THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER - YEAR B

GOSPEL – LUKE 24:35-48

“REPENTANCE AND FORGIVENESS”

Today's readings encourage us to truly believe in the resurrection of Jesus Christ and to accept his love.

Historical evidence shows that the disciples ultimately came to believe wholeheartedly in the Resurrection. They were transformed from fearful and doubtful followers to steadfast witnesses who were willing to sacrifice everything, even their lives, for their faith.

The disciples' transformation reminds us that doubts and uncertainties are natural, and that it takes time to grasp the profound truths of our faith. Just as Jesus patiently walked with the disciples, we can find comfort in prayer, seeking guidance from trusted spiritual mentors, and turning to the Sacraments to deepen our understanding and strengthen our relationship with our risen Lord.

In thinking about how Jesus is physically present with us today, we recognize His presence through the Eucharist and Sacraments. The Eucharist, in particular, holds deep significance as it allows us to partake in the body and blood of Christ. Through these sacramental encounters, Jesus continues to be physically present in our lives, offering us comfort, guidance, and the strength to overcome our fears.

Reflection:

Reflecting on the disciples' initial fear, what are some fears or doubts that you have encountered in your own faith journey? How do you think encountering the risen Jesus could alleviate those fears?
