SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus tells us that he has come to set fire to the earth. What can we give him as kindling?
Let us look into our souls and see where the fire of Christ can be ignited, and pray that our souls may be consumed by its life-giving flames.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

During my baseball career, my best coach often said, "You shouldn't be worried if I yell at you. Be worried if I don't. If I stop pushing you, it means I don't think you have any more potential." He demanded a lot, and I knew it meant he saw that I could be something special on the baseball field.

Jesus says some demanding words to us this week.

"Do you think I have come to establish peace on the earth?" he asks, "No, tell you, but rather division" (Luke 12:51). He wants you and me—in fact, all the earth—to participate in the luminous glory of God. That's why he speaks of himself as a divine arsonist. Divine fire is like a good coach: it demands the removal of all that obstructs the achievement of the lofty goal.

How is your life demanding right now? That inconvenient family situation, the unfair boss at work, the kids who reject their parents' wishes, the nagging health issue? Maybe things would be more peaceful devoid of these seemingly arbitrary difficulties. But for us who believe in the one who comes to set the earth of fire, we should be much more worried if he stops demanding so much from us. In fact, let's thank him for it. He sees how glorious we can become.

— Father John Muir

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why do we have a feast for the Queenship of Mary?

Answer:

For many of us, the language of kings and queens may seem like they belong to history or a medieval movie. Royalty have absolute authority over a kingdom and their subjects, a concept that is foreign to many of us today. While Jesus doesn't rule a political kingdom, we honor and recognize him as the King of Kings, Lord of Heaven and Earth. To God alone belongs absolute authority over all of existence.

We may think of queens as the spouse of the king, but there is another key relationship: the king's mother. In Biblical history, we see instances where the mother of the king is given due as a queen herself, complete with a throne! Mary's guiding influence over her Son is seen most notably in the Wedding Feast at Cana. Mary is not Queen on her own merit. She is "full of grace" and "blessed" in "all ages" because of the reign of her Son.

LET'S WELCOME, SR. HANG LE!

My name is Sr. Hang Le, and I am a member of the Lovers of the Holy Cross Congregation. Since 2004, I have been blessed to serve children and youth, particularly through the Confirmation Program. This journey has been a profound experience of faith, and I consider it a true gift from God to walk alongside young people as they encounter Christ and grow in their Catholic identity.

My vocation is a beautiful and mysterious call—one that continues to unfold through daily service, prayer, and surrender to God's will. Through the charism of our founder, Bishop Lambert de la Motte, I have embraced a spirituality centered on the Cross and a deep love for the Church. His vision continues to guide and inspire my commitment to the mission of evangelization, especially among the youth.

I'm excited to begin this new chapter of my ministry here at St. Barnabas Parish. I look forward to walking alongside the youth and their families, supporting them in their faith, and growing together as a community rooted in Christ's love.

Please keep me in your prayers as I begin this new ministry, and know that I am lifting you all up in mine.

"Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity." — 1 Timothy 4:12

In Christ,
Sr. Hang Le, LHC-Confirmation Coordinator
