PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

We are going to decorate for the Easter Vigil on
Saturday morning, March 30,
10:00 am in the Church.

Please come and help!!
(Opportunity for service hours)

Dear Parishioners, Congrats to our 6th and 8th grade boys at OLS School. They won their respective CYO basketball championships! I watched the 8th graders, it was CLOSE!!!!

HEADS up ... the ARC ministry is sponsoring an Easter Egg Hunt at Plumas Park (adjacent to OLS School) this Sunday, March 24, after the 10:00 am Mass. Open to all kids ages 2-10 years. NO RSVP required.

Coming to Mass - I am introducing a new segment. Preparing for mass begins at home, and it begins many hours if not days before the Saturday or Sunday masses. It begins with looking ahead at the Readings that will be used. Take a little time each day to contemplate what God speaks through them, become familiar with them, so that at Mass we can engage in the story. What I would like to do each week is to give a little synopsis of those readings to be proclaimed and preached on for the upcoming weekend.

The goal is for us to be more engaged as a parish in our liturgy, so that our understanding of Jesus will also grow.

Your Pastor, Fr. Bob

GOSPEL REFLECTION

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Isaiah 50:7

Psalms 22

Philippians 2:8-9

Mark 15:22

The Whole Story

The Bible is a strange book. It's one of the only books that most people never read in its entirety, even those who claim it as one of their favorites. It's also one of the only books that we feel comfortable chopping up and sectioning out. There's nothing wrong with that, really, until people start making wholesale judgments of divine revelation based on one tiny part of it. You can't base your belief system on a few lines from Leviticus and ignore the Gospels, just like you can't embrace the teachings of Jesus and ignore the Old Testament. You need to accept the whole story, in its entirety, or none of it means anything.

But it's hard, because accepting the whole story means patience. It means critical thinking. It requires endurance. It's easier just to throw a line from Leviticus at a problem and be done with it.

Holy Week reminds us that salvation history is a tapestry, not a collection of threads. As beautiful as the individual stitches might be, you won't appreciate the message unless you back up and look at the complete product. If we didn't have the whole story, Holy Thursday and Good Friday would be neither holy nor good. And without Holy Week, Easter morning means nothing — it's just a guy waking up.

How often in life do we find ourselves confused to the point of hopelessness, unable to make sense of it all? Overwhelmed by the pain and suffering that exists in this world, and for seemingly no reason. Some of us become so frustrated we throw up our hands and despair.

We need Easter. We need the whole story. We need to be patient.

"His disciples did not understand this at first, but when Jesus had been glorified they remembered that these things were written about him and that they had done this for him." — John 12:16

Applications may be obtained through email by sending your request to Sandy McClure at sjarmentrout@yahoo.com, or picked up in the church vestibule, or from the parish office, or from your school's career center or counselor.

DISABILITIES AND SACRAMENTS

Having an intellectual or other disability does not prevent a person from receiving sacraments.

Children and adults who cannot "understand" first communion or confirmation the way most of us would are not excluded from receiving these sacraments. Other disabilities do not prevent people from receiving sacraments either. "The existence of a disability is not considered in and of itself as disqualifying a person from receiving the Eucharist." (National Conference of Catholic Bishops)

Preparation for sacramental reception would be individualized in our parish as needed.

Please contact Fr Bob pastor@olsparish.com or Fr. Dariusz frdariusz@olsparish.com if there is a need among your family or friends and you want to discuss this with them.

RCIA FOR CHILDREN (RCIA-C)

At the 4:00 pm Mass on Saturday, April 6, three young people will become Catholic!

For two years they have been preparing for the three sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, First Communion). We are ready to welcome them into the Church and into the family of Jesus!

Come support and celebrate with them!

CENTERING PRAYER GROUP

The Centering Prayer group meets each Thursday via Zoom from 10:15 am to 11:45 am.

This method of silent prayer is based on that taught by Fr. Thomas Keating in his book, "Open Heart, Open Mind." In silence, we open ourselves to awareness of God's presence.

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION - HOLY LAND

Office of the Bishop

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On this Good Friday, Christians turn their attention especially to the Holy Land and its place in salvation history.

Christians in the Holy Land face special challenges – many of which we hear about in the news quite often. The pandemic had hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. In addition, the tragic events that started on October 7, 2023, have brought many disastrous consequences, including a greatly increased need for support for the Christian community. Although often through adversities, a Christian presence always remained in the Holy Land since the beginning of the Church. It is important that Christians continue to live, work, and pray in the Holy Land, where the Church started.

The Franciscans who serve there have been entrusted with care, presence, and service of the Holy Places. They house and feed the poor, provide formation and education, and conduct pastoral ministry in 23 parishes and 80 shrines. This Good Friday collection is the primary means of support for their work.

Through the Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world to stand in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. Pope Francis encourages us to donate to this Pontifical Good Friday Collection as a means of peace and an assurance of a Christian presence in the place where Christ lived on earth. Please consider a thoughtful contribution to this worthy cause.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,
Yours in Christ,

+ Daniel Mueggenborg
