Prayers Requested:

Please pray for the individuals who have requested our prayers: Patrick Brennan, Mary Bush, Mary Jean Castellano, James Colterman, Philomena

Colucci, Bud Cottier, Gary Feldman, Ralph Grace, Mary Helen Hiller, Ginger Ierardi, Steven Kistner, Barbara Labroj, Peggy Lester, Rachael M., Lourdes May, Cecile McDonald, Cathy Miccia, Janice Milliman, Kelly Farrell Murphy, Dolly Nolan, Quinn Oliphant, Bob O'Neill, Marion Robinson, Tony Rossi, Tom & Kathleen Sullivan, Barb Tindale, and Phillippa Wilson.

At the time of Moses seventy elders were called. The spirit rested upon them and they prophesied. Eldad and Medad were not part of the seventy, but they too started prophesying in the camp. Some were upset – perhaps jealous that they did. After all, they were not part of the seventy who were called. Moses responds to their objections by saying, “Would that the Lord might bestow his spirit on them all!”

Centuries later, the apostle John raised a similar objection when he observed someone driving out demons in Jesus’ name. He witnessed someone not of their group, an outsider, someone who didn’t officially belong, was doing marvelous deeds in the name of Jesus. Perhaps John was looking for approval, a pat on the back, from the Lord by bringing this to his attention. After all, he was trying to preserve the authenticity and purity of Jesus’ message. Perhaps he didn’t realize he was trying to maintain a monopoly over Jesus’ activity, of restricting the possibility of speaking and acting in Jesus’ name only to those who have been personally chosen and called. The issue back then, as it is today, is who has the right? Who has the power? Who has the authority? Who’s got the goods? Who’s in and who’s out? Who should be listened to and who should be silenced?

Jesus’ response to John is profound: “Do not prevent him... Whoever is not against us is for us.” The Gospel message is clear, and it rebukes strongly those who are a stumbling block rather than a stepping stone for others who are moved by the Spirit of God. This is to say, that in the community of the faithful, like us, who are called to stand as a witness of the love and mercy of God, there is no room for pettiness or arrogance and envy; no room for jealousy, intolerance, and scandalizing others; no room for gossiping and twisting the truth. The Spirit of God has been poured out upon each of us – at Baptism. Therefore, we are all called to a radical discipleship, to be stepping stones for others: to offer support in moments of weakness and doubt, to offer encouragement to those who may not be of our group, but who nevertheless, feed the hungry, clothe the naked; those who do good, who love and forgive and embrace others with compassion and mercy. Radical discipleship calls us to refuse to pick up and throw the stone of accusation and judgement, to accept others as they are, and who they are. For we are all God’s creatures, beautifully and wonderfully made in the image and likeness of God. All have special gifts for the good of all.

The Spirit has been poured – even on those we sometimes least expect. Words of wisdom come from the most unexpected people - we need to listen more. Gestures of love and compassion occur in the most unexpected places – we need to be more aware and grateful. For just as in the days of Moses there are still prophets among us. Just as Medad and Eldad they may not be officially sanctioned, but the message they bring may be true. The Spirit has been poured out. Be a stepping stone, a living stone, building up the people of God.

Young Adult Gathering for those in their 20's and 30's
Thursday, September 30
OLQP (or virtually!)

Is Common Ground Even Possible?

We all find ourselves in conflict with others at times in our lives. In particular, one of the things we as humans do is label one another. We may feel alienated and deeply divided, particularly when we begin to designate one another as conservative or liberal, traditional or progressive, etc. Yet, rarely do any of us ever match up perfectly into the label we have been assigned by a fellow human being. Of course, our faith reminds us it is God who created us and knows us more intimately that we know ourselves.

There are two options for coming together. If you can come in person, please join us at 6:30 for dinner and community, followed by prayer, reflection and conversation until 8:30. If you want to join us over Zoom, please join us from 7:30-8:30. Zoom link will be sent as we get closer. Masks will be worn

WE HELPED MAKE THE NOURISH NEW YORK PROGRAM PERMANENT. THE BILL WAS NEVER SENT TO THE GOVERNOR FOR SIGNATURE! PLEASE HELP!

The New York State Legislature voted to make NOURISH NEW YORK (NYS Senate Bill S4892A), the state's farm to food bank/pantry initiative, a permanent state program. This pandemic-initiative provides funding to New York's food banks and emergency food providers (such as Catholic parish food pantries and other community food pantries) for the direct purchase of New York-produced fruit, vegetables and dairy products to feed those in need. To-date, food banks have purchased and passed through to food pantries 21 million pounds of agricultural products from New York farms which fed 1.3 million food-insecure families across the state. NOURISH NEW YORK invests in a statewide food system that expands market opportunities for farmers, eliminates food waste, and makes sure no New Yorker goes hungry.

Our advocacy on Diocesan Public Policy Weekend (February 2021) helped make the NOURISH NEW YORK program permanent, but legislative leaders never sent the bill to the Governor for signature!

Please contact Governor Kathy Hochul. Ask her to request that the NOURISH NY bill be sent to her by the Legislature for her signature. 518-474-8390 or governor.ny.gov/content/governor-contact-form

Please contact these State legislative leaders to urge that they send the bill to Governor Hochul today and call your NYS Senator and Assemblymember – ask them to get the NOURISH NY bill signed.

Monthly Food Collection - Supermarket Weekend

When we needed to find a new agency to receive the groceries from our monthly food collection, the suggestion was made at the Outreach Meeting to find an agency which supports some of the poorest neighborhoods in our community. So, starting this month, the food collection will be sent to the Sr. Regis Food Bank which is a ministry of the Cabrini Parish. The food bank is located on Bay Street. Sr. Julia Norton RSM, the director, was very grateful to hear of this recurring donation. Volunteers will be needed to collect the groceries and deliver them to the Bay Street location on Monday mornings. (The food collection is held on the last weekend of the month at both parishes). Food Bank volunteers will be in the parking lot to pick up the groceries from the cars and carry them into the building – you don't even have to get out of your car. If you're interested in joining the list of delivery volunteers, please email or call Gail at gailkindlon@gmail.com or 309-6950. Thank you for helping to feed the hungry through your continued support of this food collection.

Readings for the Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading Nm 11:25-29

The LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to Moses. Taking some of the spirit that was on Moses, the LORD bestowed it on the seventy elders; and as the spirit came to rest on them, they prophesied. Now two men, one named Eldad and the other Medad, were not in the gathering but had been left in the camp. They too had been on the list, but had not gone out to the tent; yet the spirit came to rest on them also, and they prophesied in the camp. So, when a young man quickly told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp," Joshua, son of Nun, who from his youth had been Moses' aide, said, "Moses, my lord, stop them." But Moses answered him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets! Would that the LORD might bestow his spirit on them all!" The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm Ps 19:8, 10, 12-13, 14R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul; the decree of the LORD is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the LORD are true, all of them just.

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

Though your servant is careful of them, very diligent in keeping them,
Yet who can detect failings? Cleanse me from my unknown faults!

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

From wanton sin especially, restrain your servant; let it not rule over me.
Then shall I be blameless and innocent of serious sin.

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.2nd Reading Jas 5:1-6

Come now, you rich, weep and wail over your impending miseries. Your wealth has rotted away, your clothes have become moth-eaten, your gold and silver have corroded, and that corrosion will be a testimony against you; it will devour your flesh like a fire. You have stored up treasure for the last days. Behold, the wages you withheld from the workers who harvested your fields are crying aloud; and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. You have lived on earth in luxury and pleasure; you have fattened your hearts for the day of slaughter. You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous one; he offers you no resistance. The Word of the Lord

Gospel Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us. Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward. "Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life crippled than with two feet to be thrown into Gehenna. And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. Better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into Gehenna, where 'their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.'" The Gospel of the Lord

“Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.” (Mark 9:41)

We are made in God’s image and likeness. We tend to forget this. When you look at others, do you see the face of Jesus in them? When others look at you, do they see the face of Jesus in you? When we realize that all lives matter to God, then gratitude and generously become easier. Why? Because that’s the way we are made! We are one Body of Christ; when one of us is hurting, all of us feel the pain.
