Ministry CORNER

April 21th

Easter season is still here! Alleluia! Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

I can't help but think and then ask what can we do to help someone who is in need as a regular part of our lives? What can we do as members of the parish on a regular basis? Is there a cause we can start or continue? There are so many needs in this world, it's hard to know where to start. Many of us have tried so many things and sometimes it seems as if there is nothing, we can do to make things better for someone else.

Once again ministry means 'SERVICE TO OTHERS.' Does it always mean helping the needy? What happens if you step out of your box and look for a need that isn't as obvious as others? It would be so worthwhile if someone responded to my questions on service and gave us new ideas. It's easy to help grandma mow her lawn but not as easy to help her pull weeds and plant some wildflower seeds. It's easy to give a neighbor a meal but not as easy to ask what their favorites are and prepare something they like. It's easy to be a Eucharistic Minister at 10:30 Mass, but not as easy to be one at 7:15. This list can go on and on.

Truthfully, I don't know the complete answer. I do know that there are needs everywhere, but where do we start? Or is it easier to turn our backs and let be what will be! "A few weeks ago, I spoke about my personal project in attempting to get a couple of polite, nice children into the school. I did what I could to help them. They were accepted and that was when the miracle occurred. The cost of catholic school education is expensive – more so than when my children were attending. Someone over this weekend emailed me and asked if he could receive more information. He wanted to help. I would have been happy if 100 parishioners had offered me $5. I would have been happy if a parishioner / school parent had offered me a used uniform in excellent shape. I would have been happy if someone had come to see me with any kind of suggestion. But this parishioner had inherited some money, and he was willing to share it. This was certainly thinking out of the box.

I was talking to Kathy Sturgeon this week about the Gabriel Project. She has been taking care of about 100 mothers a week. Many are those that return for diapers and formula. She gave away 6 car seats a few weeks ago. Official – approved car seats are expensive. But we are fortunate that we have a group who are interested in helping these young mothers. They are our unsung heroes! If you are looking for a simple way to help – diapers are the answer! She needs sizes 4-5-6-7. Check online for a website called Everylife. It is a pro-life diaper company. If you order diapers from there our own Gabriel Project can receive some credit for the group to use. We will be planning a drive-through in the early summer where you drop off diapers or whatever else they need. YLI will be hosting a baby shower in May. Again, think outside the box. Babies and mothers need a lot of items that are now more expensive than ever.

My challenge to all of us (including me) is to think outside of the box. If you find yourself helping someone in a difficult situation or even in a normal situation, you will be provided a service that might never be used.

If you think of some type of service we can share with our parish, send me an email hrrled@aol.com. I would be happy to share it with others.

Blessings, Jackie

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Lectionary: 50

page 524 in the Red Book in the pew

First Reading - Acts 4:8-12

Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said:

"Leaders of the people and elders:

If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a cripple, namely, by what means he was saved, then all of you and all the people of Israel should know that it was in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead; in his name this man stands before you healed.

He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved."

Responsorial Psalm 118

R: The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

Second Reading – 1 Jn 3:1-2

Beloved:

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.

Yet so we are.

The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.

Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed.

We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

Alleluia Jn 10:14

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel – Jn 10:11-18

Jesus said:

"I am the good shepherd.

A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them.

This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep.

I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold.

These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd.

This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again.

No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own.

I have power to lay it down, and power to take it up again.

This command I have received from my Father."

IV Domingo de Pascua

Leccionario: 50

pág. 525 en el libro rojo en las bancas

Primera Lectura- Hch 4, 8-12

En aquellos días, Pedro, lleno del Espíritu Santo, dijo: "Jefes del pueblo y ancianos, puesto que hoy se nos interroga acerca del beneficio hecho a un hombre enfermo, para saber cómo fue curado, sépanlo ustedes y sépalo todo el pueblo de Israel: este hombre ha quedado sano en el nombre de Jesús de Nazaret, a quien ustedes crucificaron y a quien Dios resucitó de entre los muertos. Este mismo Jesús es la piedra que ustedes, los constructores, han desechado y que ahora es la piedra angular. Ningún otro puede salvarnos, pues en la tierra no existe ninguna otra persona a quien Dios haya constituido como salvador nuestro".

Salmo Responsorial 117

R. La piedra que desecharon los constructores es ahora la piedra angular. Aleluya.

Segunda Lectura - 1 Jn 3, 1-2

Queridos hijos: Miren cuánto amor nos ha tenido el Padre, pues no sólo nos llamamos hijos de Dios, sino que lo somos. Si el mundo no nos reconoce, es porque tampoco lo ha reconocido a él.

Hermanos míos, ahora somos hijos de Dios, pero aún no se ha manifestado cómo seremos al fin. Y ya sabemos que, cuando él se manifieste, vamos a ser semejantes a él, porque lo veremos tal cual es.

Aclamación antes del Evangelio Jn 10, 14

R. Aleluya, aleluya.

Yo soy el buen pastor, dice el Señor; yo conozco a mis ovejas y ellas me conocen a mí.

R. Aleluya.

Evangelio Jn 10, 11-18

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a los fariseos: "Yo soy el buen pastor. El buen pastor da la vida por sus ovejas. En cambio, el asalariado, el que no es el pastor ni el dueño de las ovejas, cuando ve venir al lobo, abandona las ovejas y huye; el lobo se arroja sobre ellas y las dispersa, porque a un asalariado no le importan las ovejas. Yo soy el buen pastor, porque conozco a mis ovejas y ellas me conocen a mí, así como el Padre me conoce a mí y yo conozco al Padre. Yo doy la vida por mis ovejas. Tengo además otras ovejas que no son de este redil y es necesario que las traiga también a ellas; escucharán mi voz y habrá un solo rebaño y un solo pastor.

El Padre me ama porque doy mi vida para volverla a tomar. Nadie me la quita; yo la doy porque quiero. Tengo poder para darla y lo tengo también para volverla a tomar. Éste es el mandato que he recibido de mi Padre".
