MESSAGE FROM FR. FRANCIS

Dear Parish Family,

This Sunday, the Second Sunday of Easter, the Church celebrates Divine Mercy Sunday—a feast established by St. John Paul II and deeply embraced by Pope Francis. It is a day to rejoice in the infinite mercy of God, a mercy that knows no limits, no conditions, no end.

Mercy is not an abstract concept. It is the face of God turned toward us in love. It is Jesus standing before His disciples, wounds still visible, and saying not “Shame on you,” but “Peace be with you.” This is the heart of Divine Mercy: not judgment, but compassion; not condemnation, but healing. And it is offered not once, but over and over again, to anyone willing to receive it.

Pope Francis often reminded us that “the name of God is mercy.” In his papacy, he consistently challenged the Church—and each one of us—not to close doors, but to open our arms wide, especially to those who feel furthest from God. He taught us that the Church must be a place of welcome and healing, a field hospital for the wounded, and that none of us is beyond the reach of God’s love.

As we remember Pope Francis in these days of mourning, it is fitting that we do so during this great feast of mercy. His life and leadership were grounded in the truth we celebrate today—that the Risen Christ meets us in our wounds, not to reject us, but to restore us.

Let us not keep this mercy to ourselves. Let it shape our homes, our friendships, our conversations, and how we respond to those we find difficult to love. May our parish be known as a place of mercy, where everyone—regardless of their past—is invited to encounter the peace of the Risen Lord.

In the words of the Divine Mercy Chaplet: “For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.”

In Christ,
Fr. Francis

CHRISTIAN MEDITATION

"You have heard it said that meditation is the way to reality. It is first the way to the reality of our own being. We learn to be. Not to be any particular role or particular thing, but just to be. The best way of describing this being is to say that we are in a state of utter simplicity. We are not trying to act. We are not trying to apologize for being who we are or as we are. This is an ideal unfamiliar to most of us because we are trained to think that we find truth only amid complexity. Yet we all know at a deeper level. . .that truth is found in utter simplicity, in openness. [. . .]

Meditation is a way of breaking through from a world of illusion into the pure light of reality. The great illusion that most of us are caught in is that we are the center of the world and that everything and everyone revolves around us. But in meditation we learn that this is not true. The truth is that God is the center and everyone of us has being from God. [. . .] Meditation is the great way of liberation. We are liberated from the past. . . and become open to our life in the present moment. . .We learn that we are because God is, [and that] simply being is our greatest gift." Fr. John Main

If you are interested in learning more about Christian meditation, please join Fr. Francis via Zoom on Wednesdays 8-8:30 PM. Email fkim@la-archdiocese.org for the link.

SIN

QUESTION:

If Jesus destroyed sin, why are sins still with us?

ANSWER:

We are the children of God, heirs of the Father's work, which is life. The struggle is between good and evil and the greatest weapon of evil is death. It is final — the end of hope and all possibility of change. Jesus must destroy death so that life, eternal life, might be possible. That is why Jesus dies: to take on sin's weapon and destroy it by his resurrection. It was not to satisfy God's sense of justice, but to meet sin on its own terms and defeat it.

Since we are heirs and coworkers with God, ours is the struggle with the remnants of evil, its last desperate attempt to overcome good. Like Jesus, we are about the Father's business in our daily life, carrying the message of salvation to everyone. We are strengthened in our struggle and come to realize the great gift of life with which we are graced. It is our hope that one day we will rejoice with the Father in a job well done!

WHERE DID THE FEAST OF DIVINE MERCY COME FROM?

If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers — the Divine Mercy Chaplet — and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world. Her story and her diaries began circulating in Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young woman, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, “a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind with experience in the years to come.”

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived
by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified,
died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again
from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen
