MESSAGE FROM FR. FRANCIS

Dear Parish Family,

In today's first reading from Genesis, we encounter a powerful moment between God and Abram. Despite Abram and his wife, Sarai, being childless and well beyond childbearing years, Abram places his trust in God's promise. And in that trust, God makes a covenant (an agreement) with him, assuring him of a future far greater than he could imagine.

This passage invites us to reflect on faith and trust in God's timing. Abram does not yet see the fulfillment of the promise, but he has faith. His faith is counted as righteousness, not because he understands everything, but because he surrenders to God's plan.

How often do we struggle in truly placing our trust in God? When difficulties arise, when our prayers seem to go unanswered, and when the future seems uncertain—do we still have faith that God is at work? Lent is a time to strengthen our faith, to remember that God is faithful, even when His plans unfold more slowly than we would like.

May we take comfort in this: God always keeps His promises. Just as He led Abram, He is leading us. May this Lenten season be a time of renewed trust, as we walk by faith and not by sight.

Reflection Questions:

- Where in my life do I struggle to trust in God's plan for me? With relationships? Work? Health?
- How can I strengthen my faith during this Lenten season?
- As I look back at my life, in what ways has God already been faithful to me?

May we, like Abram, step forward in faith, trusting that God's promises are always fulfilled in His perfect time.

In Christ,
Fr. Francis

CHRISTIAN MEDITATION

"There has always been a great danger, but one that exists especially for us today in our self-conscious and narcissistic society, of mistaking introversion, self-fixation, self-analysis, for true interiority. The great prevalence of psychological woundedness and social alienation exacerbates this danger while calling for gentle tact and compassion in dealing with it. . . To be truly interior is the complete opposite of being introverted. In the awareness of the indwelling presence our consciousness is turned around, con-verted, so that we are no longer, as we have habitually been doing, looking at ourselves, anticipating or remembering feelings, reactions, desires, ideas, or daydreams. . . .

It would be easier, we think, to turn away from introspection if we knew what we were turning towards. If only we had a fixed object to look at. If only God could be represented by an image. But the true God can never be an image. Images of God are gods. To make an image of God is merely to end up looking at a refurbished image of ourselves. To be truly interior, to open the eye of the heart, means to be living within the imageless vision that is faith, and that is the vision that permits us to "see God." In faith attention is controlled by a new Spirit, no longer the spirits of materialism, self-seeking and self-preservation, but the ethos of faith which is by its nature dispossessive." The Selfless Self, Fr. Laurence Freeman.

If you would like to learn more about Christian meditation, the prayer of "dispossession"/letting go, please join Fr. Francis and other meditators on Wednesdays, 8-8:30 PM. Email Fr. Francis at fkim@la-archdiocese.org for the Zoom link.

LENT IS HERE!

Take a look at these opportunities to make your Lenten observance:

DAILY BRIEF

The Daily Brief is a series of daily Lenten meditations based on the day's readings and read by our very own Visitation priests. Starting with Ash Wednesday and throughout all of Lent, we invite you to take 5-6 minutes of your day to listen and reflect. Watch in full screen or close your eyes. The meditations will be available under the Resources tab on the church website.

LENT UNPLUGGED

Our popular 'Lent Unplugged' meditation series is back in person. It begins the First Week of Lent on Tuesday, March 11th at 7PM and continues for the following four Tuesdays in March until Holy Week. These drop-in, candlelit meditation evenings in the church are designed to help us slow down, unplug, and create the inner quiet we need to hear God's voice. Please consider attending.

LENTEN CHALLENGE

This week, identify one time when you experienced an awareness of some specific aspect of Jesus – perhaps on a retreat, at Mass, in prayer or in an act of service. Spend ten minutes consciously re-living that experience in your heart. If you can't recall one, set aside at least two hours this Lent as a mini retreat, either alone in nature or in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Focus on him and ask him to share the secrets of his heart with you. He will. Then, as his friend, share the secrets in your heart.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained

LENTEN READING

QUESTION:

Can you recommend some good books for Lenten spiritual reading?

ANSWER:

On more than one occasion, a coach being interviewed about his team — successful or not — will be asked about the next step. The inevitable response includes something about getting back to basics. Reviewing the fundamentals of the sport strengthens performance and builds confidence.

The best Lenten reading takes us back to the fundamentals. If Lent is the time for the Church to be on retreat, then we should focus on the texts that help us deepen our understanding of our faith. Spend time reading one of the Gospels, and use a Scripture commentary to learn all you can about the passion of Jesus. Read about the lives of the saints, especially your patron saint and that of your parish. Perhaps there is some local candidate for sainthood, like Father Walter Cizek, SJ, who wrote several faith-inspiring books. Finally, you can use the Catechism of the Catholic Church to learn more about the church's teachings and beliefs. The sections on prayer and the Mass are really great reflections. Focusing on the basics really helps us take another step forward in our faith. We have not only a better understanding of what we believe and practice, but also why we believe. With that belief comes the confidence we need to be better, more faithful witnesses to Christ.
