"It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground,
is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth.
But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the

HAPPY
DAY

Let us praise those fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice. Let us praise those fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a worthy and virtuous father.

Let us praise those fathers who, by their own account, were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support. As well, let us pray for those fathers who have been wounded by words and actions of their children.

Let us praise those fathers who, despite marital discord, have remained in their children's lives.

Let us praise those fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has nurtured a thriving life. Let us praise those fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their step children's love and respect.

Let us praise those fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart. Let us praise those men who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own.

Let us praise those men who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides. Let us praise those men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children.

And let us praise those fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.

- Prayer of Kirk Loadman adapted by Debra Mooney, PhD

Join us this weekend as we celebrate Father's Day. All Fathers will receive a special blessing and a cross pin at each Mass. Stop by the patio after Mass to take a Father's Day photo in our photo area. Be sure to tag us! #olaclaremont

In honor of the importance of all Fathers as life's "Trailblazers", please stop by the Auditorium to get a bag of trail mix sponsored by OLA for Life after all Sunday Masses.

This Summer

This past Monday, renovations began on the Bonita School Building and Junior Kindergarten room. The classrooms and School Office will be painted and have new flooring, ceiling fans, cabinets, rugs, blinds and upgraded lighting. Old chalkboards, hidden behind whiteboards, will be replaced with new magnetic whiteboards. Televisions and technology will be mounted on the walls.

Storage bins have been brought in for the desks, chairs and other items that need to be stored. This work is projected to take the duration of summer break. We thank you for your patience as we work on updating the classrooms into wonderful new spaces for our school children.

The parking lot gate on Bonita has also been upgraded to an electric gate, allowing us to program it to open and close at specific times as needed for school and church activities.

Happy Ordination Anniversary!

This month, we celebrate the Ordination Anniversaries of Fr. Matthew Cumberland ('92), Dn. Bob Steighner ('06), Dn. Rudy Leyva ('07) and Dn. Joe Domond ('15). May the Lord continue to bless them in their ministries.

Congratulations, Class of 2024!

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT FOR CATHOLICS TO BE MARRIED IN THE CHURCH?

"The sacrament of Matrimony signifies the union of Christ and the Church. It gives spouses the grace to love each other with the love with which Christ has loved his Church; the grace of the sacrament thus perfects the human love of the spouses, strengthens their indissoluble unity, and sanctifies them on the way to eternal life. Catechism of the Catholic Church 1661

We often meet with couples preparing for marriage who have decided to get married at OLA. When we ask why, some say, "it's a tradition", or "it's important to our parents". Others say, "We want to do it right!". Another couple tells us, "We want to celebrate the Sacrament of Matrimony together!"

For Catholics, the reason for getting married in the Church goes back to when they first became Catholic, for most at Baptism. At the Sacrament of Baptism, we become members of the church, and as members are obligated to follow the form, or laws, of the church. The church knows that marriage isn't easy and provides a sacrament for the help and graces that all couples need. "Doing it "right" means celebrating marriage as a sacrament, making their commitment to each other before God, in the church, witnessed by a priest or deacon and with the community of family and friends as witnesses.

In the sacrament of marriage, a couple is called to be an image of the living God to their family and the rest of the world. Let's say it again, this isn't easy! Every couple needs help! Fortunately, with God as our partner, we are not alone. God's grace provides couples with love, courage and strength, in both good and especially in difficult times. The witness of family and friends to the sacred promise we call a covenant, brings with their witness, their prayers and their support. Without the sacrament a couple is missing those very important graces.

What if we get married somewhere else?

As baptized Catholics, church members are obligated to celebrate the Sacrament of Matrimony when they marry. Marriages outside the church are not a sacrament and are not viewed as valid within the church.

Living together outside of a Catholic marriage, sometimes called "living in sin", makes a Catholic ineligible to celebrate the sacraments, including receiving the Eucharist. Those living together or married outside the church separate themselves from the sacraments that provide us with the graces that are so important to living the Catholic Christian life.

What can we do if we want to be married in the church?

Call the church office at (909) 626-3596 and leave a message for Deacon Bob & Kathy Steighner. Whether you are marrying for the first time or are civilly married, we will answer your questions, help you make the first steps and determine your best path to the Sacrament of Matrimony.

