OUR PATRON, SAINT BARNABAS

Barnabas sacrificed himself to be instrumental in God's cultivation of His Church. Paul makes specific mention of the fact that Barnabas, who willingly impoverished himself in the interests of the Church, labored with his own hands to support himself on his missionary journeys. In Acts 4:36, Luke translates Barnabas to mean "son of encouragement" or "son of consolation." The original Greek word rendered "encouragement," paraklesis, means encouragement, consolation, comfort, exhortation and entreaty. It may be that the Apostles who gave Joseph the name Barnabas, saw all of these qualities in his character.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Once I asked a fallen-away Catholic friend of mine what he remembered about the parish priest from his youth. He said, "He was a gentle, nice guy. Kind of vanilla. Kept to himself." It struck me that he, perhaps like many, perceive Catholic priests as the following: lonely, harmless, and self-sufficient. As a challenge both to this perception (accurate or not) and to us priests who perhaps feel a pull in that uninspiring direction, stands the mighty image of what we see in the Gospel this Sunday.

Jesus sent out his apostles, "two-by-two, with power over demons, and without money belts." Two-by-two: they enjoyed deep fellowship and brotherhood. Power over demons: they were anything but harmless. These men wielded enormous power against evil. Without money belts: they were not self-sufficient. They needed others to help them. Not lonely, but in community. Not harmless but armed with massive spiritual energy. Not self-sufficient, but poor and in need of help.

This is a challenge to me, and perhaps to all of us, living in a rich, secularized, and individualized culture. Do I embrace my priestly ministry in deep fellowship with other priests? Do I speak and act boldly to drive out evil where it is found? Do I live poorly and simply, trusting in the help of those around me even for basic needs? The fruitfulness of priestly ministry largely depends on these three traits. Let's pray for all priests — and, by extension, all of us Christians — to live more like Jesus' communal, poor, and powerful apostles.

— Father John Muir

•MISSION CO-OP APPEAL 7/27-28 MARY QUEEN OF HEAVEN MINISTRIES

The Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries was established to address the cruelest result of impoverishment in the Philippines. Young girls being forced into the sex trafficking trade due to poverty. Girls ages 8 to 15 are locked in rooms and exposed to rape, diseases and murder. Many die quite young before they even have a chance to live. Through perfect love and charity, the determined nuns of MQHM have developed a two-fold plan to combat these atrocities:

RESCUE & EDUCATION

We rescue children & young women, ages 8 and older, from prostitution.

We provide educational assistance to these survivors and to the rural poor of the Philippines.

•FR. JAMES ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Let us give a warm welcome to our new Associate Pastor, Fr. James Dass!

Welcome to our St. Barnabas Church Parish Community! May God bless you!

•NEW MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT SERVANTS OF THE EUCHARIST

The fruitfulness of the parish “Eucharist Revival Program” spawned the birth of a ministry at St. Barnabas called “Servants of the Eucharist.” Comprising this community are members of different ministry groups already in the Parish who wish to expand their given charisms to specifically embrace the “call of the Eucharist” — not only as a devotion but as a “way of life.”

The Servants of the Eucharist is a “Parish-based ministry,” subject to authority of the pastor who is also their spiritual director. Their goal is to bring forth the full fruition of their charism at St. Barnabas (Eucharistic Servanthood) by supporting all pastoral programs and initiatives by and through sharing themselves (time, talent, and treasure) as “Eucharist” for others in the Parish.

To date, the Servants of the Eucharist Ministry had undertaken or participated in the following Parish projects or programs: continuing spiritual formation programs, prayer meetings, Praise and Worship sessions and Choir participation at Mass, active engagement in significant parish programs, Eucharistic Revival, 500 Years of Christianity in the Philippines, annual Octoberfest, Valentine Dance, Christmas Pageant, Passion Play, annual Pista sa Nasyon celebration, community building and various fundraising events, beautification, maintenance, and clean-up of church premises – to name a few. Indeed, the members’ enthusiasm and commitment to ministry work inspired the ministry’s name: “Servants of the Eucharist.”
