OUR PATRON, SAINT BARNABAS

Barnabas sacrificed himself to be instrumental in God's cultivation of His Church. Paul makes specific mention of the fact that Barnabas, who willingly impoverished himself in the interests of the Church, labored with his own hands to support himself on his missionary journeys. In Acts 4:36, Luke translates Barnabas to mean "son of encouragement" or "son of consolation." The original Greek word rendered "encouragement," paraklesis, means encouragement, consolation, comfort, exhortation and entreaty. It may be that the Apostles who gave Joseph the name Barnabas, saw all of these qualities in his character.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION: My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

It was on that occasion that the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying: "To your descendants I give the land, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Great River, the Euphrates." (Gn 15:18)

Psalm:

The Lord is my light and my salvation. (Ps 27)

Second Reading:

He will change our lowly body
to conform with his glorified body by the power that enables him also to bring all things into subjection to himself. (Phil 3:21)

Gospel:

Jesus took Peter, John, and James
and went up the mountain to pray.
While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. (Lk 9:28b-29)

Gospel MeditationEncourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

St. Thomas Aquinas said that friends share three things: time, possessions and secrets. For example, how do I know if you're my friend? Well, let's say we've been to Mexico together, you've tried my shaky attempts at pasta carbonara, and you know what ridiculous costume I wore in a music video I filmed in my early twenties. We, dear reader, are definitely friends. We've shared time, possessions and secrets.

How does friendship with Jesus develop? The same way. Jesus lives and eats with his disciples. Then he takes Peter, James and John to Mount Tabor and there reveals to them his deepest secret: his glorious, divine Sonship. The majesty of God shines from within his humanity in a way that goes beyond description. God the Father confirms this "secret," saying, "This is my chosen Son, listen to him" (Luke 9:35). It's all so precious that "they fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone." Do we take time to be alone with Christ, to allow him to mystically share this "secret" with us as his dear friends?

Lenten challenge: This week, identify one time when you experienced an awareness of some specific aspect of Jesus — perhaps on a retreat, at Mass, in prayer or in an act of service. Spend ten minutes consciously re-living that experience in your heart. If you can't recall one, set aside at least two hours this Lent as a mini retreat, either alone in nature or in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Focus on him and ask him to share the secrets of his heart with you. He will. Then, as his friend, share the secrets in your heart.

— Father John Muir

EUCCHARISTIC ENCOUNTER

St. Charles de Foucauld and Venerable Fulton Sheen both typify how encounter with our Eucharistic Lord gives shape to the rest of our lives.

ST. CHARLES DE FOUCAULD

St. Charles, who was dedicated to evangelizing non-Christians in the Sahara Desert, would spend several hours each day before the tabernacle, understanding that “‘Eucharistic life’ evangelizes” (Pope Francis, “General Audience,” October 18, 2023). St. Charles recognized that he needed to come to Christ in the Eucharist in order to be transformed by the Holy Spirit, filled with his strength, and made an evangelizing witness to the risen Christ (cf. Pope Benedict “Message to the Young People,” 2008).

VENERABLE FULTON SHEEN

The Eucharist played a similar role for Venerable Fulton Sheen, who was widely known for his radio and television presence and his work with missions. Throughout the sixty years of his priesthood, Archbishop Sheen would spend an hour before the Blessed Sacrament each day. In his autobiography he writes, “The purpose of the Holy Hour is to encourage deep personal encounter with Christ. The holy and glorious God is constantly inviting us to come to Him, to hold converse with Him, to ask for such things as we need and to experience what a blessing there is in fellowship with Him. ... I have found that it takes some time to catch fire in prayer. This has been one of the advantages of the daily Hour” (Fulton Sheen, Treasure in Clay: The Autobiography of Fulton J. Sheen, 199-200). The venerable archbishop even desired to draw his final breaths in the presence of the Eucharist, which he did!

Dear Friends in Christ,
We have entered the 1st Week of Lent! People have begun taking on challenges and have challenged others to do the same. We are 1/3 of the way to our goal of $2,000. Please share with your family and friends so we can reach our goal by the end of Lent. Some ways you can help is by sharing our flyer on your social media or text it to people you know so they can see what this Lenten Challenge is all about. You may also be helping them in their spiritual lives! God could work through you to reach them. Thank you for supporting our students!

All donations will help defray this year's Confirmation retreat costs. Students' lives have changed from the retreat. Our retreat took place from February 28-March 2 at Santiago Retreat Center in Silverado. One student's family shared that he came back with a whole new "aura" about him. Since the retreat, he always has a smile on his face which is unlike him. His decisions and actions have been more drawn toward God. They said he is a completely different person!

GOAL: $2,000

Let us continue our 40-day journey with Jesus in the desert so that we may find ourselves renewed at Easter.

~ Sr. Lieu

•SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

DID YOU KNOW? March 15 & 16

As safe adults, we want to be available for the children in our lives to share their worries and fears with us. However, it is natural to be uncomfortable if a child discloses abuse or mistreatment. Asking necessary questions and getting pertinent information is critical to stopping abusive scenarios, although this can be difficult it is important to remember our critical role as safe adults. We are protectors of the children in our lives and we have the power to stop abuse from happening. This always needs to be the priority, over discomfort and uncertainty. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article “Superpowers: Safe Adults Have Them” at: lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Knights of Columbus Council #3449 encourages all St Barnabas Parishioners to pray the Rosary for Life Novena from Mon. March 17th until Tues. March 25th The Annunciation of the Lord, and Knights of Columbus Day of the Unborn Child:

Rosary for Life

Opening Prayer

Almighty God, Our Father, You have given us life to know, love and serve You in this world, grant us Your grace. Enlighten our minds to an awareness and to a renewed conviction that all human life is sacred because it is created in Your image and likeness. Help us to teach by word and the example of our lives that human life is precious because it is the gift of God whose love is infinite.

Give us the strength to defend human life against every influence or action that threatens or demeans it, as well as the strength to make every life more human in all its aspects.

Intentions for Each Mystery

1. Give us the grace when the sacredness of life before birth is attacked, to stand up and proclaim that no one has the authority to destroy unborn life.
2. Give us the grace when a child is described as a burden or is looked upon only as a means to satisfy an emotional need, to stand up and insist that every child is a unique and unrepeatable gift of God, a gift of God with a right to a loving and united family.
3. Give us the grace when the institution of marriage is attacked, to affirm fathers and mothers in their vocations to build the domestic church.
4. Give us the grace when the sick, the aged or the dying are abandoned in loneliness, to stand up and proclaim that they are worthy of love, care and respect.
5. Give us the grace when basic necessities are denied the poor, to stand up and reaffirm the demands of justice and to work for their relief and defense.

Closing Prayer

Almighty Father, give us courage to proclaim the supreme dignity of all human life and demand that society itself give its protection. We ask this in Your name, through the redemptive act of Your Son and in the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The need is constant.
The gratification is instant.
Give blood.

Help Save Lives this Lenten Season!
Each pint of blood we collect
Can help save up to three lives!

Build a Stronger Marriage | Rediscover Your Love

Since 1977 Retrouvaille (retro-vi) has helped thousands of couples rediscover hope, healing and love in their marriage. It is a program that is Catholic in origin, but open to anyone regardless of their faith tradition.

"This program was key for us rebuilding our struggling relationship."

"Retrouvaille fundamentally changed the way we communicate."

"Retrouvaille brought our marriage to a place where we could truly heal, forgive, and trust."
"Eye opening experience!"

If you are having difficulty communicating, you are constantly arguing or you have thoughts of separation or divorce, then Retrouvaille may be just what your marriage needs.
