14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!" - Mk 6:2

Cuando llegó el sábado, se puso a enseñar en la sinagoga, y la multitud que lo escuchaba se preguntaba con asombro: "¿Dónde aprendió este hombre tantas cosas? ¿De dónde le viene esa sabiduría y ese poder para hacer milagros?" - Mc 6, 2

PASTORS PONDERINGS

Dear Parishioners,

The readings this time of year are often enough about both universal and yet also universally experienced themes. And yet they are also intended to be reflected upon, with a certain degree of inner calmness, during this time of opportunity to relax.

Well relax, sort of. We had a very busy June this year, with every weekend, and even often every week, something special happening at the Parish:

Fr Greg's Ordination, Dahlia's consecration, Faith Formation's lovely annual Vacation Bible School, the Filipino Community's invitation to join them in venerating the Jesus Nazareno, our Parish Raffle and ending with the celebration of my 25th Anniversary of Ordination.

Thanks to all of you who participated and especially all of you who participated in the organization, setting up and cleaning up after all of these events. No one can say that "nothing really happens" at the parish ☺

This coming July, we're going to be hosting the relic of St. Jude on July 18th and the Filipino Community will be hosting its Luau Dinner dance on the 26th. If the case of both of these events there will be once again a fair number of people involved in the organization of the events, but hopefully the smiling and in the case of the relic of St. Jude, devoted faces will prove them to be worth it. Last year certainly the Luau proved to be a truly lovely event here, held in the middle of summer, when everyone enjoys thoughts of a lovely ocean breeze.

But getting then to the Readings. This week they are about rejection or at least incomprehension, in the first Reading, by the people, and in the Gospel by one's own family and neighbors.

Yes, incomprehension and outright rejection can certainly hurt. But here then is both the importance having a relationship first with God and then yes having an ability to listen.

The relationship with God ought to help us appreciate that no one on this earth has a final say about our worth, that belongs to God who loves us all. The ability to listen then help us to avoid the biggest heartaches because even those who don't like us (or we don't particularly like) have their truth as well. Still all of this needs to be tempered by our primary relationship with God. God loves us, first, and as St. Paul wrote in his Letter to the Romans, nothing can separate us from this God who cares for us all.

God bless to all.

-- Fr. Dennis

PENSAMIENTOS DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Queridos feligreses,

Las lecturas en esta parte del año tratan a menudo de temas universales y, al mismo tiempo, universalmente experimentados. Pero están destinados a reflexionar sobre ellos, con cierto grado de calma interior, durante este tiempo de oportunidad para relajarse.

Bueno, relájense, por lo menos un poco. Este año tuvimos un Junio muy ocupado. Cada fin de semana, e a veces cada semana, algo especial pasó en la Parroquia:

La ordenación del padre Greg, la consagración de Dahlia, la encantadora Escuela Bíblica de Vacaciones anual de Faith Formation, la invitación de la comunidad filipina a unirse a ellos para venerar a Jesús Nazareno, nuestra rifa parroquial y finalizar con la celebración de mi 25^o Aniversario de Ordenación.

Gracias a todos los que participaron y especialmente a todos los que participaron en la organización, preparación y limpieza después de todos estos eventos. Nadie puede decir que "no pasa nada" en la parroquia ☺

El próximo Julio, pasa la reliquia de San Judas a nuestra parroquia el 18 de Julio y la comunidad Filipina organizará su cena y baile Luau el 26. En el caso de ambos eventos, habrá una vez más un buen número de personas involucradas en la organización de los eventos, pero espero que las caras sonrientes y, en el caso de la reliquia de San Judas, devotas, demuestren que valen la pena. él. Sin duda, el año pasado el Luau resultó ser un evento verdaderamente encantador aquí, celebrado a mediados del verano, cuando todos disfrutaban de la agradable brisa del océano.

Pero pasando luego a las Lecturas. Esta semana se trata del rechazo o al menos de la incompreensión, en la primera Lectura, por parte del pueblo, y en el Evangelio por parte de los propios familiares y vecinos.

Sí, la incompreensión y el rechazo ciertamente pueden doler. Pero aquí es encuentra la importancia de tener como primero una buena relación con Dios y luego sí tener la capacidad de escuchar.

La relación con Dios debe ayudarnos a apreciar que nadie de esta tierra tiene la última palabra sobre nuestro valor, eso pertenece a Dios que nos ama a todos. La capacidad de escuchar nos ayuda a evitar los mayores dolores de cabeza porque incluso aquellos a quienes no les agradamos (o no nos agradan especialmente) también tienen su verdad. Aun así, todo esto debe ser atenuado por nuestra relación principal con Dios. Dios nos ama, primero, y como escribió San Pablo en su Carta a los Romanos, ¡nada puede separarnos de este Dios que se preocupa por todos nosotros.

Que Dios los siga bendiciendo a todos!

-- P. Dennis
