Dear Parish Family,

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, a significant moment in the life of Jesus and in our faith tradition. This feast, also known as Candlemas, occurs forty days after Christmas and commemorates the day Mary and Joseph brought the infant Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem, in accordance with Jewish law.

The Gospel of Luke (2:22-40) recounts this event, where Jesus is presented to God, and Mary undergoes the rite of purification. It is here that Simeon and the prophetess Anna recognize Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah. Simeon's proclamation—"a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel"—is central to this celebration.

This feast is rich in meaning for Catholics:

1. Fulfillment of the Law:

Mary and Joseph's adherence to Jewish customs reminds us of Jesus' connection to the Old Covenant and His mission to fulfill the law and the prophets.

2. Jesus, the Light of the World:

The Church may bless candles on this feast, symbolizing Christ as the light who dispels darkness and brings hope to the world. This tradition gives the day its name, Candlemas.

3. Dedication to God:

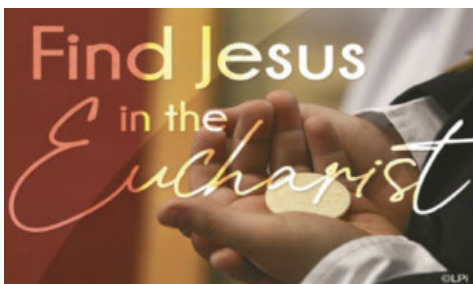

The Presentation reflects how Jesus was consecrated to God's service. It reminds us to dedicate our lives to God and allow His light to shine through us.

4. Our Own Encounter with Christ:

Just as Simeon and Anna encountered Christ in the Temple, we are invited to seek and recognize Him in our lives, especially in the Eucharist and in one another.

As we celebrate today's feast, let us reflect on how we can carry Christ's light into the world as we go about our day. May it be a reminder of the hope, joy, and salvation Jesus brings to all.

In Christ,
Fr. Francis

PRAYER AFTER HOLY COMMUNION

Holy Trinity, Father, Son, Holy Spirit, I adore you deeply and I offer you the precious Body, Blood and Divinity of Jesus Christ present in all the tabernacle on earth, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifference with which He Himself is offended. And, for the infinite merits of his most holy Heart and of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I ask you for the conversion of poor sinners. /Amen

"You have heard it said that meditation is the way to reality. It is first the way to the reality of our own being. We learn to be. Not to be any particular role or particular thing, but just to be. The best way of describing this being is to say that we are in a state of utter simplicity. We are not trying to act. We are not trying to apologize for being who we are or as we are. This is an ideal unfamiliar to most of us because we are trained to think that we find truth only amid complexity. Yet we all know at a deeper level. . .that truth is found in utter simplicity, in openness. [. . .]

Meditation is a way of breaking through from a world of illusion into the pure light of reality. The great illusion that most of us are caught in is that we are the center of the world and that everything and everyone revolves around us. But in meditation we learn that this is not true. The truth is that God is the center and everyone of us has being from God. [. . .] Meditation is the great way of liberation. We are liberated from the past. . . and become open to our life in the present moment. . . We learn that we are because God is, [and that] simply being is our greatest gift." Fr. John Main, Moment of Christ.

If you'd like to practice Christian meditation with a community, please join Fr. Francis via Zoom on Wednesdays, 8-8:30 PM. Email him at fkim@la-archdiocese.org for the Zoom link.

Come and spend some time with the Lord!

Eucharistic Miracle of Salzano, Italy – 1517

Contributed by: Katie Canty

In 1517, in the town of Salzano, Italy, a priest was called and asked to urgently bring the Eucharist to an invalid on the brink of death. There wasn't time to arrange a full procession, so the priest took one altar boy with him and made his way toward the home of the sick person.

As they arrived at the meadows that surround the Muson River, several donkeys that were grazing, turned and faced themselves in the direction of the priest and the altar boy, and the Blessed Sacrament. They approached the priest and bowed down on their knees and followed the Most Holy Sacrament all the way to the home of the infirm, and resumed genuflecting as the priest carried the Eucharist inside. Afterwards, they accompanied the priest on the way home and returned to the pasture.

For centuries, Christians have relied on the intercessory prayers of Joseph, earthly spouse of the Blessed Virgin and foster father of Christ, who was obedient to the will of God in all things.

One particular novena prayer to St. Joseph is often called "the unfailing prayer to St. Joseph." It is thought to have originated in the first century A.D. and was sent by the pope to Emperor Charles as he went into battle. It is said that those who recite this prayer will not suffer a sudden death and will likewise be protected from drowning, the effects of poison and fire, falling into the hands of the enemy or being overpowered in battle.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

QUESTION:

Luke's Gospel is the only one to mention the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple. What is Luke trying to communicate here and what connection does it have with Mary?

ANSWER:

Charles February 2 is exactly forty days after December 25, the nativity of Jesus. Jewish law (Ex 13:2, 12) dictated that Jesus, as the firstborn, be consecrated to God. This was done by the parents as they presented their Son in the Temple.

Jewish law further specified (Lv 12:2-8) that a mother was ritually impure after giving birth, and that she had to wait a set period of time (forty days for a boy) before she was to offer a sacrifice to the Lord for purification.

The convergence of these two Jewish regulations occasions Luke's account of both the Presentation of the Lord and the Purification of Mary. These days the liturgical emphasis is more on the Presentation of Jesus. Luke highlights the role of Simeon and Anna, two righteous Jews who recognized Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah and praised God for being able to see and experience such a marvel in their lifetimes.

Simeon's prayer concerning the special role of Jesus states that Jesus is "a light for revelation to the Gentiles." This phrase eventually originated the custom of blessing candles on this day which were to be used in the ceremonies, rituals, and processions throughout the church year. Thus February 2 is also known as Candlemas Day. This day is indeed a rich feast to be savored.

Anna and Simeon saw greatness and glory in the face of a tiny babe. Jesus was insignificant in the eyes of others who looked for the Messiah in the gilded halls of kings. But Anna and Simeon recognized God when they saw him. Do we?

PRAYER

God of all goodness, you have called people to follow you faithfully. Humans have heard that call and many choose to follow your call in varied and faith-filled lives.

Some follow your call in private, silent lives as hermits; some choose to follow you with lives lived as virgins and widows; while others choose public lives of vowed men and women as religious brothers and sisters.

Abundantly give to these men and women the courage to follow their call as witnesses to your gifts and faith and service to the world.

We ask this in faith through the name of Jesus our Savior. / Amen.
