SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Devotions, Explained!

Imago divina (Latin for "divine image") is an extension of the ancient practice of lectio divina (literally, "divine lesson"). Imago divina is, in a sense, praying with one's eyes, using the medium of artwork to assist in lifting the mind to God.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Once I was invited to a group meeting with Pope Francis. Entering the room, I paused, eyeing the seats next to the Pope's fancy chair. Someone saw my paralysis and invited me to sit in the seat farthest from what I wanted. Hiding my disappointment, I sat. We waited. To our surprise, an aid pointed out that those seats were still empty and invited me and another to have them. We calmly but gleefully strode across the room and sat. Pope Francis entered, and we enjoyed two hours of amazingly uplifting conversation.

Jesus says this week to us: "When you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table" (Luke 14:10). This is not about how to score free seat upgrades. Rather, it is a wise pattern for the whole of life. It is how to live free from the anxiety of constantly grasping for status and recognition.

Jesus perfectly embodies his seat-taking advice. He eschews his glorious throne for the lowest: death on a cross, that lonely chair we all deserve. In his resurrection, he calls us up higher to his marvelous banquet seats. This week, perhaps we should look for opportunities to choose the lowest seat. We'll be pleasantly surprised when we do.

— Father John Muir

LET'S WELCOME, SR. HANG LE!

My name is Sr. Hang Le, and I am a member of the Lovers of the Holy Cross Congregation. Since 2004, I have been blessed to serve children and youth, particularly through the Confirmation Program. This journey has been a profound experience of faith, and I consider it a true gift from God to walk alongside young people as they encounter Christ and grow in their Catholic identity.

My vocation is a beautiful and mysterious call—one that continues to unfold through daily service, prayer, and surrender to God's will. Through the charism of our founder, Bishop Lambert de la Motte, I have embraced a spirituality centered on the Cross and a deep love for the Church. His vision continues to guide and inspire my commitment to the mission of evangelization, especially among the youth.

I'm excited to begin this new chapter of my ministry here at St. Barnabas Parish. I look forward to walking alongside the youth and their families, supporting them in their faith, and growing together as a community rooted in Christ's love.

Please keep me in your prayers as I begin this new ministry, and know that I am lifting you all up in mine.

"Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity." — 1 Timothy 4:12

In Christ,
Sr. Hang Le, LHC-Confirmation Coordinator
