OUR PATRON, SAINT BARNABAS

Barnabas sacrificed himself to be instrumental in God's cultivation of His Church. Paul makes specific mention of the fact that Barnabas, who willingly impoverished himself in the interests of the Church, labored with his own hands to support himself on his missionary journeys. In Acts 4:36, Luke translates Barnabas to mean "son of encouragement" or "son of consolation." The original Greek word rendered "encouragement," paraklesis, means encouragement, consolation, comfort, exhortation and entreaty. It may be that the Apostles who gave Joseph the name Barnabas, saw all of these qualities in his character.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A man looking a bit downtrodden approached me as I filled my car's gas tank. He asked, "May I share with you my testimony about how good God is?" "OK," I skeptically answered. He went on to tell me that he had been an alcoholic and drug addict, and that God had healed him; now he was four years sober. He said, "I didn't deserve it, but now I'm a different person. God is so good! Have a terrific Tuesday!" A few minutes later, as I drove away, I saw him smiling and handing a homeless person some money. I was confronted with a choice: either he was a total fraud or God had changed him. Something had happened to him, and it didn't seem fake. Maybe it was God.

When Jesus heals the man born blind, the man becomes a challenge to everyone who meets him. They must decide. Is he the same blind person who they knew before? Who healed him and how? And what is the status of the one who can heal such infirmities? We shouldn't be surprised at the storm of doubt, hatred and animosity that swirls around the healed man — so it often goes when Jesus heals someone even to this day.

Like we often do, the religious leaders confronting the healed man declare that God is not at work. They ask with mocking superiority and dismissive disdain, "You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?" (John 9:34). And they cast him out. When Jesus clearly works in our lives, in us or around us, we should accept it, and give praise and thanks for this wonderful manifestation of his goodness.

Lenten challenge: Think of one way the Lord has healed you. Perhaps he healed a form of selfishness, a physical ailment, or something else. This week, find a person to whom you can share that testimony, and share it. Don't worry if they don't accept it was God who did it.

— Father John Muir

Two examples of this way of living come from St. Thérèse of Lisieux and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton.

ST. THÉRÈSE OF LISIEUX

When Pope St. John Paul II named St. Thérèse a Doctor of the Church, he noted, “Thérèse knew Jesus, loved him and made him loved with the passion of a bride. She penetrated the mysteries of his infancy, the words of his Gospel, the passion of the suffering Servant engraved on his holy Face, in the splendor of his glorious life, in his Eucharistic presence” (Divini Amoris Scientia, no. 8). Pope Benedict called “Jesus in the Eucharist the center of her life” (General Audience, April 6, 2011). Pope Francis further expressed that she “put first not her desire to receive Jesus in Holy Communion, but rather the desire of Jesus to unite himself to us and to dwell in our hearts” (C’est la confiance, no. 22).

ST. ELIZABETH ANN SETON

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton also lived a Eucharistic life. The Eucharist was a large factor in her conversion and a focal point in her later work, especially as teacher and foundress of the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph. As she neared the end of her life, she found particular solace in the Eucharist. Pope St. Paul VI expressed in his homily for Mother Seton’s canonization that hers was “above all an ecclesial heritage of strong faith and pure love for God and for others—faith and love that are nourished on the Eucharist and on the Word of God. Yes, brethren, and sons and daughters: the Lord is indeed wonderful in his saints. Blessed be God for ever!”

Dear Friends in Christ,

We just finished the 3rd Week of Lent!

Deeper connection with Christ

Lent is a time to be intentional in creating a deeper connection with Jesus. How have I done that this Lent? This is a good time to evaluate ourselves on the three pillars of Lent: prayer, fasting and almsgiving. These pillars serve to connect us with Christ. If you have yet to take on any practices for Lent, it is not too late to begin. A great place to start can be one of the weekly challenges I have given in every email. Take on a challenge listed below and use that to support a good cause that benefits our youth.

How can this benefit our youth?

After giving something up, take what it would have cost and offer it as a gift to the St. Barnabas Church Confirmation Program. The funds will be used to defray their retreat costs.

Our Progress

In the past week, we increased 3% toward our goal. Please consider helping us to reach this goal by the end of Lent (in 22 days)! You can do this by sharing our flyer on your social media or text it to people you know so they can see what this Lenten Challenge is all about. Thank you so much for your support and prayer for our students. Let us be intentional in developing a deeper connection with Christ this Lent. God bless!

GOAL: $2,000

CHALLENGE OF THE WEEK:

Re-think Daily Purchase!

Before making every purchase this week, evaluate if you truly "need" the item/service you are paying for. Can you live without it for just this one time? One time this week, make a gift of the amount equivalent to that one item or service.

Donate: <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/CA794/44212>

●ONLINE FAITH DIRECT

DONATE ONLINE OR VIA TEXT

This is a time of year when many of us focus on getting organized and “decluttering” our surroundings – why not streamline your offertory and simplify your support for the ministries that mean so much to you? Now is a great time to stop using checks and envelopes, by switching to eGiving – you can sign up from your computer, smartphone or tablet, and set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift.

We prayerfully request that you consider signing up for e-Giving from your computer, smartphone or tablet. You can set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift. Thanks for your continued support!

Sign up today by visiting faith.direct/CA794 or call their Customer Service team at 866-507-8757.

Those who are enrolled through Faith Direct, will receive your Contribution Report directly in the mail, as our Parish Office does not have access to your accounts.

If you have any questions regarding your Faith Direct account, please E-mail to: clientcare@faithdirect.net or call Customer Service at: 866-507-8757.

ALL ARE INVITED TO SEE "THE LAST SUPPER" IN THEATERS NOW DURING THIS LENTEN SEASON

Executive Producer Chris Tomlin and the creators of THE CASE FOR CHRIST and GOD'S NOT DEAD, invite the community of faith of the Archdiocese to see their latest film THE LAST SUPPER, a powerful and reverent cinematic celebration of the ultimate act of divine love and sacrifice, as experienced by those who walked beside Jesus Christ. This sacred story reveals untold perspectives, illuminating the profound Biblical truths behind the moments that shaped salvation history. Through a deeply intimate lens, the film invites audiences to behold a moving testament of redemption, grace, and the eternal promise of hope.
