my fellow peers and teachers.

Pilar Deportillo: This has been a trying ordeal for me as my decision to continue and progress my faith has been determined by the rules and administration of my church. This Authority is what drew me back to the Catholic Church, but it is also at the same time what pushed me away originally. but it is at this time in my life that the Catholic church is most crucial as an addition to my everyday life. The Catholic religion has helped me take accountability for continually striving to do better and to remain a good person in all aspects of life. I thank Joy Jones for her patience with me as I continue to navigate my path to a holy and happy life.

Ethan Lawton: What brought me to OCIA was seeing teens leave Mass. I found out why they left to have class to receive their sacraments. I also found out it was a group of teens wanting to learn about God and the classes bringing them closer to God. I wanted that and wanted to join, and my mom supported that idea too. Someone in my Boy Scouts wanted to join, so we both did. I am receiving all my initiation sacraments: Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil the night before Easter.

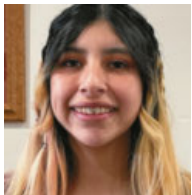

Feel free to contact Dr. Joy Jones for additional information on becoming fully initiated in the Catholic Faith
310-548-6535, ext. 317 / jjones@holyltrinitysp.org

Matthew Rodriguez: I decided to join adult Confirmation because I just felt it was the perfect time to complete my confirmation. I did not complete my confirmation in high school since God was not first in my life. It was not until my third year of college that I really started to understand my faith. Since that Lenten season, I have been learning more about God. My brother was also enrolling to complete his confirmation, and I wanted to be a good example for him. Since beginning classes, I have noticed a tremendous increase in faith. I see my everyday life affected by what I learned in class. I am much more hungry to learn about more aspects of the Catholic faith in my own time. I also learned valuable skills, such as how to read scripture and find my way through the Bible. After completing the sacraments of confirmation, I will.

Matthew Jurat: I joined Adult Confirmation because I've been wanting to confirm my faith and grow closer to God. I never finished Confirmation due to some hard times, but with the support of my uncle and my girlfriend's family, I have gained a deeper understanding of our Lord and Savior. Being in church brings me a sense of peace and I want to continue learning more about the Bible and my faith. It's also important to me to one day get married in the Catholic church and make my family proud by fully committing to God.

Jennifer Esparza: The reason I started Adult Confirmation was that the mother of my niece asked me to be her Godmother for her baptism. I believed in God, but my faith wasn't strong. As time continued, I went to classes, and it helped me with gaining my faith back and made it stronger. I was honored to play this role in my niece's life, but who would have known that she would ask me that question, if I could be her Godmother, that would have saved me. I am excited to continue this journey of faith and learn more and live a much peaceful life in the Lord.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was a young boy, my parents told me about their wedding. Then a few years later, they showed me my mother's wedding dress and my dad's suit. It was astonishing to see and touch garments that connected me to the event that led to my existence. Of course, I already believed they were married based on their word. But these holy garments made the event real and tangible for me.

Something like this is at play when St. John reports encountering in Jesus' tomb, "the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place" (John 20:7). Those two separate cloths, for his head and for his body respectively, meant a great deal to St. John and to the early Christians. Some years after the resurrection, there surfaced reports of two cloths with unusual characteristics, one bearing the image of a crucified man's body, another smaller one with the image of a wounded man's face. Some call them the Shroud of Turin and the Veil of Manoppello; they both can be seen today.

These two cloths have a long and complicated history, and scholars debate aspects of them. If you're curious, I encourage you to read about them. To be clear, I believe in the resurrection of Jesus because of the testimony of eyewitnesses and the gift of faith in the Church. Nevertheless, seeing these two mysterious cloths have made the life-giving event of Jesus' resurrection more real and tangible for me. Maybe they will for you, too.

— Father John Muir

O Lord, look down with mercy on the Ukrainian people. Protect and save them from unjust aggressors who seek to subdue them. Grant them steadfast trust in your mercy and protection. Grant peace and protection to the people of Ukraine. Give them strength and courage to defend what is good, right and holy. Keep them safe from harm and provide for all their needs, both temporal and spiritual. Amen

Prayer for peace in Israel and Gaza

Let us pray for the many people whose lives have been torn apart by conflict in Gaza and Israel.

We remember especially those who have died, those who are grieving, the injured and those now without food, shelter or medical supplies. We pray also for those who have the power to bring peace. May they be touched by a spirit of compassion and kindness. Lord hear us.

Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servant to health again, Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. Amen

Let us remember the deceased in our prayers...
