Our Mission Statement

The Cathedral Community is a Roman Catholic parish of the Diocese of Rochester that gathers and worships at Sacred Heart Cathedral. We are an ethnically, racially and economically diverse community with unique gifts and challenges within an urban neighborhood.

Our mission is to reach out with hope to all in our community, neighborhood and beyond, to proclaim the Gospel with joy and enthusiasm, and to prepare disciples who will go forth to serve God and others, especially the poor, with mercy and compassion.

Pastoral Perspectives

There was once a woman who set out to buy a silver soup ladle. The silverware salesperson was very obliging. She showed the woman many ladles. Some were very fancy, gilded pieces with heavily embossed curved handles. The price seemed right, but the woman couldn't decide.

Finally, the salesperson said, "Perhaps you would like to see something like this." She brought out a ladle that was plain and unadorned. This one pleased the woman very much. She wanted to buy it. But the price! It was nearly double the cost of the others she had been shown. She asked why, and the salesperson said, "You see, in fancy, ornamental ware the flaws in the material don't show. The defects are covered up by the ornamentation. As you can see, the plain ladle is free of defects. If there were any, you would see them easily. It's as simple as that."

When you strip away the fancy words about what it means to be a disciple of Jesus, it comes down to whether you are a loving, caring, forgiving person. And no amount of ornamentation, no amount of superficial displays of piety can cover that up.

The word resentment means to "re-feel" - - to feel again a wrong that has been done by another, to re-feel again the wound or the injury. The Hebrew Talmud says that a person who harbors resentment is like one who, having cut one hand while handling a knife, avenges himself by cutting the other hand.

Many people are ill not because of what they are eating, but what is eating them inside. The medical and social sciences have long been telling us that harboring grudges and resentments literally makes people sick. Forgiveness on the other hand can do more to make them well than pills and medicine.

FACILITY USAGE AT THE CATHEDRAL

Normally at the Cathedral at this time of year, our various committees and organizations would be requesting the use of various rooms in our building for their work. Due to the continuing challenge of the COVID—19 Virus, the Cathedral will remain closed for meetings or gatherings beyond sacramental celebrations. We hope, however, that our committees and organizations will continue their important work using social media or the other various video conferencing tools that are available. We are anxious to share the good work that continues here by our dedicated parish family!

MASS INTENTIONS

Consider requesting a Mass for a deceased loved one. The offering is $10. Weekend and weekday masses on Monday/Wednesday/Friday are available for 2020 and for 2021. Please call the office at 254-3221 to request a mass.

It's tough to move forward in life if you are continually staring in the rearview mirror at an incident in your past. Purposefully choose to forget. "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." Amen.

- Thought for the week: Listen carefully to those who love you the most.
- Smile for the week: Did you hear about the restaurant on the moon? The food is terrific but there's no atmosphere.

God bless! Have a wonderful week!

Scripture Study for Next Sunday

Next Sunday, September 6, 2020, is the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. The readings will be Ezekiel 33:7-9; Romans 13:8-10; and Matthew 18:15-20.

All of the readings next Sunday focus on our relationships with God and with one another. They remind us that certain behaviors will harm those relationships and that we must encourage one another to avoid such behaviors; when we fail to avoid them we must acknowledge our failure and be reconciled. Both civil society, and the followers of Jesus, have laws in order to encourage behavior that protect healthy relationships among its members.

In the reading from Ezekiel, the Lord refers to the prophet as "a watchman." In Old Testament times, it was a watchman's responsibility to alert people to the approaching enemy. If he failed to do his job, he was held responsible for the lives lost in his community. The prophet is responsible for alerting people to "the enemy" who will destroy their relationship with God. The prophet reminds us that often it is our own behavior that is the enemy. In the Gospel, Jesus encourages his followers to speak with a prophetic voice, warning one another when they stray from the way of life he has taught them. He describes the three attempts one should make: the first attempt is one-on-one and personal; the second is with "two or three witnesses;" and the final approaches another with the authority of the church (the whole community of disciples.) The Christian community is to be intent on both conversion and reconciliation.

St. Paul's letter to the Romans sums up the ultimate goal of all the laws that guide the community of disciples "Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law."
