PRAYER BEFORE MASS

Dear Father in heaven, I come before your sacred altar to assist the divine sacrifice of your Son Jesus. Fix my mind on you and by his precious blood wash away all my sins as I repent of having offended you. Grant that we may celebrate this holy mystery with strong faith and devotion. Send us the Holy Spirit of love to ignite our hearts to receive devoutly the Holy Eucharist. Bless our family, our parish, and our community. We ask this through Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you forever and ever. / Amen.

PARISH REGISTRATION

Are you looking for a faith community to call home?
Welcome to the Viz family!
You may register as a parishioner on our website or Scan the QR code now.

As a parish, we strive to be good stewards of our resources. Many families have moved away from envelopes and are now using Faith Direct to fulfill their generous stewardship commitments to our parish and the wider church through electronic donations. Help us to reduce our envelope and postage expense and at the same time support us in a secure and convenient way by enrolling with Faith Direct.

It's easy to get started. Here are the ways to give:

- ◆ Visit faith.direct/CA772 or Scan QR code
- ◆ Call Faith Direct Customer Service at 866-507-8757
- ◆ Text $ amount to GIVE NOW! Or "ENROLL" for recurring donations 310-361-1262

PRAYER REQUESTS (SICK OR DECEASED):

email them to the following vizprayerrequests@gmail.com If you would like to join in praying for the requests received, please send an email to the prayer request email address.

Dear Parish Family,

Pope Francis' latest encyclical, Dilexit Nos, invites the faithful to reflect deeply on the boundless and personal love of Jesus Christ. Released on October 24, 2024, this significant teaching document takes its inspiration from John 15:9—"I have loved you as the Father has loved me; remain in my love." The Holy Father calls us to recognize the transformative power of Jesus' love in our lives and the way it shapes how we relate to one another.

An encyclical is a formal teaching letter written by the Pope, addressing matters of faith and morals. It serves as a guide not only for Catholics but for all people of goodwill, offering reflections and insights to inspire faith-filled living. In Dilexit Nos, Pope Francis emphasizes that Christ's love is unconditional and unchanging, a gift that invites us into a personal relationship with Him. Through this relationship, we are called to become witnesses of that love in our families, communities, and the broader world.

In a society often consumed by materialism and fleeting pursuits, Pope Francis challenges us to turn inward, rediscovering the heart as the center of authentic love. True happiness and fulfillment, he teaches, do not come from accomplishments or possessions but from living in the light of Christ's love. This love compels us to act with compassion, understanding, and mercy toward others, especially those most in need.

Dilexit Nos is a powerful reminder that love is not just a feeling but a commitment—a daily decision to remain rooted in Christ and to extend His love to others. As we reflect on this encyclical, let us strive to deepen our relationship with Jesus, allowing His love to transform us and flow through us in our actions and interactions.

May this message inspire us to build a parish community marked by kindness, generosity, and a shared commitment to live out the love of Christ in all we do!

In Christ's love,

Fr. Francis

P.S. Parishioners have been getting fake emails impersonating me. To keep yourself safe, I'd advise the following:

- 1) Please check the email address to see that it's indeed sent from fkim@la-archdiocese.org
- 2) I will never ask for money, gift cards, favors, etc. through a personal email. When in doubt, call the parish office or ask me in person.

Would you like to receive our weekly "Parish Post" via email? It's sent every Sunday with a different spiritual message from Fr. Francis. If so, please email aserveridea@visitationschool.org to be added. God bless.

"Meditation is concerned not so much with thinking as with being. And in contemplative prayer we seek to become the person we are called to be: not by thinking about God but by being with Him. Simply to be in His presence is all-sufficing. Simply to be with Him is to be drawn into being the person He calls us to be. This is the message of Jesus's injunction to seek the kingdom first and then all else will be given. But this is no easy task for those of us reared in our contemporary Western culture. We have all been conditioned by this culture's excessive regard for cerebral activity. And we have defined ourselves far too narrowly as 'rational creatures'. It seems to me that this is one of the principal reasons for the impoverishment of our prayer life. The response of the whole person to God has been shattered and only the cerebral, verbal splinters are active in our very much attenuated understanding of prayer. Our aim in Christian prayer is to allow God's mysterious and silent presence within us to become more and more not only a reality, one of several to which we give what Cardinal Newman called 'notional assent', but the reality which gives meaning, shape and purpose to everything we do, to everything we are. And so, prayer is not the time for words, however beautifully and sincerely phrased. All our words are wholly ineffective when we enter into mysterious communion with God whose Word is before and after all other words." Fr. John Main

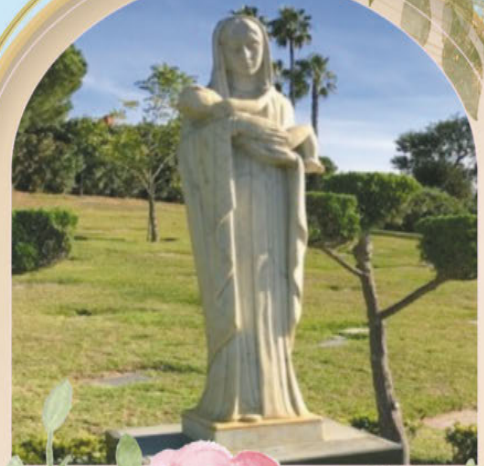

If you're interested in Christian Meditation, please join Fr. Francis on Wednesdays, 8-8:30pm via zoom. Email fkim@la-archdiocese.org for the link.

