GOSPEL REFLECTION

4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Deuteronomy 18:18

Psalm 95

1 Corinthians 7:34

Mark 1:22

I love movies about exorcisms. Apparently, so do many others. The 2023 movie “Nefarious” features a possibly possessed inmate on death row. Critics were not impressed, but audiences scored it at 97% on the website Rotten Tomatoes. Most people have an appreciation for the demonic realm, even if cultural elites are generally embarrassed about it. As is standard in exorcism movies, the afflicted person (in this case, a man named Edward Brady) thinks and acts like multiple persons. He is someone besides himself. We know what that is like. We feel fake sometimes, not ourselves.

The same dynamic is on dramatic display this week in the Gospel. Jesus the Exorcist approaches a possessed man who utters, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?” Notice the plural, us. The basic effect of the demonic is division. The man’s identity is fractured, divided, and thus many. Jesus powerfully expels the spirit by saying, “Quiet! Come out of him!” Jesus’ word has the power to restore the man’s singularity — him — and indeed it does.

All this helps us to dismiss childish images of demons sporting red goat tails. Equally, it overcomes the cultured aloofness that dreams demons are mere metaphors for evil. We see instead that fallen angels are conscious and intelligent beings who orient their agency toward division. They bring about schism where there should be unity, e.g., in persons, families, communities, politics, and so on. Thankfully, Jesus commands demons to flee from all these places to restore wholeness and peace. What if we made room for his word where we need it?

— Father John Muir ©LPi

Dear Parishioners,

Blessings are a part of our tradition as Catholics. We bless objects and people; invoking God's love upon each. As we bless objects, we are reminded that all objects are to be used for good, so we treat those blessed objects differently. People are also reminded that we are good through our blessings and that we "use" that blessing to further our goodness. Animals are blessed because they are also creatures of God. Most blessings are done spontaneously, but others follow certain forms (e.g. water for baptisms). As Catholics then we celebrate whenever someone wants a blessing or wants something blessed.

Couple of Reminders: We will have Sunday 5:00 pm mass on February 11 (in spite of it being Super Bowl Sunday); and LENT starts February 14 (so yayyyyy).

You may have noticed a shortage of singers at Mass lately: some have been traveling, others moved away. Music forms an essential element to Mass; it is not to be removed. Therefore singers also are important. Consider joining with Joseph to sing and make our celebration even better.

CSA 2023 was a huge success, thanks to your generosity! Once we get our final numbers, our rebate will be substantial (largest in diocese!)

Thanks to those donations to ONE CHURCH as well, almost $9000 raised towards this Diocesan Collection.

Your Pastor, Fr. Bob

GREETER MINISTRY

The Act of Welcoming in a parish cannot be overstated. The Welcome that parishioners and guests receive in a parish reflects the heart of the people of the parish, and reflects our sense of Christian Discipleship.

We need Greeters here at OLS at all masses to welcome people. Already we have several who are present at those church doors each week to open them, smile and assist. This also includes several families. Become a more involved part of the hospitality here at OLS.

There will be training on February 3 at 5:15 pm.

That simple act of a smile and hello can make all the difference for one person coming to Mass, returning to mass after a long time away, or who comes every week but has had a bad week. That simple act can be Christ for them. Join us in this ministry!

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEK - PRIESTS' RELIEF

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Priest's Relief Collection is taken up each year to provide funds for this specific purpose. This collection will be taken up on February 3 & 4, 2024.

As Bishop of the Diocese of Reno, I have a special concern for the priests who share with me the ministry and care for the faithful of this diocese. These priests have dedicated their lives to the ministry and service to the people of Northern Nevada.

One of my responsibilities is to ensure that we are prepared to assist them, when necessary, with retirement and health needs that are extraordinary. Despite our best efforts to plan, there may be times when a priest may find it necessary to ask for additional financial assistance because insurance covers only a portion of health expenses or there is some other unforeseen crisis.

I know you share with me a sense of gratitude for the ministry of our priests. Your financial support will enable me to be prepared to assist them in times of special need. Thank you for your generosity.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

+ Daniel Mueggenborg
