BEGGED HIM
TO LAY
HIS HAND.

— MARK 7:32 —

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Ephphata! Be opened! We hear Jesus tell this words to a man who was deaf and had a speech impediment. Jesus showed compassion to him who had been isolated from the world and people around him. He could not hear what people were saying. He could not obviously enjoy music. He could neither communicate with others. Of course, it would be different now when people who are deaf or are unable to speak can use sign language. We see people on TV or congresses for example, where there is someone who is given the task of doing the sign language while a person is speaking.

It is significant though to consider the difficult plight of these people in Jesus' time. And this episode in the Gospel of Mark is equally significant when we reflect about the meaning of Jesus commanding these words to us.

Ephphata! Be opened! In the Rite of the Sacrament of Baptism, there is a part where the priest would bless the mouth or lips and ears of the baby who is being baptized. The words tell a lot about its meaning. The priest says 'May the Lord Jesus, who made the deaf to hear and the mute to speak, grant that you may soon receive his word with your ears and profess the faith with your lips, to the glory and praise of God the Father.'

A baptized person is given a command and calling to hear and listen to word of God. As soon as he receives the Word of God, he should not just keep it for himself but share God's word as he proclaims it to others. We, the baptized Catholics are called to be evangelizers. We have been given this mission to proclaim the Good News of salvation.

Let us open our ears to the Lord and listen to what he tells us. As we listen to him, let us also open our ears to others so we are able to hear what they are telling us. Pope Francis says in his Apostolic Exhortation, Evangelii Nuntiandi, "We need to practice the art of listening, which is more than simply hearing. Listening is an openness of heart which makes possible that closeness without which genuine spiritual encounter can occur. He would ask us, 'Are you good at listening? If we are to receive God's grace and mercy, we must be willing to listen to him and to each other. ' We should take extra time to listen to others. Hence, we need to pray and ask the Lord to utter this word to us:

Ephphata!

Have a Blessed Sunday!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"Be opened!" said Christ two thousand years ago, as he placed his finger in the ear of the deaf man. "Be opened!" he says to us today, laying his hand upon our hearts. May we always accept Christ's invitation to become a new creation.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

"¡Ábrete!" dijo Cristo hace dos mil años, mientras ponía su dedo en el oído del sordo. "¡Ábrete!" nos dice hoy poniendo su mano sobre nuestro corazón. Que siempre aceptemos la invitación de Cristo a convertirnos en una nueva creación.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

The prophet Isaiah encouraged the Israelites to be strong in their conviction that God was coming to heal them and renew creation itself. Who could you encourage to be firm in their faith this week?

Second Reading:

James taught believers to make no distinctions between the rich and the poor in their community gatherings. How do you think showing no partiality helps a community grow in faith?

Gospel:

We hear today how the people of the Decapolis were astonished at Jesus's healing of the deaf and mute. What parts of your life need healing?

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA

A REFLEXIONAR Y RESPONDER

El profeta Isaías animó a los israelitas a ser firmes en su convicción de que Dios vendría a sanarlos y renovar la creación misma. ¿A quién podrías animar a ser firme en su fe esta semana?

Segunda Lectura:

Santiago enseñó a los creyentes a no hacer distinciones entre ricos y pobres en sus reuniones comunitarias. ¿Cómo crees que mostrar no parcialidad ayuda a una comunidad a crecer en la fe?

Evangelio:

Hoy escuchamos cómo la gente de Decápolis quedó asombrada por la curación de los sordomudos por parte de Jesús. ¿Qué partes de tu vida necesitan sanación?

Answer: Saint Joachim, father of Mary.

TRIVIA CATÓLICA

Pregunta: ¿Cómo se llama el santo patrón de los abuelos?

Respuesta: San Joaquín, padre de María.
