MESSAGE FROM FR. FRANCIS

Dear Parish Family,

As we celebrate All Saints Day on November 1st, we are reminded of the powerful examples of faith, hope, and love that the saints have left us. This feast is not only a time to honor the holy men and women who have gone before us but also an opportunity to reflect on how their lives continue to be relevant for us today.

The saints were ordinary people who experienced the same struggles, doubts, and challenges we face, yet they remained deeply faithful to God and lived lives of extraordinary love. They remind us that holiness is not out of reach, but rather a calling for each of us. Through simple acts of kindness, steadfast trust in difficult times, and selfless service to others, each saint demonstrated their love for God and neighbor in unique and powerful ways.

In our busy and sometimes chaotic lives, the saints call us to refocus on what truly matters: our relationship with God and our relationships with others. Their lives inspire us to live with intentionality, courage, and loving-kindness. As we celebrate this All Saints Day, let us seek their intercession, learn from their example, and remember that we, too, are called to holiness in our daily lives.

We will have two Masses on this holy day: 8:00 AM and 7:00 PM. Let us gather as a parish family to reflect on the lives of the saints and be inspired to live our own lives more fully rooted in faith, hope, and love, remembering that each of us have been called to become a saint.

In Christ's love,

Fr. Francis

- Don't forget! Join us November 2-3 for a special Mass in remembrance of all our loved ones who have died this past year.

COFFEE & DONUTS

Stop by for Coffee & Donuts Sunday, Oct 27 which will be hosted by the PTO. Join them after Mass as they show their appreciation for all the parishioners who helped in voting for Visitation School in the Hometown News annual survey which resulted in Visitation School being named BEST PRIVATE SCHOOL (JK-8) for the third year in a row!!

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration of the Week

Bartimaeus called upon Christ, even when everyone scolded him to be silent. He was not afraid to ask God for what he needed, and his courage was rewarded. Be like Bartimaeus. Be bold. Do not be content with the darkness. Call out for Christ.

CHRISTIAN MEDITATION

"Meditation is our availability to the eternal moment. In it, during the chronological time of our meditation, we are, in so far as we can be, wholly present to the God who is. From our point of view, in our meditation we are with Him. God with us. Jesus, reveals the glory of the Father to us in our own hearts. Purifying our hearts for the reflection of this glory is the whole purpose of the mantra. The mantra trains us to listen and so brings us to fullness of being, to God, in the present moment as we leave the past entirely behind and place the future in the hands of God. In our meditation we are not thinking about the past nor planning for the future because we are open to the eternal moment, the eternal now of God. Here is the importance of the mantra, in that it puts an end to thinking of the past, of the future, and leaves us wholly open to the presence of the God who is. Meditation is therefore a way of renunciation. Being so, it is also a way of discipline, an ascetical path. All this, renunciation, discipline, asceticism is caught up and combined in the act of faith that is the mantra, as we say it with ever deeper fidelity." Fr. John Main, OSB.

If you'd like to learn more about Christian meditation, please join Fr. Francis via zoom on Wednesdays, 8:00-8:30 PM. Email fkim@la-archdiocese.org for the link.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN AND VULNERABLE ADULTS

DID YOU KNOW? Trick or treating safety

Halloween is one of the most exciting nights of the year for children, but it can be a nerve-wracking night for the parents who have to run the show. Consider a few safety tips to get your family ready for trick-or-treating. Choose bright colored costumes and give your children flashlights and/or glow sticks to make them easily visible. Visit neighborhoods you know well, with lit streets and houses. Prep your children with your cell phone number, either memorized or written down in their pockets or even on their arms, in case you get separated. For more tips, visit <https://diocesecc.org/news/halloween-safety-tips>.

SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY 2024-2025

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

[Note that this School Student Non-Discrimination Policy does not provide nor imply that the archdiocese waives any legal exceptions or exemptions that may apply to it as a religious nonprofit organization.]

This Catholic Elementary School publishes the above policy in the staff and parent/student handbooks, public relations/recruitment brochures and in other publications such as the parish bulletin and school newspaper. The school also publishes applicable grievance procedures in the staff and parent/student handbooks.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

ALL SOULS

QUESTION:

November is called the month of All Souls. More recently, it has been called the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. Can you tell us more about this feast and the remembrances of this month?

ANSWER:

November 2, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, dovetails with November 1st, the feast of All Saints. The saints, our models of Christian living, are one with God in heaven. All the faithful departed are those who have died with hope and trust in a loving God who calls us to greater growth and development, even beyond death. This growth and development occurs in a state of being that we have traditionally called purgatory.

While the Western Church has emphasized the cleansing and purifying nature of purgatory, the Eastern Orthodox Church has emphasized the growth and development aspect of it. Today, belief in purgatory allows one who has died in Christ to continue growing and developing before meeting God face to face. God continually invites communion with these loved ones, but some feel the need to continue growing and developing before entering into full communion with God.

These November feasts vividly remind us of the rich reality known as the communion of saints. This belief stresses the strong affirmation that the church is always one in Christ. Death does not sever any of the bonds that unite us in Christ. That is why it is a fitting practice to pray for the dead and to ask them to pray for us. Just as we do that for each other when we are alive, so, too, do we continue that bond and concern for each other even beyond death.
