The mission of Saint Timothy parish is to form loving disciples of Jesus Christ who make a difference.

The 1st Sunday of Lent

On this First Sunday of Lent, in the Gospel of Mark (Mark 1:12-1) we accompany Jesus as he experiences a profound spiritual journey in the wilderness. This passage captures a pivotal moment where he confronts temptation, embraces solitude, and begins his public ministry. As we reflect on these verses, we find timeless lessons that resonate with our own spiritual paths.

The wilderness symbolizes a place of testing and purification. Jesus' forty days of fasting parallel the Israelites' forty years in the desert. This period of deprivation and solitude underscores the importance of self-discovery and reliance on God. In our own lives, moments of isolation can serve as opportunities for introspection and spiritual growth.

Temptation, represented by Satan's allure, echoes the universal struggle between the divine and the worldly. Jesus resists these temptations, highlighting the strength derived from a deep connection with God. This challenges us to examine our own vulnerabilities and the sources of temptation in our lives. Through prayer and reliance on God, we can find the strength to resist worldly distractions.

The proclamation of the Kingdom of God is central to Jesus' message in this passage. His call for repentance emphasizes the transformative power of turning away from sin and embracing a life aligned with God's will. This challenges us to examine our own lives and consider where we need to repent and realign our priorities with spiritual values.

The urgency of Jesus' message reminds us of the temporary nature of time. The "time is fulfilled" declaration calls us to be mindful of the present moment and to actively participate in God's unfolding plan. It encourages us to prioritize our spiritual journey amidst the busyness of life, recognizing the significance of each moment in shaping our relationship with the divine.

The Gospel of Mark offers a sincere spiritual reflection on the themes of testing, temptation, repentance, and the proclamation of the Kingdom of God. Through Jesus' wilderness experience, we are invited to navigate our own spiritual landscapes, confront our vulnerabilities, and align ourselves with God. As we embark on our Lenten Journey, let us heed the call to repentance, resist temptation, and proclaim the Kingdom of God in our lives.

Have a happy and blessed Lent!

Fr. Patrick

Meet our Catechumens and Candidates in OCIA! Please pray for them!

My name is Sarah Weber and I live with my family in Silverado Canyon. I am married to a Catholic man named Joshua, and we have two handsome boys together, a baby girl in heaven, and a baby on the way due in May 2024, along with our two dogs. I earned my Juris Doctor from Western State College of Law. I am currently a stay-at-home mom and I enjoy pouring myself into raising our boys. Aside from spending time with my family, my hobbies are crafting, painting, making things with my hands, and being outdoors.

I was raised a Seventh Day Adventist Christian, and I believe I can have a deeper connection to Christ through Catholicism and the Eucharist. My husband, who was raised Catholic, brought our family to our local Catholic Church, Saint Michael's Abbey. We knew we wanted to raise our children in the Catholic faith and continued to attend Mass at the abbey. As we searched for a parish to baptize our boys, we felt drawn to St. Timothy. Since then, our boys have been baptized, my husband was Confirmed, and our marriage was blessed. I am enjoying the OCIA journey and look forward to being baptized at the Easter Vigil.

A WORD ABOUT COMMUNITY AND CARING

On February 11th, at the 11 am Mass, right after the Homily, I stood up and promptly passed out with virtually no warning. The next thing that I knew, I was lying on my back in the pew with numerous concerned faces looking down upon me. Concerned, yes, but also taking immediate action with their sole goal being that of my welfare. Their caring for someone whom they shared faith with but whom they did not know personally calmed me, reassured me, in a new circumstance that was totally unknown to me. I was confused, of course, but not scared. I've been diagnosed with Atrial Fibrillation and am dealing accordingly with that. To those of you who were there for me, who prayed for me, I want you to know that I felt blessed by your presence. Rest assured, you made a difference that day in my life and for you being there, I shall remember and remain eternally grateful. Peace to you all.
