PRAYER BEFORE MASS

Dear Father in heaven, I come before your sacred altar to assist the divine sacrifice of your Son Jesus. Fix my mind on you and by his precious blood wash away all my sins as I repent of having offended you. Grant that we may celebrate this holy mystery with strong faith and devotion. Send us the Holy Spirit of love to ignite our hearts to receive devoutly the Holy Eucharist. Bless our family, our parish, and our community. We ask this through Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you forever and ever. / Amen.

MESSAGE FROM FR. FRANCIS

Dear Parish Family,

Today's Responsorial Psalm reminds us of the importance of Christian hope.

Hope is more than a fleeting feeling; it is a deep trust that God is present and working, even in the darkest moments. The psalmist reminds us that those who place their hope in the Lord are like trees planted by running water—steadfast, nourished, and bearing fruit in due time. But what does this hope look like in our world today?

In a time when despair can feel overwhelming—whether from personal struggles, societal injustices, or global uncertainties—hope is an act of faith. It is not passive optimism but a conviction that God's love is greater than any hardship. As followers of Christ, we are called not only to hope but to be instruments of hope for others, especially the marginalized, the forgotten, and those who feel cast aside.

We bring hope when we listen with compassion, stand for justice, and offer kindness without expecting anything in return. We bring hope when we remind the suffering that they are seen, valued, and loved by God. Like the tree in the psalm, we are nourished by our faith and called to extend that life-giving water to those who thirst for dignity, peace, and healing.

May we remain firmly planted in the Lord, trusting in His providence and sharing His hope with a world in need.

In Christ,
Fr. Francis

P.S. May we pray for those attending Religious Ed Congress in Anaheim this week, including Visitation's youth (Diego, Emma, Sofia, Xavier, JD, Emily) and adults (Debra, Ana, Karely, Daniel, Christina, Fr. Francis).

PARISH OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED
Monday, February 17, 2025
We will re-open on Tuesday, Feb. 18th 8AM - 4PM

DEATH ANNOUNCEMENT

Visitation Parish Community extends its sympathy and prayers to the family and friends of Howard Frank Prochaska, a long time parishioner passed away on December 26, 2024. Please pray for his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed.

CHRISTIAN MEDITATION

"William James, founder of American psychology, a philosopher said, 'Reality is where you place your attention.' Attention matters. The loss of our capacity to pay attention (our distracted culture, the fact that we spend hours on our mobile devices every day, and young people are spending at a very vulnerable age, hours upon hours on their social media) this is a fragmentation of our fundamental capacity which is attention: to be able to listen, to be able to observe, to be able to engage, to feel empathy, to see the wonder of the world in which we live and the relationships in which we are connected. Attention is the essence of prayer." Fr. Laurence Freeman.

If you'd like to learn more about Christian meditation, please join Fr. Francis on Wednesdays, 8-8:30 PM via Zoom. Email him at fkim@la-archdiocese.org for the Zoom link.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration of the Week

Too many of us make the mistake of expecting prosperity here on Earth as a reward for following Christ. But Jesus is very clear: sorrow and hardship are a part of life. But when we offer these sufferings to Christ, they become transformed. They become blessed. And so do we.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

MARDI GRAS

QUESTION:

Carnivale and Mardi Gras celebrations are linked to Ash Wednesday, Lent, fast and abstinence. Can you tell us more about the connections between these events?

ANSWER:

Ash Wednesday is the beginning of the forty days known as Lent. Every year, Christians highlight this penitential season as a time of self-examination, reformation of one's life, and continued development of a deeper spiritual life. The recommended practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving become the focus of Lenten activity and ritual. Each of these spiritual practices is aimed at personal discipline as well as continued concern for the other, especially the poor or alienated.

Forty days is a symbolic biblical period of time, during which personal transformation occurs and out of which people surface as more spiritual, ready to carry out God's mission. Relying on God's providence and care, no matter how difficult life becomes, is crucial to Lenten spirituality. Fasting was initially stricter, permitting only one simple meal a day without meat, fish, or other delicacies. Such things were not even allowed in the house.

In order to prepare for this in an age of no refrigeration, people gathered to consume whatever was not allowed during Lent. This led to parties or celebrations originally referred to as Carnivale, literally meaning "goodbye to meat," or Mardi Gras, literally meaning "Fat Tuesday." The eating and celebrating ended on the Tuesday just before Ash Wednesday. Today we focus more on moderation in all things, as well as a strong concern for the poor. What are you doing for the poor this Lent?

Dear God, help me love you with my whole heart. Help me do things that will make you smile.

Mission for the Week

Are any of your neighbors lonely? Go out of your way to show Jesus' love to those people.

Sharing the Gospel

One day in heaven, God will reward you for all the loving things you do. When you clean up the dishes without being asked, God sees. If other people are mean to you because you love Jesus, God sees. God will be so happy to see you in heaven!

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God,
 the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 His only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified,
 died and was buried;
 He descended into hell;
 on the third day He rose again
 from the dead;
 He ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Holy Catholic Church,
 the communion of Saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen
