CHALLENGE

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle A – Jesus teaches that we must forgive one another as God has forgiven us.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel reading directly follows last week's Gospel in which Jesus taught the disciples how to handle disputes and conflict within the Christian community. In today's reading Peter asks Jesus how many times one ought to extend forgiveness to another. Peter proposes a reasonable number of times, perhaps seven. Jesus replies by extending Peter's proposal by an enormous amount; not just seven times should one forgive, but 77 times. The parable of the unforgiving servant is Jesus' elaboration of his initial reply to Peter. Through the parable we come to understand the depths of God's mercy toward us and the results of our acceptance of God's forgiveness.

The king in the parable decides to settle accounts with his servants. We are told that one servant in particular owes the king an enormous sum of money. Despite the promise of the servant, it is unlikely that he would ever be able to repay the debt that he owes. The king is moved by the humility of the pleading servant and mercifully forgives the debt. Rather than displaying gratitude for this forgiveness, the servant confronts a fellow servant who owes him a small debt—a pittance when compared with the amount that was owed to the king. The unmerciful servant refuses the pleas of his fellow servant and sends the servant to prison.

A few other servants tell the merciful king about the actions of the unforgiving servant. The king punishes the servant because he refused to show the kind of mercy, he had himself received from the king. Jesus concludes by indicating that this is how it will be with God and those who refuse to forgive one another.

There is a temptation to quantify forgiveness as Peter tried to do, but Jesus' point is that forgiveness is not about quantity the number of times we extend forgiveness to another. In the parable the king's forgiveness is like God's forgiveness, and it transforms us, helping us to be as forgiving as God. The lesson is clear: If we hoard God's mercy while showing no mercy to others, we risk forfeiting the effects of God's mercy in our lives. Matthew 18:21-35

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

DID YOU KNOW?

Why do children not disclose abuse?

Child abuse victims are often scared and anxious to tell a trusted adult about the abuse they have suffered. These fears prevent a majority of victims from telling their parents, teachers, or other trusted adults about abuse, which, sadly, perpetuates the cycle. Victims may be afraid that they will get in trouble, or will not be believed, or will be ashamed or criticized. For information on how to overcome or counteract these fears, read the VIRTUS® article "Barriers Minors Face to Disclosing Child Sexual Abuse" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Una nota de:

La Arquidiócesis de Los Angeles

PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS

¿SABE USTED?

¿Por qué los niños no revelan el abuso?

Las víctimas de abuso a menudo tienen miedo y están ansiosas por contarle a un adulto de confianza sobre el abuso que han sufrido. Estos temores impiden que la mayoría de las víctimas le cuenten a sus padres, a sus profesores o a otros adultos de confianza sobre el abuso, lo que, lamentablemente, perpetúa el ciclo. Las víctimas pueden temer involucrarse en problemas, que no les crean, que los avergüencen o que les critiquen. Para obtener información sobre cómo superar o contrarrestar estos miedos, lea el artículo en inglés de VIRTUS® "Barriers Minors Face to Disclosing Child Sexual Abuse" (Barreras que enfrentan los menores para revelar el abuso sexual infantil) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
