SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Today, Jesus tells us the cost of true discipleship — and it turns out, it's everything.
We must reject the world in order to love
God. What attachments are holding us back from the relationship we could have — we should have — with our Lord?

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

One hot Arizona summer afternoon my car ran out of gas. I phoned the parish office and begged for help. My secretary came and helped me fill the gas tank. She chided me, "If you can't manage getting your car from A to B, how can we expect you to guide the parish where it needs to go?" Point taken, Julie. I vowed to always make sure I have plenty of gas in my car.

The Lord Jesus chides us in this week's Gospel, too. He uses the two images of a man building a tower and a king marching soldiers into war to make this single point: acquire what is needed to follow him or look ridiculous. We rightly mock the builder who lacks money for his tower and the king with a short-handed army. But our mocking boomerangs back on us. How do we expect to follow Jesus to the end with insufficient detachment from our possessions and divided hearts?

The good news is, there is still time. Jesus is building a great tower to heaven-his own body. So we renounce all and give ourselves to him as his precious stones. Jesus is waging a battle against our enemy. So we forsake all and swear allegiance and march under his banner. In this way, we will finish what has begun in our discipleship. Or better put, our Lord will have the stones and soldiers required to see his great work through.

— Father John Muir

ST. MICHAEL MINISTRY

In light of the recent tragic shooting in Minneapolis and with our continued commitment to safeguarding our parish family, we are re-starting the St. Michael Ministry. This ministry is dedicated to ensuring the safety and protection of all who gather here for worship. We are looking for parishioners who have experience or background in security, law enforcement, or related fields to prayerfully consider joining this important ministry.

Your skills and vigilance can help us maintain a safe and welcoming environment for everyone at Mass. If you feel called to serve in this way, please speak to Father Antony or Sam after Mass or contact our Parish Office.

Together, let us entrust this ministry to the protection of Saint Michael the Archangel, asking for his intercession as we work to keep our community safe.
