MESSAGE FROM FR. FRANCIS

Dear Parish Family,

The U.S. Surgeon General recently issued an important advisory on the mental health and well-being of parents, addressing the growing challenges that many face today. Factors like financial stress, social isolation, and the struggle to balance work and family life have left nearly 70% of parents feeling overwhelmed, leading to increased anxiety, depression, and burnout.

The report emphasizes the importance of creating supportive environments for parents, offering specific recommendations for parish communities like ours:

1. Fostering Social Connections: Parents benefit from strong social networks. We can help by creating more opportunities for parents to connect, whether through parish groups, family-friendly events, or small acts of fellowship.
2. Encouraging Healthy Habits: Mental and physical health are closely linked. The advisory encourages parents to prioritize self-care, including adequate sleep, exercise, and time for spiritual renewal. As a parish, we can remind parents that caring for themselves allows them to care better for their families.
3. Providing Practical Support: Communities are encouraged to offer tangible support, such as childcare assistance or meal preparation for families going through tough times. These small acts of kindness can significantly reduce stress for parents.
4. Seeking Professional Help When Needed: The report reminds parents that seeking help from counselors or mental health professionals is a sign of strength, not weakness. As a parish, we can help by creating a welcoming atmosphere where discussing mental health is accepted and encouraged.

As we reflect on this important message, let us remember our role in lifting one another up. Let's offer our prayers and practical support to parents who may be struggling, and help build a strong, loving community where everyone can thrive.

In Christ's love,

Fr. Francis

PRAYER BEFORE MASS

Dear Father in heaven, I come before your sacred altar to assist the divine sacrifice of your Son Jesus. Fix my mind on you and by his precious blood wash away all my sins as I repent of having offended you. Grant that we may celebrate this holy mystery with strong faith and devotion. Send us the Holy Spirit of love to ignite our hearts to receive devoutly the Holy Eucharist. Bless our family, our parish, and our community. We ask this through Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you forever and ever. / Amen.

It's National Vocations Awareness Week!
What's YOUR vocation story?

"In the silence of meditation, when you go beyond thought and imagination, you begin to experience and later to understand that being is what life is about and that in meditation you are learning to be. To be is to live as the person you are, without trying to justify your existence or make excuses for your personality. Just to be, as you are. The wonder of it is that the more simple you become, the more you are able to enjoy to the full the gift of your being. But when you begin you have to begin in faith. You cannot come to meditation saying, 'If I can get something out of this I will do it for a trial run for three or six months.' You cannot come to it with demands.

As St. John of the Cross described it, 'The way to possession is the way of dispossession.' You have to let go of your thoughts, of your ideas, of your conscious and hidden ambitions and you have to be. The way to do it is to say your word. If all your attention is directed to saying your word and if you are neither lazy nor impatient, then gradually you are unhooked from all the thoughts and words and ideas and hopes and fears. You are free." Fr. John Main, The Heart of Creation

If you'd like to learn more about Christian meditation, please join Fr. Francis via zoom on Wednesdays, 8:00-8:30 PM. Email fkim@la-archdiocese.org for the link.

COFFEE & DONUTS

Stop by for Coffee & Donuts next Sunday, Nov. 10th which will be hosted by the Knights of Columbus. Please join them in the courtyard.

Eucharistic Miracle of Alboraya, Spain

Contributed by: Katie Canty

In 1384 a priest from Spain took the Holy Eucharist to a dying man. After completing his mission, the priest began to make his way home, but a powerful storm arose.

The priest was on a mule crossing the stream as a violent storm arose unleashing its fury. The priest held the Ciborium containing the three consecrated Hosts to his chest. Suddenly, he was swept off his mule by a rushing wave. The priest fell into the water along with his Ciborium. The Hosts fell out and were carried away by the current towards the mouth of the river.

The priest who had nearly drowned, tried to find the sacred Hosts but to no avail. Nearby, some fishermen were calling to him, beckoning him closer to the shore. As he approached the shore, he saw three fish with round white discs in their mouths which appeared to be Hosts.

He quickly dashed back to the church to retrieve another Ciborium. He was filled with joy as he saw three fish lifting the Hosts, intact, with their mouths, almost completely out of the water. He fell to his knees and extended the chalice and prayed. The fish deposited the Hosts into the chalice and then dove back into the water. Surrounding the priest, were a group of men and women who had witnessed everything. Today it is still possible to consult numerous documents testifying to the miracle.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN AND VULNERABLE ADULTS

DID YOU KNOW? Signs of potential abuse

A child who has experienced sexual abuse may exhibit one or many of these common behaviors: sleeping troubles, including nightmares, fear, withdrawal from family and friends, anger, anxiety, or depression. Children who have been abused may speak or behave in a manner that indicates sexual knowledge inappropriate for the child's age. They may also show signs of guilt or self-blame. If any of these behaviors are present, it does not automatically mean abuse is happening, but it does mean you should address the situation, and talk with the child about what is going on. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Learning from True Stories of Victims/Survivors" on lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

HONORING FR JIM (FORSEN)!

The Advisory Board Members of Catholic Charities OLA invite you to attend and/or support their annual Spirit of Giving

Fundraiser on Sat., November 16 at the Riviera Country Club.

In addition to honoring Fr. Jim, we will be acknowledging volunteers of the St. Robert's Center (Venice) Saturday Program. Fr. Jim has been very supportive of CCLA through St. Margaret's Center, as well as by supporting this event. The evening includes a Silent Auction (with an opportunity to bid on your own Dodger Announcer Booth experience like Fr. Jim had earlier this season), Putting Contest, appetizers, live music, dinner and presentations, with Fritz Coleman as the MC. See back cover for invitation. Please visit the website CCLA2024.givesmart.com or by scanning the QR code (or contact Guylaine Brosmer for questions/details: mgbrosmer@sbcglobal).

Why do we do that?
Catholic Life Explained

FAITHFUL DEPARTED

QUESTION:

How can we pray for the dead throughout the year?

ANSWER:

We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

Prayer

Dear God, help us to love you and love others the way you want us to.

Mission for the Week

Pretend you are a scribe. Copy Mark 12:32-33 in your own handwriting. Hang it up in a place where you will read it every day.

Sharing the Gospel

The man in today's Gospel reading was a scribe. It was his job to write out copies of God's word. Many of the scribes did not care for Jesus, but this one man really understood the heart of God's law-love. To love God and to love others is more important than anything else.