First Reading

During their captivity and exile in Babylon, God assured the Israelites He would restore them into a mighty majestic cedar tree. How do you find comfort in times of despair? (Ez 17:22-24)

Second Reading

Paul teaches the Corinthians to aspire to please the Lord, no matter your present circumstances. What could you do this week at home or at work to please the Lord? (2 Cor 5:6-10)

Gospel Reading

We hear how Jesus often spoke in parables about the kingdom of God, stretching people's thinking and imaginations. Where do you see the kingdom of God at work? (Mk 4:26-34)

Faith can start small, Jesus tells us — as small as the tiniest seed on earth. But it's up to us to surround that seed with good, nutritious soil, to nourish it with sunlight and water, and to tend to it lovingly so that it will grow.

Archdiocese of Los Angeles - Did you know?

June 15-16 || What most abuse cases have in common

Child sexual abuse happens under varied circumstances, and to victims of all ages. But many cases have two things in common: vulnerability and opportunity. Vulnerability can come in the form of physical weakness in comparison to an abuser, or a power imbalance in a relationship. Abusers often target vulnerable victims through grooming, making them accustomed to increasingly inappropriate behaviors. From there, abusers will take available opportunities — sleepovers, babysitting, chaotic events like parties or festivals — to make their move. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Learning from True Stories of Victims/Survivors" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

¿POR QUÉ ES IMPORTANTE QUE LOS CATÓLICOS SE CASEN POR LA IGLESIA?

El sacramento del Matrimonio significa la unión de Cristo y la Iglesia. Le da a los esposos la gracia de amarse con el amor en que Cristo ha amado a su Iglesia; la gracia del sacramento perfecciona así el amor humano de los esposos, fortalece su unidad indisoluble y los santifica en el camino de la vida eterna. (CCC 1661)

A menudo nos reunimos con parejas que se preparan para casarse y que han decidido casarse en OLA. Cuando preguntamos por qué, algunos dicen: "es una tradición" o "es importante para nuestros padres". Otros dicen: "¡Queremos hacerlo bien!". Otra pareja nos dice: "¡Queremos celebrar juntos el Sacramento del Matrimonio!"

Para los católicos, la razón para casarse por la Iglesia se remonta a cuando se hicieron católicos por primera vez, para la mayoría en el bautismo. En el Sacramento del Bautismo nos convertimos en miembros de la iglesia y, como miembros, estamos obligados a seguir la forma o las leyes de la iglesia. La iglesia sabe que el matrimonio no es fácil y proporciona un sacramento para la ayuda y la gracia que todas las parejas necesitan. "Hacerlo "bien" significa celebrar el matrimonio como sacramento, comprometiéndose mutuamente ante Dios, en la iglesia, atestiguado por un sacerdote o diácono y con la comunidad de familiares y amigos como testigos.

En el sacramento del matrimonio una pareja está llamada a ser imagen del Dios vivo para su familia y el resto del mundo. Digámoslo de nuevo: ¡esto no es fácil! ¡Toda pareja necesita ayuda! Afortunadamente, con Dios como nuestro socio, no estamos solos. La gracia de Dios proporciona a las parejas amor, coraje y fuerza, tanto en los momentos buenos como especialmente en los difíciles. El testimonio de familiares y amigos de la promesa sagrada que llamamos pacto trae consigo su testimonio, sus oraciones y su apoyo. Sin el sacramento una pareja se pierde esas gracias tan importantes.

¿Y si nos casamos en otro lugar?

Como católicos bautizados, los miembros de la iglesia están obligados a celebrar el Sacramento del Matrimonio cuando se casan. Los matrimonios fuera de la iglesia no son un sacramento y no se consideran válidos dentro de la iglesia.

Vivir juntos fuera de un matrimonio católico, a veces llamado "vivir en pecado", hace que un católico no sea elegible para celebrar los sacramentos, incluida la recepción de la Eucaristía. Quienes viven juntos o están casados fuera de la iglesia se separan de los sacramentos que nos brindan las gracias que son tan importantes para vivir la vida cristiana católica.

¿Qué podemos hacer si queremos casarnos por la iglesia?

Llame a la oficina de la iglesia al (909) 626-3596 y deje un mensaje para el diácono Bob y Kathy Steighner. Le ayudaremos, ya sea que se case por primera vez o esté casado por lo civil, responderemos sus preguntas y a dar los primeros pasos y determinar su mejor camino hacia el Sacramento del Matrimonio.
