ADVENT

"PREPARE YE THE WAY OF THE LORD." Mk 1:3

Cover design ©Liturgical Publications Inc. Photographer, Sheryl Kasper, bigstockphoto.com

Adults: In today's Gospel, we hear St. John the Baptist proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. Who are the prophets who speak truth to you in your life?

Children: Today, we hear about people going out to meet John the Baptist who was telling the people to prepare the way of the Lord (John is the prophet who says, "One mightier than I is coming after me"). This Advent, are there things that you can do to bring Christ's light and hope to others?

True freedom in Christ

We like to think we are totally free, but the bitter truth is we simply are not. Better put, our freedom is limited on every side — by governments, corporate giants, physical and mental frailties, genetic shortcomings, and even the boundaries of time and space, and above all, the burden of our sins and pending deaths. In our day, we are perhaps particularly aware that we are not free to disconnect from the technocratic rulers of the air. If you doubt me, try not paying your internet bill and see what happens. We are not totally free.

It's nothing new, of course. In Jesus' day, everyone felt the crushing weight of the Roman Empire. You can say you're free all you want, but try not paying your taxes to Rome and see what happens.

Once we feel this burden in our own lives — however it comes — we are ready to hear the stunning announcement that commences Mark's gospel, "The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God." It's not a simple perfunctory introduction, but a dramatic announcement of new freedom. The word "gospel" was a political, even military, term. It meant: a great victory has been won, and a new king is in charge. This Jesus — not the Roman emperor — is God's son, and He has defeated all that crushes human freedom. It's time to follow Him and be truly free. This week, let's refuse to submit our freedom to false rulers — especially that of sin, and let's rejoice that Christ is coming to make us perfectly free from all our oppressors. Fr. John Muir ©LPi

Gratitude for St. Joan Arc Parish

I am writing to you today on behalf of the remarkable community of St. Joan of Arc Parish to express our deepest gratitude for your extraordinary support and generosity during this past Thanksgiving. With heartfelt humility and appreciation, I thank the dedicated members of your parish, particularly the Vincentians from St. Joan of Arc Parish and their devoted families and volunteers.

Their unwavering commitment to aiding those in need has profoundly impacted the lives of our neighbors who rely on the services of the St. Vincent de Paul Free Dining Room.

This year, a sudden setback in our Thanksgiving meal preparations left us on the brink of canceling the event that would benefit 150 homeless and low-income families. However, the compassionate response from the parishioners and Vincentians of the St. Joan of Arc Parish saved the day. We reached out to Frank Wnuk and your Vincentians and were met with an outpouring of support. Their willingness to step up, organize the food menu, and preparations ensured the continuation of the Thanksgiving tradition at the St. Vincent de Paul Free Dining Room.

Once again, from the depths of my heart, I express my gratitude, and on behalf of our neighbors in need who were served—thank you for being an extended family to them. May your kindness and compassion continue to shine as a beacon of hope in our community.

With warmest wishes and heartfelt gratitude,

Stephen Krank

Volunteers Needed for Loaves and Fishes

St. Joan of Arc is looking for a few volunteers to assist with the pick-up of donated food from the generous vendors at the Danville Farmers Market.

The time commitment is approximately 2½ hours on a Saturday once every 5-7 weeks. We pick up donations once at the Danville Farmers Market and deliver to the Loaves and Fishes kitchen in Pittsburg.

For more information, please call George and Colleen Homolka at 925-548-6271.

This is a great way for a busy family to participate in a worthwhile ministry. Thank you for your consideration.

Pray for the recently baptized

We recently welcomed to our parish community the newly baptized:

Mia Skye Icasiano Nikolai Frans Kuznetsov
Raphael Julian Gaitan Magana

We ask that you pray for Mia, Nikolai and Raphael, their parents, and godparents as they continue their faith journey.

Thank you for another successful Red Cross/Knights of C Blood Drive

The Knights of Columbus thank you for another successful blood drive! During this drive, we had 32 appointments, plus seven walk-ins. Of those we saw, 9% were first-time donors. Most importantly, we collected 28 units, which exceeded our goal of 24, or 117% of our targeted goal. The 28 units will help up to 84 individuals! Thank you again for your ongoing support and generous response.

~Knights of Columbus Council #9206

ADVENT: Rethinking the Season

Advent is unlike other seasons: it is not about itself,; instead, it is about preparing for another season: Christmas. In this audio presentation, we will hear stories and Old Testament readings to explain the “pre-season” of Advent.

ADVENT THROUGH THE CENTURIES

This half-hour message describes the history of the Catholic Church’s observance of Advent in both its liturgical and cultural forms ... and how they have emerged and developed over the centuries.

Fun, Friendship and Faith at the Woman’s Christmas Brunch & Boutique

Over 60 joy-filled women from our parish community brought in the Advent season with Fun, Friendship and Faith this past weekend.

The Christmas Brunch & Boutique began with Mass where Sandy Nelson, Donalda De Melo, Kathy Gyulai and Lisa Roberts served as liturgical ministers and everyone received a healing anointing from Father Johnson.

Liz Mooring and Janet Williams led a planning team consisting of Alicia Garces, Victoria Garcia, Mary Law, Joanne Masino, Rosemarie, Anna Sondkar and Cindy Toby.

Michelle Lambert played violin beautifully and led us singing Christmas carols (with much encouragement from Lourdes Ylagan).

Helen Dunkel led the ladies in a Christmas conga line!

Dominique Mintz was on-hand to capture the day by taking photos.

Every woman there brought delicious food for the Brunch.

The day ended with a 50/50 raffle that raised money for the parish and delighted everyone when Gracie Neves won!

Revelation

The Kingdom Yet to Come

Our Winter Bible Study: Revelation

During our recent studies about the Eucharist, the Book of Revelation has been referenced so often that we decided we need to delve into this fascinating and misunderstood book of the Bible.

Perhaps no book of the Bible fascinates people more than Revelation. Yet relatively few people have studied it, especially from a Catholic perspective. Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come is an intriguing eleven-session study program that shows how the kingdom established by Christ in His Church is intimately connected with the Kingdom of Heaven. In this study, we will pull back the veil on the rich symbolism present in Revelation, discover what the mysterious figures and images of Revelation mean, see how Revelation is more than an apocalyptic vision of the “end times” and explore the Church’s teaching on the second coming of Christ and the Last Judgment. Understand how God, the Divine Bridegroom, and the Church, his spotless bride, enter into a heavenly, holy, and mystical marriage every time we celebrate Mass.

Our Revelation study will begin on Thursday, January 11 and will run through Wednesday, March 27. You can always order a workbook on your own at the link above; but, if you'd like Rosemarie to order one for you (to save tax and shipping), please be sure to let her know by Wednesday, December 13: RMckenney@sjasr.org.
