PRAYER BEFORE MASS

Dear Father in heaven, I come before your sacred altar to assist the divine sacrifice of your Son Jesus. Fix my mind on you and by his precious blood wash away all my sins as I repent of having offended you. Grant that we may celebrate this holy mystery with strong faith and devotion. MESSAGE FROM FR. FRANCIS

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

As we approach the anniversary of September 11, 2001, our hearts are drawn back to that day of sorrow and loss. We remember the lives tragically taken, the families forever changed, and the sense of security that was shattered. Yet, even in the midst of our grief, we also recall the stories of heroism, unity, and compassion that emerged from the ashes.

This day serves as a poignant reminder of the fragility of life and the destructive power of hatred and violence. As Catholic Christians, we are called to be peacemakers in a world that so desperately needs healing. Jesus teaches us in the Beatitudes, “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God” (Matthew 5:9). Our faith compels us to respond to tragedy not with fear or anger, but with a renewed commitment to love and reconciliation.

The events of September 11 and the continued violence in our world remind us of the urgent need for peace—not just globally, but more importantly, in our own hearts. True peace begins within, as we seek to let go of bitterness, anger, and division, and instead cultivate forgiveness, understanding, and compassion. It’s in our everyday interactions, the choices we make, and the prayers we say that can make a difference.

As we remember this solemn day, let us also renew our commitment to be instruments of God’s peace. Let us pray for the victims and their families, and for those who continue to suffer from the effects of violence, that we may turn away from the destructive path of hatred and walk towards the hopeful path of peace.

May our thoughts, words and actions reflect the peace of Christ, so that we may be witnesses of His love in a world that longs for healing.

Fr. Brian Jordan blesses the cross of steel beams. Oct. 4, 2001.
Kathy Wikkins, AP

Don't Forget!

- Thank you to everyone who contributed to the success of our Ministry Fair! We also extend our heartfelt gratitude to those who have volunteered for our various ministries. It is through the generous gift of time from our volunteers and the generous support of our benefactors that our Visitation community not only sustains itself but continues to grow and thrive for generations to come.

Take good care,

Fr. Francis

WE SHARE YOUR GRIEF

Please check the Visitation website under Resources/Bereavement for a list of Grieving, Cancer, Hospice and Palliative Care note titles. These are very helpful and powerful small articles. Please contact Candy Blankenship at 310-338-9043 or blank8840@gmail.com and she will mail them to you at no charge.” Such titles include Caring for yourself while Grieving, Overcoming Loneliness, What to do after the death of a Spouse, The first 12 months of Grieving, and many, many more.

CHRISTIAN MEDITATION

"We must approach our meditation realizing that 'grace,' 'mercy,' and 'faith' are not permanent inalienable possessions which we gain by our efforts and retain as though by right, provided that we behave ourselves. They are CONSTANTLY RENEWED GIFTS. The life of grace in our hearts is renewed from moment to moment, directly and personally by God in his love for us." Thomas Merton, Contemplative Prayer.

As Thomas Merton reminds us, "our hearts are renewed from moment to moment." Yet, too often, our thoughts drift to the past or race ahead to the future, pulling us away from the present. Being fully present in the moment (i.e. The only moment when God is present) is one of the greatest challenges in the spiritual life.

If you're interested in exploring Christian meditation, please join Fr. Francis via Zoom on Wednesdays from 8:00 to 8:30 PM. We begin with a guided meditation, followed by a talk from a Christian meditation teacher. For the Zoom link, please email fkim@la-archdiocese.org.

Lectio Bible Study: Mary Mother of God

Why is Mary so important to Catholics, and why have so many people been voted to her over the centuries? What can we learn about her from Sacred Scripture? Find out the answers to these questions and more in this Lectio series on Mary.

Featuring the insightful biblical teaching of Dr. Brant Pitre, Lectio Mary: The Bible and the Mother of God examines what Scripture, the life of Christ, and the early Church fathers reveal about Mary. By closely examining the connections between the Old and New Testaments, Dr. Pitre presents clear and easily understood explanations about the life and identity of Mary, the Mother of God.

Please join us as we delve deeper into the life of Mary, Mother of God in her role in Christian life. Our Bible Study will be facilitated by Gail Gresser, Catholic Bible Institute of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

EXALTATION OF THE CROSS

QUESTION:

What is the history behind feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross?

ANSWER:

Emperor Constantine's mother, Helena, is credited with having discovered the true cross around 330. She traveled to the Holy Land and uncovered the places associated with Jesus' life. Legend has it that Helena uncovered three crosses but was not able to detect the true cross until each of them was laid on a leper. Only one of them cured the leper, proving it to be the true cross. A great church was built at the site, and soon various portions of the cross were sent to other churches as relics to be venerated.

The day after the dedication of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, September 14, 335, the actual cross was displayed for veneration. Egeria, a women traveler to Jerusalem around the year 386, kept a diary that has survived. She tells of the unique veneration of the wood of the cross that took place on Good Friday, something maintained ritually to this very day.

The Exaltation of the Holy Cross focuses on the gift of love that Jesus manifested by his total gift of self, offered for all. The cross, the ultimate form of capital punishment in its day, has become for us the ultimate symbol of love and triumph over evil and death.

Prayer

Dear God, you are so amazing. Thank you for healing the deaf man. Help me to use my ears and my voice to praise you.

Mission for the Week

Go to the library and find out how to say "Jesus loves you" in sign language. On the way home, pretend you cannot hear or speak. Heaven will be wonderful!

Sharing the Gospel

Imagine what it would be like to be deaf-unable to hear music, voices or anything. In today's Gospel reading, Jesus did something amazing.

Jesus healed a deaf man, so that for the first time he could hear and talk clearly. What would you listen to? What would you say?

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God,
 the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 His only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified,
 died and was buried;
 He descended into hell;
 on the third day He rose again
 from the dead;
 He ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Holy Catholic Church,
 the communion of Saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
