OUR PATRON, SAINT BARNABAS

Barnabas sacrificed himself to be instrumental in God's cultivation of His Church. Paul makes specific mention of the fact that Barnabas, who willingly impoverished himself in the interests of the Church, labored with his own hands to support himself on his missionary journeys. In Acts 4:36, Luke translates Barnabas to mean "son of encouragement" or "son of consolation." The original Greek word rendered "encouragement," paraklesis, means encouragement, consolation, comfort, exhortation and entreaty. It may be that the Apostles who gave Joseph the name Barnabas, saw all of these qualities in his character.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Your light has come,
the glory of the Lord shines upon you. (Is 60:1)

Psalm:

Lord, every nation on earth will adore you. (Ps 72)

Second Reading:

It was not made known to people in other generations
as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit:
that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body,
and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus
through the gospel. (Eph 3:5-6)

Gospel:

"Where is the newborn king of the Jews?
We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." (Mt 2:2)

Saint of the week

St. Tarcisus was a 12-year-old boy who lived in 3rd-century Rome. Although much of what is known of him is from a poem written by Pope Damasus (366-384), he is considered an important martyr who protected the Eucharist from desecration with his life.

Prayer for the New Year

Dear Lord,
With thanksgiving we entrust our year to You: whatever it holds, whoever we encounter, wherever we traverse. What You supply is gift. May our comings and goings be aligned with Your will. Amen.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Though the magi did not know where the star of Bethlehem would lead, they trusted that God would be with them along the way. Let us all embrace that same faith as we go about the journey God has planned for us this year.

Happy Anniversary

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A stranger in a foreign land, I was exhausted and homesick as my summer Spanish immersion ended in Guatemala. The rusty minivan arriving outside my small residence filled me with joyful hope. I was flying home to the U.S. and would be, at long last, completely happy. Or so I thought. After about half an hour of being home, I thought to myself, "This place is boring. I want to go somewhere." So, I hopped in my car and left to see my friends. As I drove, I wistfully wondered, "Where am I truly at home?"

The feast of Epiphany has a lot to do with our notion of home. Where is our origin? Where are we going? When is our wandering done? Saint Matthew tells us of the Magi, "They were overjoyed at seeing the star." This star will bring them home, to a place where their questing will end, and they will be satisfied. Their real home is neither in the East nor in the earthly Jerusalem. Somehow, their home is wherever this boy and his parents are.

If you're a teenager or older, you probably know by now that every physical home we have is temporary. So, we look up at the countless stars in our proverbial skies: things which bedazzle and beckon us to follow toward peace. The Gospel invites us to behold that — at long last — God has sent us a star to follow home, one that whispers, "Follow me! I will take you home!" Perhaps that star is your spouse. A friend. An opportunity. A cause. An intuition about a new direction. A prayer group. What is it for you? How will you know? It will lead you to Mary and Joseph and their son, and you will be home.

— Father John Muir

The traditional date of Epiphany is January 6, but in the United States it is celebrated on the Sunday between January 2 and January 8.

It is a long-held Catholic tradition to bless one's home on (or near) the celebration of the Epiphany by using chalk to write a special inscription above the home's entrance. You can bless chalk at home yourself! You can find the blessing to do so below.

The inscription written over the door changes every year. For this year, you should write: "20 + C + M + B + 24."

The Letters C, M, and B have two meanings. They are the initials of the traditional names of the three magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. They are also the first letters of the Latin words Christus mansionem benedicat, "May Christ bless the house." The + signs represent the cross, and 2024 is the year.

Blessing the Chalk

Priest/Adult: Our help is the name of the Lord:

All: The maker of heaven and earth.

Priest/Adult: The Lord shall watch over your going out and your coming in:

All: From this time forth for evermore.

Priest/Adult: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Priest/Adult: Let us pray.

All: Loving God, bless this chalk which you have created, that it may be helpful to your people; and grant that through the invocation of your most Holy Name all who use it in faith to write upon the doors of their homes the names of your saints, Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar, may receive health of body and protection of soul for all who dwell in or visit their home; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(You may sprinkle the chalk with holy water.)

Instructions for Blessing the Home

Optional Scripture Reading: Matthew 2:1-16.

Also optional, you can sprinkle holy water in each room of your house while singing hymns or praying the rosary. Then gather at the front door to your home.

Using the blessed chalk, mark the lintel of your front door (or front porch step, or a wall within your home) as follows:

20 + C + M + B + 24

Saying:

The three Wise Men, Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar followed the star of God's Son who became human two thousand and twenty-three years ago. May Christ bless our home and remain with us throughout the new year. Amen.

Then say the following prayer:

Visit, O blessed Lord, this home with the gladness of your presence. Bless all who live or visit here with the gift of your love; and grant that we may manifest your love to each other and to all whose lives we touch. May we grow in grace and in the knowledge and love of you; guide, comfort, and strengthen us in peace, O Jesus Christ, now and for ever. Amen.

January 1, 2024

My Dear Parishioners,

We begin this New Year 2024 with great joy and much hope for success in life. It is a natural time for many to reflect on the past and set goals for the future. But for Catholics, it is important that our goals are not just about achieving personal success or happiness, but rather about 'Honoring God' and living according to 'His Will.' This is the reason why God created us for his own glory! And, God has given us a beautiful person as a model, namely our Blessed Mother Mary whose feast we celebrate today.

The feast of the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, helps us to reflect and ponder about God choosing Blessed Mother to send Jesus to us. We read this in the second reading in today's liturgy: "When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman..." (Gal 4:4-7).

We know that Mother Mary resolved herself entirely to God's will. And whatever she did, it was to honor God. She invites all of us to do the same in our lives. Let us resolve our will to follow God's will and always bring honor and glory to him.

The Church has always recognized that Mother Mary has called her children down the centuries for one unique purpose, that is to recognize her Son in the 'Holy Eucharist.' In almost all apparitions she had asked to build a church so that the Holy Sacrifice of Jesus will be offered to God the Father, and we would encounter her Son in the Eucharist. Thus, Blessed Mother leads us to her Son Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. How fortunate are we that we can celebrate Mass daily in our Church and encounter Christ in the Eucharist, whereas millions of people long for this but could not have it. Let us thank and praise God for this wonderful blessing. The Eucharistic Revival initiatives under the leadership of Brian Sapsky continue to provide many opportunities for us to learn and appreciate this important Sacrament in our lives. I encourage you to avail those opportunities and enrich your faith life.

I am super happy to see our wonderful children and youth attending Mass. They are God's gift to our faith community. I am grateful to the parents and grandparents for bringing them to church to be nourished with the Word of God and Bread of Life. I am grateful for all the teachers, catechists, Religious Education and Confirmation Coordinators for their dedication in teaching the faith to our students. We are also blessed to have several adults seeking Sacraments through the RCIA process. Let us pray that they will continue to open their heart and mind to Jesus and fall in love with Him.

Together with Fr. Bernard S., Parish Staff, Financial and Pastoral Councils, I pray that this new year will be a year of grace and blessings in every possible way for you and your entire family!

Happy New Year, 2024!

With Blessings,

ONLINE FAITH DIRECT DONATE ONLINE OR VIA TEXT

The new year is filled with hope and promise as we seek to grow our vital ministries, explore new ways to share the good news of Christ's love, and reflect His care and mercy to those in need throughout the community. To continue to make a difference in 2024, St. Barnabas is reaching out to our parishioners.

Begin the new year with e-Giving to help sustain and build ministries throughout 2024 that reflect the steadfast promise of God's love. The need is great in our community, and your generous online gifts will help people all around us.

We prayerfully request that you consider signing up for eGiving from your computer, smartphone or tablet. You can set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift by visiting faith.direct/CA794 or calling 1-866-507-8757. Thank you for your continued support of our parish family.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

How are the feasts of the baptism of Jesus and the account of the wedding feast of Cana related to the Epiphany celebration?

Answer:

The Epiphany season focuses on revealing Jesus to the world. Following the Christmas celebration, the liturgical year lays out a series of manifestation points in which Jesus is made publicly known. From its very beginning, the Christian community highlighted three events in the life of Jesus. These are the Epiphany, the Baptism of the Lord and the wedding feast at Cana.

The Epiphany discloses Jesus to the world of the Gentiles, represented by the magi from the East. The accounts of Jesus' baptism reveal his identity and mission, along with exposing him to those to whom he was sent to minister. The miracle of turning water to wine at the wedding feast of Cana, unique to John's Gospel, is the first public sign that Jesus performs, thus manifesting his public identity and his powers.

Today in the Roman Church, these are usually celebrated on three successive Sundays: Epiphany, the Baptism of the Lord which is usually the next Sunday, and the wedding feast of Cana, which is proclaimed on the 2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time in lectionary year C.

These feasts connect around the concept of epiphany, public manifestation of Jesus to the world. They help us get to know more intimately who Jesus is and what he is about. Spend some time delving more deeply into your understanding of who Jesus is. Continue to cultivate these "epiphany" moments in your life.
