OUR PATRON, SAINT BARNABAS

Barnabas sacrificed himself to be instrumental in God's cultivation of His Church. Paul makes specific mention of the fact that Barnabas, who willingly impoverished himself in the interests of the Church, labored with his own hands to support himself on his missionary journeys. In Acts 4:36, Luke translates Barnabas to mean "son of encouragement" or "son of consolation." The original Greek word rendered "encouragement," paraklesis, means encouragement, consolation, comfort, exhortation and entreaty. It may be that the Apostles who gave Joseph the name Barnabas, saw all of these qualities in his character.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus is the fulfillment of the Scripture passage he reads in the synagogue, a missive of promise and hope from an ancient prophet. But he invites us to be part of his work, here and now, in our own lives, our own communities. Be part of the fulfillment.

Devotions, Explained!

The practice of examining one's conscience dates to the very beginning of the Christian faith. It simply calls for reflection on one's actions, making note of lapses in judgment that should be confessed in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Anoint me to bring your love,
light, and freedom to the places

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A young couple in my parish told me they were expecting their second child, a baby boy. I knew that their five-year old only child Emma had been desperately wanting to be a big sister for years, so I said, "Emma must have been so happy when you told her the news." "Actually," they said, "she burst into tears. She wanted a baby sister!" How often in life God wonderfully fulfills our desires and we are sad because we don't approve of the way he does it. We want to control the gift and the delivery method.

The same thing occurs in the Gospel this week when Jesus announces in his hometown that the promise of an Anointed One bringing glad tidings to the poor is "fulfilled in your hearing" (Luke 4:21). After a moment of elation, his fellow townsfolk realize this man is the way God is fulfilling his promises, and they erupt into a violent outburst. So Jesus departs. How sad for them.

Every single Sunday at Mass, including this one, some version of this happens to many of us. God's word announces the fulfillment of God's promises in Christ, and we easily overlook or disdain it. His way is almost never according to our narrow expectations. What's required of us is to set these aside, and to embrace a new openness to God's gifts, no matter how he wishes to give them. God is fulfilling his promises the way He likes — why be sad?

— Father John Muir

Andrew Dung-Lac came from a non-Christian home but was instructed in the faith by a lay catechist. Later, he was ordained to the priesthood, and he also served with the priests of the Parish Missions Society. These priests were among the first to be martyred during a wave of persecution under Emperor Ming-Mang beginning in 1832. Fr. Andrew was arrested but ransomed by his parishioners before being arrested again, tortured, and beheaded in 1839. He was canonized along with 116 other martyrs who represent the estimated total of 100,000–300,000 martyrs from this period of persecution.

It doesn't necessarily take a saint or an ordained person to catechize the next generation of saints. We are all called to evangelize, and God wants to work through each of us—including you! Who could you walk with on their journey toward Christ and his Church?

A lay catechist instructed Andrew Dung-Lac in the faith.

Andrew later became a priest, martyr, and saint.

Who will you walk with?

Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: Jesus didn't come to fix the brokenness of the world. He came to fix our brokenness. He offers us not relief from the trials of life, but an answer to the question of how to live in joy, in love and in purpose in the midst of these evil days.

These Evil Days

"Alas, that these evil days should be mine."

If you've ever seen "The Lord of the Rings," you might recognize this quote from "The Two Towers." The words are spoken by King Theoden at the grave of his only son and heir, as Theoden contemplates the coming war for Middle Earth, a war which has already claimed the life of his son, a war he wants no part of, a war that seems utterly hopeless and unwinnable.

These evil days.

You don't have to be a fantasy enthusiast or even a Tolkien fan to identify with Theoden here. We have all experienced this same feeling of despair, perhaps increasingly in this age of technology and social media, when the ills of the whole world — violence, injustice, moral disorder and chaos — are in our faces, on our phones, looming over our days.

But when we despair like this, we forget an important truth: this is the time of fulfillment, and we are lucky enough to be living through it.

Yes, the world is broken. It was broken two thousand years ago, too, when Jesus stood up in the synagogue on the Sabbath and read the words of the prophet Isaiah: "He has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives...and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord."

Jesus didn't come to fix the brokenness of the world. He came to fix our brokenness. He offers us not relief from the trials of life, but an answer to the question of how to live in joy, in love and in purpose in the midst of these evil days.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

I've heard that love is a theological virtue. What does that mean?

Answer:

Charles Shultz, the creator of the Peanuts comics wrote, "I love mankind ... it's people I can't stand!" This good humored comment gets at an important truth. St. John wrote a very strong statement in one of his letters: "If anyone says 'I love God,' but hates his brother, he is a liar; for whoever does not love a brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen" (1 John 4:20). How often do we say "I love the homeless," but ignore the parish food drive? Or insist on the importance of respecting others, but don't bother to say hello to our cashier? If we can't love an individual person, we might not love people like we think, and we certainly need to work on our love for God.

Love is "the theological virtue by which we love God above all things for His own sake, and our neighbor as ourselves for the love of God" (CCC 1822). God knows acts of love of Him and others isn't always easy. So He invites us to pray for the grace to do it. The virtue of love gives us the grace and strength we need to offer our lives to God and love people in our lives, especially those who are difficult to respect, tolerate, and care for. Real love, of course, is risky. Real love wills the good of the other when we just want good for ourselves. Real love gets up on the cross when we'd prefer to take a nap in Gethsemane. Real love changes things.

•THANK YOU!

WORSHIP ENVIRONMENT TEAM

Dear St. Barnabas Parishioners, Volunteers and Partnering Ministries:

As we step into the new year, we want to extend our heartfelt thanks to each one of you for your unwavering dedication and support. Your time, energy, and love for this ministry have made such a positive impact on our worship space, and we are deeply grateful for all the ways you serve. Earlier this month, we had an incredible number of volunteers show up for a record-breaking effort in putting away all our Christmas decorations, and your efforts did not go unnoticed. Your contributions are truly valued and appreciated.

Our mission remains clear and vital: To create a worship space that honors the sacredness of the church environment through thoughtful, creative, and culturally sensitive floral arrangements, altar cloths, and decorations. Our ministry aims to serve the congregation by providing a beautiful and organized atmosphere that reflects the diverse cultural and generational makeup of the community while maintaining an atmosphere conducive to worship.

As we move forward into 2025, we are excited to continue this work together, ensuring that every detail of our worship environment reflects both reverence and beauty. Thank you for your continued dedication to this mission, and we look forward to another year of partnership, creativity, and service.

Blessings,

Monica Viramontes

Bring on the Wine!

When a young couple falls in love, the fascination they have for each other seems boundless. The joy they share is like the "new wine" generously poured out for the guests in the Wedding at Cana. As time goes by, the pressures of raising children, making ends meet, and the routine of daily life sets in, sometimes leaving the couple to wonder, "what happened to our wine?" Through the sacramental grace of Marriage, Jesus still turns the ordinary water of daily routine into the best wine for our abundant life.
