Sacred Heart Cathedral Women’s Group

The Sacred Heart Cathedral Women's Group meets throughout the year for fellowship and faith based study discussions Friday mornings from 10:30 am - Noon, in the Cathedral Hall. All women are invited and children are warmly welcome. Our summer discussions will be based on the book, "Finding God's Will for You" by St. Francis de Sales, which can be purchased at Women's Group meetings, or you can bring your own copy (electronic versions are also available). This is an open study: come every week or come whenever you can.

For more information, please email SacredHeartCathedralWG@gmail.com

Teachers and Assistants Needed

Teachers & assistants are needed for the Religious Education program! If you love working with kids and want to share the Catholic faith with others, please prayerfully consider volunteering for Sacred Heart Cathedral's Religious Education program. The students range from 4-12 years old, and the time commitment is 1 hour a week on Sundays from 10-11 AM. Our program is based on the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd curriculum. This is an excellent opportunity for high school students to fulfill their community service hours. Contact Karen Stevens, Religious Education Coordinator, at: karen.stevens@dor.org

The Angels of Mercy have been serving more traumatized women lately than ever through their Butterfly Boutique with clothing and toiletries. The following items would help us to continue to support women who are striving to move forward from assaults on their dignity. Please consider donating as many of the following as fits your budget:

$10 Gift cards to Dollar Tree, hair care products, shower soap, toothbrushes & toothpaste, deodorant, and body lotion.

All the items can be placed in a box and given to Dcn. Mike Kristan, who will deliver to the Angels of Mercy. We Thank you very much for your consideration.
