No matter where I went lately, people kept asking me about the priest in the Diocese of Phoenix who, for 20 years, used an incorrect formula for Baptism saying "We baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" instead of the proper "I baptize you..." The priest in question said he wanted to include the whole assembled community in the act of baptism and hence the "we." The surprise for everyone was that Bishop Olmsted, after consulting the Vatican Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, declared all such baptisms "invalid" (i.e. null and void and must be done over) and not simply "illicit" (i.e. against church law.)

Perhaps the Church had to come down hard on this matter to maintain the proper discipline of the sacraments lest priests or other ministers simply use their imaginations to invent formulas which represent neither the theology of the Church nor the will of Christ. At least since the time of St. Augustine in the early 400's the Church has faithfully maintained that when one baptizes, it is really Christ Himself who baptizes. Hence, the argument goes, the necessary baptismal formula must use the "I" of Christ alone.

While I can understand the position that Bishop Olmsted and the CDF have taken, I believe they are misguided. The harm done to the laity in the Diocese of Phoenix and the scores of people elsewhere who are now questioning the validity of their own baptism is not worth this theological hairsplitting. Understandably, parents now question that if their children were not really baptized are they still in original sin, deprived of sanctifying grace and ineligible for other sacraments already received such as Confirmation or First Eucharist? Or even further, since a man not validly baptized could not in later years be validly ordained a priest and hence could not validly preside at Eucharist, does that mean that his parishioners have been deprived of truly receiving the Body of Christ for years on end?

This is all religious foolishness since the Church's theology long ago safeguarded itself against such a mess. Lest the celebration of Sacraments devolve into pure magic (where Hermione Granger can instruct Ron Beasley that if the correct magic words are not pronounced correctly, then the magic simply doesn't happen.) the Catholic Church has long taught that, taking into account the celebrant's intention to do what the Church intends, the sacraments always work ex opere operato, "by the very fact of the action being performed." The Catechism of the Catholic Church asserts that the celebrant is only required "to will to do what the Church does when she baptizes, and to apply the Trinitarian baptismal formula" for a valid Baptism. (1256) Certainly, by his own admission, the errant priest from Phoenix intended to baptize, even if the formula he used wasn't perfect. As the Catechism assures us: "From the moment that a sacrament is celebrated in accordance with the intention of the Church, the power of Christ and his Spirit acts in and through it, independently of the personal holiness [or cluelessness?] of the minister." (1128)

Peace to all,

Fr. Hart

A prayer for Ukraine

Loving God,
 We pray for the people of Ukraine,
 for all those suffering or afraid, that you will be close to them and protect them.
 We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices.
 We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need.
 May we walk in your ways so that peace and justice become a reality for the people of Ukraine and for all the world. Amen.

Outreach Collection

It is no surprise that homeless shelters and clothing closets have a constant need for socks and underwear. This month the Outreach Committee will be collecting new men's and women's socks and underwear to help supply the area shelters. Donations can be dropped off at either church location through April 3, 2022. We'll need volunteers to help sort and organize the donations at St. Thomas More Gathering Space on Monday, April 4th at 3:30. If you are available to deliver the donations, please email gailkindlon@gmail.com. Thanks for your continued support of those in need in our community.

EASTER FLOWERS at STM & OLQP

If you would like to make a donation towards our Easter Decorations this year, please fill out the form below, place it in an envelope marked Easter Flowers along with your offering and place it in the collection box or send to church by April 11th.

Slattery Hall - Our Lady Queen of Peace

After dinner we will take part in a version of the Stations of the Cross that calls for peace and justice in our world and in our hearts. Please join us as we reflect and remember Jesus' journey to the cross and God's call to humankind to bring compassion and mercy to all of those who suffer. May we hear their voices and be challenged to find greater freedom in how we share God's gifts of hope and faith.

If anyone is interested in babysitting for their children, please contact Meghan at meghan.robinson@dor.org. We have a couple of CASE trained parish volunteers who are happy to babysit at church.

You are invited to join an Ecumenical Walk for Peace with the Stations of the Cross sponsored by Cabrini Parish (Fr. Daniel Ruiz, pastor)
Friday, April 15, 2022 (Good Friday) 11:30 am

As people of faith our hearts are moved with compassion as we witness the increasing violence in our city. May we commit ourselves to build peace...let us start with prayer.

At Cabrini Parish, we are inviting our brothers and sisters from other Catholic parishes and from churches of other Christian denominations, as well as members of the police and public officials to join us for this ecumenical walk for peace.

We will gather in the parking lot at Corpus Christi Church (864 E Main St) at 11:30 am and soon depart on our walk towards Saint Michael, making fourteen stops along the way in places where violent crimes have occurred for reflection. The Way of the Cross will be made present along the way as members of our community will be dressed up and playing the different characters of the Passion of Our Lord.

Let us know you will be joining us and request a t-shirt at www.tinyurl.com/WalkforPeaceRochester

"No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan."
(JOSHUA 5:12)

Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.

Financial News

At the direction of our Financial Councils, we will, once a month, be presenting in the bulletin more information about our weekly collections, including EFT contributions, and our fiscal year-to-date budget. This will provide our parishioners with the data necessary to better monitor, along with the Council members, our ongoing fiscal health. This will be in the bulletin, usually, the second Sunday of the month and will reflect the information for the previous month's ending figures. As you see below there will no longer be YTD totals reported on a weekly basis, as it is not a number that reflects the actual financial information. Thank you for your continued generosity.