CHRISTMAS

QUESTION:

With Christmas fast approaching, can you give me some practical tips to prepare myself and my family that will help us stay grounded in what this holiday is really about? With all the commercialism, it's easy to stray.

ANSWER:

Happy times and events bring fond memories and a renewed sense of love and kinship with others. The anticipation is half the joy of the event itself. The coming of the Lord is that kind of event that people have been looking forward to for generations with fervent hope and desire. It gave them strength and courage as they waited for the coming of the Lord.

We know that Christmas is rushed. Sales begin in August and carols blare long before the season begins. Everyone laments the commercial aspects of the season, but as Advent begins, do something to help you be more mindful of the Lord's coming. Use an Advent wreath, or enthrone the Bible prominently, or read the readings from the Bible assigned to each day. Postpone the tree and decorations until closer to Christmas. Establish new family rituals, customs and prayers that help remind everyone that we are preparing to celebrate the birth of Jesus. Fasting, daily Mass, a special celebration of reconciliation, reaching out to those alienated from family or society, and visiting the homebound manifest the love of the Christ Child and the Holy Family. Resist the temptation to rush the season. In his own time and in his own way, God will come. Our task is simply to be watchful and ready.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN AND VULNERABLE ADULTS

DID YOU KNOW? "No" is a complete sentence.

A critical boundary to learn for yourself and for your children is the word "no." Saying "no" to something you are uncomfortable with, or that you know is wrong, is sometimes the hardest thing to do, but it is so important. "No" is a complete sentence and should be honored by anyone listening. This is a great way to teach children how to listen to their friends and respect what they hear. This teaches children personal autonomy, which can extend to a child saying "no" to unwanted touches or behavior and potentially protect them from abuse and harm. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "When Boundaries Abound, Our Lives Can Flourish" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

DAILY BRIEF FOR ADVENT

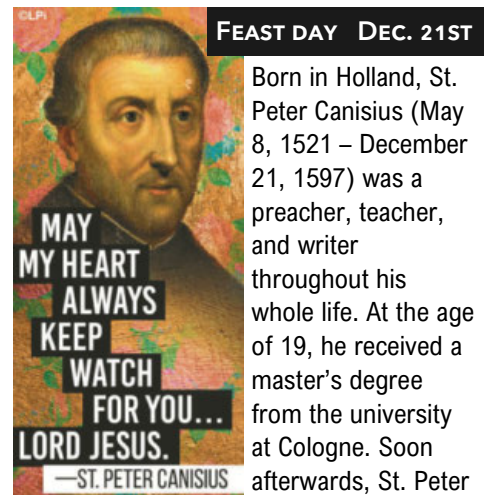

The Daily Brief for Advent is a series of short Advent meditations on the readings of the day by all of our very own priests at Visitation. Each 4-5 minute reflection is accompanied by piano underscore and beautiful nature photographs. Consider making The Daily Brief your 5 minutes a day for Advent. <https://www.visitationchurch-la.com/dailybrief>

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration of the Week

Give. Love. Act with justice. This, says John, is how to live out your repentance. As Christmas approaches, be "baptized" by these words of God's greatest prophet. Let them fill you with new life as you await the coming of Christ.

©LPi

St. Peter Canisius founded colleges and seminaries, served as a missionary, cared for the sick or imprisoned, and wrote close to eight volumes of letters — many about St. Cyril of Alexandria and St. Leo the Great.

A man blessed with many talents, St. Peter Canisius is a wonderful example of a man who developed his talents to further God's work here on earth.

PRAYER AFTER HOLY COMMUNION

Holy Trinity, Father, Son, Holy Spirit, I adore you deeply and I offer you the precious Body, Blood and Divinity of Jesus Christ present in all the tabernacle on earth, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifference with which He Himself is offended. And, for the infinite merits of his most holy Heart and of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I ask you for the conversion of poor sinners. /Amen

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God,
 the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 His only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified,
 died and was buried;
 He descended into hell;
 on the third day He rose again
 from the dead;
 He ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father Almighty;
 from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Holy Catholic Church,
 the communion of Saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen
