Pastor's Message

"Over the next few weeks, the bulletin will present portions of a Pastoral Letter written by Fr. Earthman, entitled O Sacrum Convivium / O Sacred Banquet."

31. During the history of the Church, Christians longed to look upon the Lord with their own eyes, particularly during one of the elevations during the Mass. These elevations were introduced into the Mass only as late as the 13th Century, when bishops asked the priest to lift up the Sacred Host after the Words of Institution so that the Faithful could look upon the Lord in the Sacrament during the Eucharistic Prayer. Some late medieval accounts describe the piety of the faithful desiring to view the Consecrated Host as "going to see my Maker." Indeed, the practice of ringing bells during these elevations began as a reminder to the Faithful that the Lord is Present and that they are invited to "look upon the one whom they have pierced" (Cf. Jn 19:37).

32. Paradoxically, as reception of Holy Communion by the Faithful at Mass dwindled in the late Middle Ages, Eucharistic devotions increased. This led to a kind of an "extension" of the elevation of the Sacred Host at Mass, whereby our Eucharistic Lord was placed inside a large, circular metal container with a window whereby the Faithful could view the Eucharist for longer periods of time. This large, round container is called a monstrance, deriving from the Latin verb monstrare, meaning broadly "to show in order that others might see." Thus, our large, round metal monstrance is the principal way in which our Eucharistic Lord is shown to us that we might not only see, but believe that he is Truly, Really, Sacramentally Present in the Eucharist (Cf. Jn 20:29).

33. When we adore our Eucharistic Lord, we "should remember that this presence derives from the Sacrifice [of the Mass] and tends toward sacramental and spiritual communion." Indeed, as we adore our Lord, we should offer prayers of thanksgiving, praise, and adoration. We should pray for our family, our parish, and our world. It is also praiseworthy that we read from the Bible and are fed by the Word of God as we adore the Word of God, now present in the Sacrament of the Eucharist.

34. Indeed, in order to make better distinctions about the kind of prayer we are doing in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, we need to define two terms: (1) adoration and (2) exposition.

35. Adoration is defined in the Catechism of the Catholic Church as "the first act of the virtue of religion. To adore God is to acknowledge him as God, as the Creator and Savior, the Lord and Master of everything that exists, as infinite and merciful Love. 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve,' says Jesus, citing Deuteronomy." When we adore God, we are acknowledging him as our Lord, recognizing his omnipotent divinity in the face of our own limited humanity. We can make acts of adoration apart from visits to the Blessed Sacrament (as in times of private prayer). However, when we are in the presence of the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament – solemnly reserved in the tabernacle – we can also adore the sacred Body of our Eucharistic Lord, who is Sacramentally present in our midst. This is adoration.

Mensaje del Párroco

"En las próximas semanas, el boletín presentará fragmentos de una Carta Pastoral escrita por el P. Earthman, titulada O Sacrum Convivium / Oh Sagrado Banquete".

31. Durante la historia de la Iglesia, los cristianos anhelaban mirar al Señor con sus propios ojos, especialmente durante una de las elevaciones durante la Misa. Estas elevaciones se introdujeron en la Misa solo en el siglo XIII, cuando los obispos pidieron al sacerdote que levantara la Sagrada Hostia después de las Palabras de Institución para que los fieles pudieran mirar al Señor en el Sacramento durante la Plegaria Eucarística. Algunos relatos medievales tardíos describen la piedad de los fieles que deseaban ver la Hostia Consagrada como "ir a ver a mi Hacedor". De hecho, la práctica de tocar las campanas durante estas elevaciones comenzó como un recordatorio a los fieles de que el Señor está presente y que están invitados a «mirar a aquel a quien traspasaron» (cf. Jn 19, 37).

32. Paradójicamente, a medida que disminuía la recepción de la sagrada Comunión por parte de los fieles en la Misa a finales de la Edad Media, aumentaban las devociones eucarísticas. Esto llevó a una especie de "extensión" de la elevación de la Sagrada Hostia en la Misa, por la cual nuestro Señor Eucarístico fue colocado dentro de un gran recipiente metálico circular con una ventana por la cual los fieles podían ver la Eucaristía durante períodos de tiempo más largos. Este recipiente grande y redondo se llama custodia, que deriva del verbo latino monstrare, que significa en términos generales "mostrar para que otros puedan ver". Por lo tanto, nuestra gran custodia redonda de metal es la forma principal en que nuestro Señor Eucarístico se nos muestra para que no solo podamos ver, sino creer que Él está Verdadera, Real y Sacramentalmente Presente en la Eucaristía (Cf. Jn 20:29).

33. Cuando adoramos a nuestro Señor Eucarístico, "debemos recordar que esta presencia deriva del Sacrificio [de la Misa] y tiende a la comunión sacramental y espiritual". De hecho, al adorar a nuestro Señor, debemos ofrecer oraciones de acción de gracias, alabanza y adoración. Debemos orar por nuestra familia, nuestra parroquia y nuestro mundo. También es loable que leamos la Biblia y nos alimentemos de la Palabra de Dios mientras adoramos la Palabra de Dios, ahora presente en el Sacramento de la Eucaristía.

34. En efecto, para hacer mejores distinciones sobre el tipo de oración que hacemos en presencia del Santísimo Sacramento, es necesario definir dos términos: (1) adoración y (2) exposición.

35. La adoración es definida en el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica como "el primer acto de la virtud de la religión. Adorar a Dios es reconocerlo como Dios, como Creador y Salvador, Señor y Amo de todo lo que existe, como Amor infinito y misericordioso. 'Adorarás al Señor tu Dios, y a Él solo servirás', dice Jesús, citando el Deuteronomio. Cuando adoramos a Dios, lo estamos reconociendo como nuestro Señor, reconociendo su divinidad omnipotente frente a nuestra propia humanidad limitada. Podemos hacer actos de adoración aparte de las visitas al Santísimo Sacramento (como en los momentos de oración privada). Sin embargo, cuando estamos en la presencia del Señor en el Santísimo Sacramento, solemnemente reservado en el tabernáculo, también podemos adorar el sagrado Cuerpo de nuestro Señor Eucarístico, que está sacramentalmente presente en medio de nosotros. Esto es adoración.

American Heritage Girls

We are a ministry for girls that provides an alternative to traditional scouting programs. We are open to girls age 5-18. Girls earn badges, go camping, participate in service projects, learn servant leadership and have lots of fun all within a Christian framework. Email ahgtx1283@gmail.com for specific location at SEAS or for more information. Visit our website at: www.americanheritagegirls.org.

Homebound Ministry

BAKING VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

SEAS Homebound Communion Ministry is in need of a few more volunteers to bake goodies for their recipients. The communion ministers make their visits every Sunday after the 8:30 a.m. Mass to deliver the Holy Eucharist and a plate of goodies. For details and to be placed on a schedule, please contact Aurelia "Aulie" Johnson at 281-855-8831 or email auljer@att.net with your name, address and phone number.

Gabriel Project

Our mission is to assist women experiencing crisis pregnancies through spiritual and emotional support, practical advice and help with items for new baby. Expectant mothers in difficult circumstances should call the Pro Life Gabriel Project number: 713-225-5826. Since April 2019, we have assisted over 160 mothers. Our volunteers are only able to help because of your commitment to life and in-kind or monetary donations. Please consider making a donation and/or volunteering to help us in this life changing apostolate.

English Men's ACTS Retreat

Adoration/Community/Theology/Service

A retreat is a great way to recharge your soul, to meet other amazing people, and to become more involved in the SEAS parish community. The retreat will be held at the Mother of Perpetual Help Retreat Center in Houston. A registration fee or deposit is required to hold your spot. The retreat will be held on February 6th-9th 2025.

You can register for the retreat on the parish website under Ministries/ACTS.

For more information contact: English Men's Director Duane Grooms 832-752-2433 or duaneoutdoors@yahoo.com

Helping Hands Ministry

We assist families in pre-planning for funerals. To schedule an appointment, please call Beth Wood at 281-413-9682. Bereavement support in the form of printed care notes specific to a family's need is provided at the time of a Funeral or Memorial Mass.

Knights of Columbus Council 8096

As a Knight, you have the opportunity to support your parish, give back to your community, grow in your faith plus many more benefits. We meet on the first and second Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m.

- Grand Knight: Jorge Nevares (nevaresj@gmail.com)

For more information email us at : mothersetoncooptx@gmail.com or visit our website:

www.mothersetoncooptx.com

To apply please fill our intake form using the QR code

K of C and Ladies Auxiliary Scholarship

SEAS Knights of Columbus and SEAS Ladies Auxiliary are again offering Scholarships to our Parish's graduating high school seniors. Applications are available in the Church office beginning January 15th. Applications can also be downloaded on our website, KofC8096.org.

If you are a graduating high school senior pursuing a full time, post-secondary education at a University, Community College or Technical School, you are eligible to apply.

Application Deadline is April 15, 2025. Please refer to the application for further details.

Trail Life for Boys

Boys from Kindergarten through 12th grade are engaged in a Troop setting by male mentors where they are challenged to grow in character, understand their purpose, serve their community, and develop practical leadership skills to carry out the mission for which they were created.

For more information e-mail: TLUSASEAS@gmail.com.

Boy Scouts

Troop 1283 is welcoming boys aged 11 to 18 into our scouting family. Scouts gain valuable skills in leadership, self-confidence, citizenship, ethical and moral decision-making, as well as first aid and survival skills, all while embracing our duty to God. We invite you to come visit us at the scout house located at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton every Tuesday at 7:00 p.m.

Choir

Join Our Sunday Choirs

We inviting new and experienced choral singers to audition for our choirs. Whether you are new to choir or are a seasoned singer looking for a challenge there is a choir for you.

Rehearsal is once a week on Wednesdays at 7 p.m.

The specific time commitment will be most Sundays of the year and occasional holy days. If you are interested in auditioning please contact Christian Mondragon, Organist & Director of Music, at cmondragon@seascatholic.org

Parish School

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic School strives to form each student spiritually, intellectually, and physically as a lifelong disciple of Christ. In partnership with each family, we seek to form students who recognize and appreciate Truth, Goodness, and Beauty in all of God's creation and every area of human endeavor. Our challenging and creative Classical Catholic curriculum cultivates students who will discover and develop their full potential for the glory of God and the good of others. In harmony with the teachings and traditions of the Church, our students will answer the call to virtue and sainthood.

Seminarian Update

Thomas Vu, who was on Pastoral Year here at SEAS – and now claims our parish as his “Home Parish” – returned to St. Mary’s Seminary and became a Candidate for Holy Orders at a Mass celebrated by Cardinal DiNardo on August 8, 2024. God willing, he will be ordained a Deacon in the Spring of 2025.

Mateo Hernandez, also from SEAS, begins his formation this summer as a seminarian for the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. He will study at Holy Trinity Seminary in Dallas.

Francisco Maldonado, who is from SEAS, is a seminarian for the Diocese of Jackson, Mississippi. He currently studies at St. Joseph Seminary in St. Benedict, Louisiana.

Please remember our archdiocesan seminarians in your daily prayers, as well as all those who are discerning God's call in their lives.
