MESSAGE FROM FR. FRANCIS

Dear Parish Family,

Today we enter into Holy Week with Palm Sunday, a day filled with both triumph and sorrow. We recall how Jesus was welcomed into Jerusalem with shouts of joy: "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" Crowds laid down palm branches before Him, recognizing His presence with excitement and hope. Yet, within days, the same voices turned to cries of rejection: "Crucify Him!"

This dramatic shift invites us to reflect deeply. How often do we, too, welcome Christ into our lives with joy in moments of blessing, yet distance ourselves from Him when life becomes difficult or when His teachings challenge our comfort? In our own lives, there can be a quiet turning away – when we choose convenience over compassion, or when fear silences our witness to the Gospel message.

Palm Sunday reminds us of the fickleness of human praise and the enduring love of Christ. Even in the face of rejection, Jesus remains steadfast in His mission of mercy and salvation. As we journey through Holy Week, let us walk closely with Him, welcoming Him not just in moments of triumph but especially in times of trial. Let us be faithful companions of Christ, who never ceases to be faithful to us.

Blessings on this Holy Week,
Fr. Francis

CHRISTIAN MEDITATION

"All self-understanding arises from understanding ourselves as spiritual beings. And it's only contact with the spirit that can give us the depth and the breadth to understand our own experience. And the way to this is not difficult. It's very simple, but it does require serious commitment and serious involvement in our own existence: that we take it seriously, and the wonderful revelation that is there for all of us to discover if only we will set out on the path with discipline. The wonderful thing for us to discover is that our spirit is rooted in God, and that each of us has an eternal destiny and an eternal significance and importance.

And that's one of the most important things for each of us to discover – the nature that we possess that has this infinite potential for development. And that development can only come if we undertake this pilgrimage to our own centre, to our own heart. Because it's only there, it's only in the depths of our own being, that we can discover ourselves rooted in God. Meditation is just this way of making contact with our own spirit. And in that contact finding a way of integration, of finding everything in our experience coming into harmony, everything in our experience judged and aligned on God." -Fr. John Main.

If you are interested in Christian meditation, please join Fr. Francis via Zoom on Wednesdays, 8-8:30 PM. Email fkim@la-archdiocese.org for the link.

I open my heart to You, offering every day and night to You in sacred surrender. I pray for the grace to accompany You in a special way this Holy Week, joining and offering the trials I encounter on our shared journey to the cross ... and to a victorious hope. Amen.

PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few.

The pandemic had hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. The war made their situation even more dire. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS!

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org or www.custodia.org

The Seven Churches Pilgrimage is the practice of visiting seven different churches on Holy Thursday, in imitation of the journey of Christ on the eve of his crucifixion.

The devotion is thought to have originated in sixteenth-century Rome, where pilgrims – likely led by St. Philip Neri – would visit the seven major basilicas there: St. Peter's in the Vatican, St. John Lateran, St. Paul Outside the Walls, St. Mary Major, St.

Sebastian Outside the Walls, St. Lawrence Outside the Walls and Santa Croce in Gerusalemme.

Pilgrims undertaking this journey anywhere in the world can visit any seven churches while adoring Christ in the Blessed Sacrament upon the Altar of Repose, fulfilling his request of his disciples to stay with him as he awaited his Passion. There are specific Scripture passages that pilgrims can meditate upon at each altar.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained

PALM SUNDAY

QUESTION:

Where do Palm Sunday palms come from and where should they go?

ANSWER:

The Palm Sunday celebration has ancient origins. Beginning the liturgy “outside” the church, we symbolically reenact Christ’s entry into Jerusalem. The crowds in ancient Israel waved palm branches – a symbol of royalty – to welcome Jesus. These days, obtaining palms takes a lot of planning and coordination, as hundreds of thousands of churches worldwide need them on the same day! Many in the United States order palms from Florida, California, Texas, or Central America. Many companies stress the sustainability of their production and the just wages paid to their workers.

The palms used on Palm Sunday are blessed at Mass. This means they shouldn’t end up in the trash! Many people weave palms into crosses or families display them in their homes. If you do not plan on displaying your palms throughout the year, they should be burned, buried, or left at the church. In the final case, the palms are burned to provide the ashes for next year’s Ash Wednesday service.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for sending Jesus to be my king.

Mission for the Week

Make Jesus king of your life. Ask him to help you spend your time doing the things that would make him happy.

Sharing the Gospel

The friends of Jesus made a special parade just for him. The people liked Jesus. He fed them. He healed them. They wanted to crown him king. They were sure that with Jesus in charge, they could live in peace. When you praise God, and when you put Jesus in charge of your life, you really can live with peace in your heart!

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God,
 the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 His only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified,
 died and was buried;
 He descended into hell;
 on the third day He rose again
 from the dead;
 He ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Holy Catholic Church,
 the communion of Saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen
