OUR PATRON, SAINT BARNABAS

Barnabas sacrificed himself to be instrumental in God's cultivation of His Church. Paul makes specific mention of the fact that Barnabas, who willingly impoverished himself in the interests of the Church, labored with his own hands to support himself on his missionary journeys. In Acts 4:36, Luke translates Barnabas to mean "son of encouragement" or "son of consolation." The original Greek word rendered "encouragement," paraklesis, means encouragement, consolation, comfort, exhortation and entreaty. It may be that the Apostles who gave Joseph the name Barnabas, saw all of these qualities in his character.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

The community of believers was of one heart and mind,
and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own,
but they had everything in common. (Acts 4:32)

Psalm:

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting.
(Ps 118)
Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading:

For the love of God is this,
that we keep his commandments.
And his commandments are not burdensome,
for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world.
(1 Jn 5:3-4)

Gospel:

On the evening of that first day of the week,
when the doors were locked, where the disciples were,
for fear of the Jews,
Jesus came and stood in their midst
and said to them, "Peace be with you." (Jn 20:19)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

We find unfathomable mercy and everlasting love in the wounds of Christ — even when we are skeptical, even when we carry doubt. God meets us there in the confusion. He reaches for our hand and places them at his side. We just have to call his name.

Saint of the week

St. Andrew of Crete was born in Damascus and was mute until he received his First Communion at age 7. He went on to be an influential archbishop and hymnist in Crete. His most renowned work, the Great Canon, is chanted during Lent in Eastern Orthodox churches.

Prayer for the 2nd Sunday of Easter

Dear Jesus,
As you greeted your disciples after you rose, fill us, too, with your peace.
As you breathed your spirit on them, breathe on us, too.
As your presence was known to Thomas, make it known to us, too.
Help us to live in your peace, power, and presence.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A protestant pastor friend of mine was invited to meet Pope Francis with a group of other pastors. He noticed the Pope's chair was especially ornate and set at the head of the group. He somewhat playfully said, "Holy Father, why do you get that special chair?" The group chuckled nervously at my friend's audacious chide.

The following year, the group was invited to return. They entered the room to find only simple chairs placed in a circle. Pope Francis entered, sat down in one of the humble chairs and, looking directly at my friend, with a twinkle in his eye, asked, "What do you think of my chair now?" My friend was stunned that the Pope remembered his concerns — and took the time to answer them.

Thomas the apostle was certainly stunned by the Risen Jesus displaying his wounds in person. But he also must have been equally shocked that Jesus knew and answered his particular questions, worries, and even demands related to his faith. How humbled — and perhaps a bit terrified — he must have been to realize God remembers his concerns and cares enough to answer them.

What questions or demands about Jesus do you find in your heart? Like Thomas, will you be bold enough to voice them this week? How wonderful to know that if we do so, God will remember and respond even to our most audacious desires.

— Father John Muir

•GET READY TO ENTER INTO THE MYSTERIES

IF YOU CHOOSE TO ACCEPT THIS INVITATION, YOU'LL NEVER SEE THE MASS THE SAME WAY AGAIN!

This Easter Season you are invited to enter into captivating truth, inspiring goodness, and breathtaking beauty as we take a deep dive into the Sacred Mysteries of the Mass. Beautiful Light: A Paschal Mystagogy is your entry point into one of the most ancient and fruitful traditions of the Church—a catechesis on the sacred mysteries of our Faith, focusing on our Liturgical Life—called Mystagogy. The early Church knew how essential it was to foster the faith of newly initiated Christians, and the period of mystagogy became a time-tested and true pathway to life-long discipleship.

Whether you are a cradle Catholic or have just entered the Church this Easter, Beautiful Light is for you! Join Sr. Alicia and Tanner Kalina for this 7-Part series to unpack everything that is true, good and beautiful about the Mass. Each week, we'll hear from a different bishop as he helps us see with the eyes of Faith what is really happening at Mass, and answers the questions that are pressing on our hearts!

This Online series is open to anyone, not just parish leaders, so please encourage your ministry members, fellow parishioners, friends, and family to tune in! Please forward this e-mail to them.

It will begin this week at 5pm PT on Thursday April 4th and will continue each Thursday evening throughout the Easter Season (ending May 16th). We hope you will join! Don't worry if you can't join at 5pm. We've been told that sessions will be recorded and posted at a later time.

Easter Blessings!

March 31, 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
Christ is Risen! He is truly Risen! This truth is the most fundamental to our Christian faith. We celebrate Christ's triumph over sin and death, thus opening the gateway for us to gain eternal life. Our gaze at the empty tomb affirms our faith in the risen Lord and the hope for a renewed life in Him. The angel in the Gospel invited Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome not to look for Jesus in the empty tomb but beyond: "Do not be amazed! You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised; he is not here" (Mk: 16:6). So where is the risen Christ? He is in the food he gave to us, the Eucharist. He abides in the Sacraments of the Church. He lives in our hearts, minds, thoughts, and wills that conform to him. He is grasped in moments when God's moral truth and justice are upheld. His presence is felt when God's peace is pursued. The invitation for us is to recognize the risen Lord in all walks of our lives.

Easter is a sacred time for hope. Hope for a fresh start in life; hope for justice, peace, reconciliation, and forgiveness; hope for a new life from weariness; hope that the wrong will be made right. We as Catholics, believe that this hope is rooted in the resurrection of Jesus Christ. For those of you who may be in crossroads in your life at this time know that you are in my prayers. And my prayer is that you would hold on to your faith and hope in Jesus, our Savior.

Our faith is meaningful, and hope is alive when we encounter Jesus in the Eucharist. Jesus is delighted to commune with us at every Mass. Let us also commune with him, particularly on Sundays, and make it a priority in our lives. This is the food that would sustain us against all forces in our secular culture challenging our faith life. Realizing the urgency to call the attention of the people to the Eucharist, our bishops have called us for a Eucharistic revival at every parish. Our parish is engaged with several initiatives with regards to revitalizing our parish community toward this goal. The purpose is twofold: (a) To appreciate the importance of the Eucharist in our lives, especially in the lives of lukewarm Catholics; (b) To motivate the Catholics for a greater participation in the Eucharist. May I invite you to be ambassadors to our initiatives and encourage your family to do the same.

We welcome the newly baptized to our Catholic family during this Easter season. We are also delighted that our children from the religious education program and parish school will soon receive their First Holy Communion. The RCIA candidates and Confirmation students will receive their Sacraments as well. Please pray for the success of their faith journey.

Together with Fr. Bernard Santiago, the Parish Staff, Pastoral and Finance Council, I wish you a Happy and Joyful Easter!

In the Risen Lord,

Rev. Antony Gaspar

•SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

DID YOU KNOW? April 6 & 7

The Office of Safeguard the Children of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles annually publishes the Working Together to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse Brochure, which provides an up-to-date listing of safe environment policies, programs, resources, contact numbers and other important information about how the Archdiocese of Los Angeles is working to prevent child sexual abuse.

Copies of the brochures are available in the parish vestibule or online at: <https://lacatholics.org/departments-ministries/safeguard-the-children/>

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

After a civil divorce, is a Catholic obligated to pursue an annulment?

Answer:

Many Catholics are not exactly sure what an annulment does. An annulment does not deny that a marriage took place, nor does it deny that there once was love. It does not mean that people say anything untrue, such as they never loved each other or that everything in their marriage was wrong. An annulment does not negate children, nor make them illegitimate. An annulment addresses the spiritual aspect of marriage. In effect, an annulment says that at the time of the wedding, there was either something present or something absent that prevented the sacrament from taking place. It is a spiritual determination that, if granted in the affirmative, allows a person to marry in the Church.

Annulments have no legal standing and are unable to be used in a civil court. Therefore, a Catholic has no moral obligation to pursue an annulment. However, when the tragedy of divorce occurs, and there is no hope for reconciliation, annulments may help bring some spiritual closure to a person's life. Some people have found the process to be healing and others have found it to be difficult. Speak to your priest or a member of the Diocesan Tribunal staff to decide what is best for you.
